PREFACE

Over twenty years have elapsed since the beginning of the compilation of this genealogical history. Our only means of contacting the descendants was by letter and a questionnaire. Many to whom we have written have responded so willingly and generously that the task has been a pleasant one. The number of helpers is so great that space will not permit of individual mention of their names, but we wish to extend to them all our most sincere thanks for their cooperation. Without their great assistance this history would not have been so successfully completed.

An attempt has been made to bring the history up to the present time, but in many cases, where contact was made early in this research, there is still much concerning the present generation that should be added. Time, however, will not permit again contacting and bringing these lines of descent up to date. Other lines of descent will be found incomplete due to lack of replies to our letters even though the parties were written to several times. In general there has been a willing cooperation and a general desire to have these records put into a permanent form so that they may be consulted at any time by any who may so desire. By doing this those whose records are not up to the present may have the earlier record at hand to which they may connect the more recent events.

During these past twenty years of correspondence we feel that we have made many new friends. Our regret is that distance prevents us meeting them personally, shaking their hand, and fostering this friendship. The responses to our letters have shown an honest, careful and sturdy class of people of whose kinship one should be justly proud. Most of us would rather do a day's work than write a letter and the Slonaker clan is no exception. Many have occupied responsible positions and were leaders in their community. The spirit of perseverance in the blood is bound to lead the younger generations on to the highest development of the good qualities they possess.

Having contacted many thousands of these descendants, many of whom belong to the ninth and tenth generations in this country, we are able to form a good idea of the character and loyalty of these people. Many of the earliest ancestors fought in the Revolutionary War and many others took active parts in subsequent wars. They have been honest, industrious and law-abiding citizens, ready to defend the constitution, their country, and their freedom with the last drop of blood. Notwithstanding the fact that these descendants trace back to German and Swiss origin, our ancestry emigrated from those regions because of oppression and at once adopted this country because of the liberty and freedom it offered and were ready to defend it against any invader. This feeling and attitude of loyalty to America has strengthened with succeeding generations until now there is no trace of an affiliation with the country from which our forefathers came. Because of their honesty, integrity, loyalty and perseverance, we have found these descendants held in great esteem by the persons of the community in which they live.

Since many of the descendants of this generation may not know the conditions and trials to which our early ancestors had to adapt themselves, we have considered it appropriate to introduce the genealogical history by briefly reviewing some of the early history. These introductory chapters are followed in turn by the genealogy, the references to where the information was found (arabic numbers in parenthesis found in the text), and lastly a general page index of all names found in the genealogy. In all cases we have endeavored to spell the given and surnames as reported to us.

In the genealogy the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) preceding the name indicates the generation in this country to which that person belongs. The arabic number (1, 2, etc.) following the Roman numeral indicates the 1st, 2d, etc., child in the family just preceding. All brothers and sisters of a given family are thus preceded by the same Roman numeral. A key to the ancestors and the preceding pages (in parenthesis), where found, is placed at the top of each page. This will greatly facilitate tracing the ancestry.

Although illustrations and photographs would have added greatly to the interest and value of these records, they have been intentionally omitted because of adding to the cost of publication. Persons possessing such illustrations can easily attach them in the book at the appropriate place.

The records of our ancestry and of ourselves should be preserved for future generations. This is a legacy we owe to them and we should do our utmost to leave them as complete a record as possible. It was with this aim in mind that this task was begun and, though not as complete as we should like to have it, we trust it will at least partly fulfill its purpose.

James Rollin Slonaker.

INTRODUCTION

As an introduction to the history of the Slonaker family in America it will be well to give some account of the conditions in Europe which caused them and their kinsmen to forsake their homes and emigrate to this country, which was at that time practically an unbroken wilderness.

It has now been definitely established that the Slonakers are of German, or Swiss origin and not Dutch as many have supposed. The idea of Dutch descent has probably arisen from the fact that practically all our ancestry who emigrated, prior to 1800, from their native country sailed from Rotterdam, Holland. Owing to inadequate transportation and a lack of funds to pay the passage to America many of them remained some time at Rotterdam. It is very doubtful if any who came to this country became citizens of Holland.

Most of the German immigrants who came to this country between the years 1700 and 1770 came from that part of Germany commonly called the Palatinate and from the region located between Landau, Spire and Mannheim and extending almost to Cologne. Rush in his account of the Germans in Pennsylvania says: "The aged Germans, and the ancestors of those who are young, migrated chiefly from the Palatinate; from Alsace, Swabia, Saxony, and Switzerland; but natives of every principality and dukedom of Germany are to be found in different parts of the state. They brought but little property with them. A few pieces of gold or silver coin, a chest filled with clothes, a bible, and a prayer or hymn book constituted the whole stock of most of them." This region had been for many years the battle field of Europe. Like Alsaice-Lorraine today, it was greatly devastated by the opposing armies and the inhabitants had been reduced to extreme poverty. They had been harrassed by political troubles, had been taxed to the limit, their crops had been confiscated by the opposing armies, their church freedom had been taken from them and their families had been subjected to horrible atrocities. They were therefore in a frame of mind and bodily discomfort to welcome a change which held promise of freedom and luxury.

Regardless of the conditions under which they existed relatively few Germans emigrated to America prior to 1709. It has been estimated that from the first migration in 1683 to 1709 there were not more than two or three thousand immigrants and these were sporatic and unimportant. The great movement began in the spring of 1709. This was caused by various offers of land in the colonies, by the Golden Books of Queen Anne and other propaganda, and by unscrupulous agents of ship companies who scattered over Germany and worked up traffic by every trick or device which they could use. These agents did not hesitate to get men drunk in order to have them sign papers which they had not read. Their profits were in proportion to the number of signatures they secured. In addition to these lures and the conditions previously mentioned the winter of 1708-1709 was bitterly cold, killing their fruit trees, vines, and many of their domestic animals and subjecting them to many hardships. These conditions started the great migration in the spring of 1709.

Britain's Naturalization Act for all foreign Protestants may also have been an inducement. As a result of these various inducements and conditions from May to September 1709 between thirteen and fourteen thousand Germans from the Palatinate, mainly of the peasant class, had gone down the Rhine, shipped from Rotterdam and landed in London. Some historians claim that 30,000 Palatinates went to England in 1708-9, but Differderfer (5) thinks this number is unsustained. He thinks the number should be 14,000 or less. Of this number 3,800 were sent to Ireland, 650 to South Carolina, 3,200 to New York, 2,000 returned to Germany, 1500 died in England and possibly 350 enlisted. According to his estimate the total number should be approximately 11,500. Most of them had barely sufficient money for a continuous passage to America. On arriving in London they found that ships were not available for transshipment to America. Many were marooned and soon exhausted their slender resources. They found themselves in a strange country, among strange people who spoke a language they could not understand; they were almost destitute and would have died of hunger had they not been helped by the British government and by private subscriptions. But this help was insufficient and many had to beg for food on the streets. Queen Anna provided tents for their protection on Blackmoor near London.

In response to an offer of a tract of land west of the Hudson by Mohawk chiefs who were on an embassy to England some four thousand were shipped in ten vessels to New York. During the passage, which required six months, they were subjected to many hardships and seventeen hundred died before reaching port at New York. This was the first big immigration of Germans to America. These immigrants appear to have been under an agreement to raise hemp and manufacture tar for the government naval stores to pay for their passage. Governor Hunter took them in charge and quartered them on Governor's Island in New York harbor. He provided for the sick and the women, apprenticed the numerous orphans and sent the able-bodied men up the Hudson to Livingston Manor to work out their contract.

According to the German version of this transaction it consisted of perfidity, extortion, and fraud throughout. They claimed that the Governor and his friends were privately profiting by the enterprise.

After three or four years of practical slavery most of the Germans escaped and located on the land in the Schoharie Valley which had been promised them by the Indians. After much hard work and many hardships and privations they cleared the land and got it under cultivation. As soon as they had succeeded in doing this they were informed that they had no legal title and would have to pay a price which to them seemed exorbitant. A few paid the price and remained.

Governor Keith of Pennsylvania heard of these conditions while in Albany in 1723 and told the Germans that there was room for them in his province. In accordance with this offer thirty-three families banded together and made their way to the head-waters of the Susquehanna River down which they floated their possessions until they reached the mouth of the Swatara River up which they went and settled west of Reading and south of the Blue Mountains in the rich valley of the Tulpehocken. Here many of their descendants are still found.

The Germans in Europe soon learned of the treatment and hardship of their kinsmen in New York Province. Nearly all, therefore, who landed at the New York port, owing to lack of vessels to take them to another port, made their way at once to Pennsylvania. Here, like their countrymen, they became hard-working and industrious farmers. They usually selected the well-wooded valleys for their homes for they knew this was the most fertile soil even though much more labor was required to get it ready for cultivation.

The two principal churches were the Reformed and Lutheran, but the adherents of these churches did not begin to arrive in large numbers much before 1725. About four hundred of the Reformed denomination under the leadership of Rev. George Michael Weiss reached Pennsylvania in 1727 and located along the Skippack. The influx became more and more numerous until many had arrived. The Rev. Michael Schlatter in 1747 organized all the Reformed Germans in Pennsylvania as a part of the synod of Holland. In 1793 they became an independent American church.

The Lutherans began to arrive in Pennsylvania about the same time, but soon out-numbered the Reformed Germans. Their leader, Muhlenberg, had great executive ability and was a good organizer. When he arrived in 1742 he found the Lutherans breaking up into many sects, due to unscrupulous preachers who used fraudulent influence. He spent a great deal of his time in counteracting the bad influence of these men, many of whom were mere adventurers seeking to profit in a mercenary way. He is credited as being the most able and liberal minded German who came to this country in the early colonial days.

Most of the Germans were peace loving and, like the Quakers, abhorred war. Though many of them took part in the Revolutionary War most of them were averse to taking up arms and shooting at a fellow being. Many of them served as teamsters whose duties their conscience allowed them to perform. It has been handed down that my great grandfather, Christopher Slonaker, who was a teamster in the war, after having been ordered into the firing line, deserted, swam the Potomac River in the dead of winter and settled in the Shenandoah Valley about twenty miles west from Winchester, Virginia. Because of this aversion to fighting and killing their fellow man the greater number of the Germans were looked upon with suspicion by the English. Even Muhlenberg, though he had a son who became a famous general, was called by some a Hessian.

Most of the Germans desired to form a new Germany in this country. To accomplish this they adhered to their own language, literature and customs, and refrained from the use of the English language and customs. They kept to themselves devoting most of their time to work and little to education. This resulted in a degeneration of their language into a mixed dialect of South German and English, called Pennsylvania Dutch. Authorities state that at the present time in many towns and localities of Pennsylvania English is heard only occasionally. This naturally led to a retardation in development and advancement. The son was taught not to try to improve on the ways of his father. They had a rather strong prejudice against education. Historians state that most of the men could read and write and that the women could read but not write. In Rupp's list of emigrants and those who signed the oath of allegiance many men were unable to write and simply made their mark after the signature written by the clerk. The reason the Germans opposed education was due to the fact that in their past experience all persons with a good education were connected with the church or state which had so bitterly persecuted them. They claimed that schooling made a boy lazy and gave him a dislike for farming.

As a result of seclusion and isolation in masses, adherence to old customs, lack of education and free and frequent intermingling with other people the Germans have failed to make the progress others have made. Statistics show that in proportion to their number there are fewer noted and prominent Germans in America than any other class of people. This is not due to deficiency of the Germans themselves, but to a lack of intermingling with other classes and profiting by the advancement made by the population at large. Any class of people so segregated would show the same results. This is not true of the Germans who mingled freely with other people, dropped Germanism and adopted American ideas and customs. Among these we find many noted doctors, scientists, governors and literary men.

In regard to the number of Germans in Pennsylvania prior to the Revolution historians do not agree. Some say they constituted half the population. One gives the number in 1730 in Pennsylvania at thirty thousand. The total population for the same year is given as forty-nine thousand. It is now estimated that approximately one-third of the population of the state of Pennsylvania are either Germans or of German descent.

As the Germans were arriving in increasing numbers the English feared that the character of the colony might soon be completely changed. This fear, however, was ill grounded for there were no more loyal citizens than the Germans. The different Governors also were making ready sales of land which was paid for in cash. Nevertheless the great influx of Germans who almost immediately after arrival scattered throughout the Colony of Pennsylvania and were lost sight of caused considerable uneasiness among the authorities.

This feeling of unrest and the proposed remedy is illustrated by the following quotation from the Colonial Records of Pennsylvania, (1).

"At a Council at Philadelphia, ye 17th Septemr., A°. 1717."

"The Governour observ'd to the Board that great numbers of foreigners from Germany, strangers to our Language & Constitutions, having lately been imported into this Province daily dispersing themselves immediately after Landing, without producing any Certificates, from whence they came or what they were; & as they seemed to have first Landed in Britain, & afterwards to have left it Without any License from the Government, or so much as their knowledge, so in the same manner they behave here, without making the least application to himself or to any of the magistrates; That as this Practice might be of very dangerous Consequence, since by the same method any number of foreigners from any nation whatever, as well Enemys as friends, might throw themselves upon us; The Governour, therefore, thought it requisite that this matter should be Considered by the Board, & accordingly it was Considered, & 'tis Ordered thereupon, that all the masters of vessels who have lately imported any of these foreigners be summoned to appear at this Board, to Render an acct. of the number and Characters of their Passengers respectively from Britain; That all those who are already Landed be required by a Proclamation, to be issued for that purpose; to Repair within the space of one month to some Magistrate, particularly to the Recorder of this City, to take such Oaths appointed by Law as are necessary to give assurances of their being well affected to his Majesty and his Government; But because some of these foreigners are said to be Menonists, who cannot for Conscience sake take any Oaths, that those persons be admitted upon their giving any Equivalent assurances in their own way and manner, & that the Naval Officer of this Port be required not to admit any inward bound vessel to an Entry, until the master shall first give an exact List of all their passengers imported by them."

As a result of the above action all ship Captains, beginning with the year 1727, were required to furnish a complete list of their passengers, their occupation and where they came from. So far as we are able to ascertain the first oath of allegiance that was required to be signed is given in Colonial Records of Penna. (2). The full quotation follows:—

"At a Council held at the Courtho. of Philadia., Septemr. 21st, 1727.

"A Paper being drawn up to be signed by those Palatines, who should come into this Province with an Intention of settle therein, pursuant to the order of this Board, was this day presented, read & approved, & is in these words:

"We Subscribers, Natives and late Inhabitants of the Palatinate upon the Rhine & Places adjacent, having transported ourselves and Families into this province of Pensilvania, a Colony subject to the Crown of Great Britain, in hopes and Expectation of finding a Retreat & peaceable Settlement therein, Do Solemnly promise and Engage, that We will be faithful & bear true Allegiance to his present Magesty King George The Second, and his Successors Kings of Great Britain, and will be faithful to the Proprietor of this Province; and that we will demean ourselves peaceably to all His said Majesties Subjects, and strictly observe & conform to the Laws of England and of this Province, to the utmost of our Power and best of our understanding."

This was signed by 109 recent arrivals who with their families made a total of about 400. They had arrived on the ship William & Sarah. I think this was the first list of arrivals and those who took the oath of allegiance that we have any record of. All males over sixteen years of age were required to take the oath.

Later a more elaborate and far reaching oath of allegiance was required. Because of its historic value I give it herewith just as it is recorded in the Pennsylvania Archives. (3)

"I, A.B., do solemnly & sincerely promise & declare that I will be true & faithful to King George the Second and do solemnly, sincerely and truly Profess, Testify and Declare, that I do from my Heart abhor, detest and renounce as impious & heretical that wicked Doctrine & Position that Princes Excommunicated or deprived by the Pope or any authority of the See of Rome may be deposed or murthered by their subjects or any other whatlate, State, or Potentate hath or ought to have any power, soever. And I do declare that no foreign Prince, Person, Pre-Jurisdiction, Superiority, Pre-eminence, of Authority Ecclesiastical or Spiritual within the Realm of Great Britain of the Dominions thereunto belonging.

"I, A.B., do solemnly sincerely and truly acknowledge profess testify & declare that King George the Second is lawful & rightful King of the Realm of Great Britain & of all others his Dominions & Countries thereunto belonging, and I do solemnly & Sincerely declare that I do believe the person pretending to be Prince of Wales during the Life of the late King James, & since his Decease pretending to be taken upon himself the Stile and title of King of England hath not any right or title whatsoever to the Crown of the Realm of Great Britain, nor any other Dominions thereunto belonging. And I do renounce & refuse any Allegiance or obedience to him & do solemnly promise, that I will be true and faithful, & bear Allegiance to King George the Second & to him will be faithful against all traitorous Conspiracies & attempts whatsoever which shall be made against his Person, Crown & Dignity, & I will doe my best Endeavours to disclose & make Known to King George the Second & his Successors all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies which I shall know to be made against him or any of them. And I will be true and faithful to the succession of the Crown against the said James & all other Persons whatsoever as the same is & stands settled by An Act Entitled An Act declaring the Rights & Liberties of the Subject, & settling the Succession of the Crown to the late Queen Anne & the Heirs of her Body being Protestants and as the same by one other Act Entitled An Act for the further Limitation of the Crown & better securing the Rights & Liberties of the Subject is & stands Settled & Entailed after the Decease of the said late Queen, & for Default of Issue of the said late Queen to the late Princess Sophia Electoress & Duchess Dowager at Hanover the Heirs of Her Body being Protestants and all these things I do plainly & sincerely acknowledge promise & declare, according to these express words by me spoken, & according to the plain & common sense and understanding of the same Words, without any Equivocation, mental Evasion or Secret Reservation whatsoever. And I do make this Recognition, Acknowledgement, Renunciation & Promise heartily willingly and truly." (3)

The above oath of allegiance was required to be taken by all males over sixteen as soon after arrival as possible. They were usually marched to the Court House where it was administered. It is very doubtful if any of the Germans understood a word of what they were agreeing to, yet we find them extremely loyal in all ways.

A message from the Pennsylvania Assembly to the Governor, dated May 15, 1755, gives some idea of the character and physique of these early immigrants. Because of its historic interest this message will be quoted in full as it appeared in the Colonial Records of Pennsylvania. (4).

"The German Importations were at first and for a considerable

Time of such as were Families of Substance and industrious sober People, who constantly brought with them their Chests of Apparel and other Necessaries for so long a voyage. But these we apprehend have for some time past been shipped on board other Vessels in order to leave more Room for crowding their unhappy Passengers in great Numbers, and to secure the Freights of such as might perish during the Voyage, which experience has convinced Us must be the case of very many where such Numbers (as have been lately imported in each Vessel) are crowded together without Change of Raiment or any other Means of keeping themselves sweet and clean. But this Provision the Govenor has been pleased to throw out of our Bill; and yet we think it so essentially necessary that the Want of it must necessarily poison the Air those unhappy Passengers breathe on Shipboard, and spread it wherever they land to infect the Country which receives them, especially as the Governor has likewise altered the Provision We had made by the Advice of the Physicians for accommodating them with more Room and the Air upon their arrival here.

"We have reason to believe the importations of Germans have been for some Time composed of a great Mixture of the Refuse of their People, and that the very goals have contributed to the Supplies We are Burthened with. But as there are many of more Substance and better Character, We thought it reasonable to hinder the Importer from obliging such as had no connections with one another to become jointly bound for their respective Freights or Passage; but the Governor has thought fit to alter this also in such a manner as to elude the good Purpose intended by the Act, by which means those who are of more Substance are involved in the Contracts and Debts of Others, and the Merchants secured at the Expense of the Country where they are necessitated and do become very frequently common Beggars from Door to Door, to the great Injury of the Inhabitants and the Increase and Propogation of the Distempers they have brought amongst us. Many who have indented themselves for the Payment of their Passage have frequently been afflicted with such secret and loathsome Diseases at the Time as have rendered them altogether unfit for the Services they had contracted to perform, for which we had provided a Remedy by the Bill; But the Governor has thought fit to strike it out and leave Us exposed to this grevious Imposition without a Remedy."

If this bill had become a law it is very likely that the German immigration into this country would have ceased with its enactment. This would have been a sad fate for those desirable Germans wishing to make this country their future home. Even at the present day undesirable persons have a means of worming their way into honorable projects and the best classes of society. The historical records of the achievements of these early German immigrants and of their descendants during the past two centuries indicate that if there were any whose character or physique should have barred them from entering this country, their influence for bad was negligible. If there were any such they soon became honorable and industrious citizens.

To give a better idea of the sturdiness and perseverance of our early ancestry and to show how they were willing to endure the many hardships encountered in passage aboard ship from their native land to what promised a place of freedom and prosperity one needs but to stress the conditions imposed upon them during their pilgrimage on board ship. We have already mentioned the unsanitary conditions, due to overcrowding of passengers and the lack of conveniences on board ship. This is especially emphasized by Caspar Wistar (6) who wrote in 1732 as follows: "Last year a ship was 24 weeks at sea, and of the 150 passengers on board thereof more than 100 died of hunger and privation, and the survivors were imprisoned and compelled to pay the entire passage-money for themselves and the deceased. In this year ten ships arrived in Philadelphia with 5,000 passengers. One ship was seventeen weeks at sea and about sixty passengers thereof died."

This condition is further stressed by Christopher Saur (7) who "in 1758 estimated that 2,000 of the passengers on the fifteen ships that arrived in Philadelphia that year died during the voyage."

Knowing these hazards which they must risk and the possibility of never reaching the promised land, we cannot but admire the daring and tenacity of our ancestors. Neither are we surprised at the later success of those who survived the voyage. These qualities of perseverance and tenacity played an important part in the early development of Pennsylvania.

The reader is referred to a recent article on The Pennsylvania Germans by Elsie Singmaster (256) which gives many interesting facts concerning the early German immigation to this country.

RELIGIOUS SECTS AND DENOMINATIONS

Although religious persecution played only a minor part in the migration of the Germans from their native homes, it seems advisable to briefly trace the movements of the different religious sects and denominations on arrival in this country. A more extended account can be gotten from Isaac Sharpless' "Two Centuries of Pennsylvania History."

The immigration of the German religious denominations readily falls into three groups. This grouping is based on the time of arrival in this country. The first wave, beginning about 1688, may be called that of the Sects. The second wave, from approximately 1710 on, consisted of Reform Germans. The third and last wave of immigrants, from about 1720 on, was composed largely of German Lutherans. These movements will be briefly discussed in the order given and as nearly as possible in the order of arrival. The overlapping in time prevents a complete chronological arrangement.

THE PIETISTS

This sect tried to instill into a somewhat intellectualized Protestantism a more sincere and a more emotional religious feeling. They adopted largely Quaker customs. The founders of this group sailed from England on the ship Sarah Maria 1694 under the leadership of John Kelpius. They established a community called "The Society of the Women of the Wilderness," were very holy people who would not fight or swear, and lived at first in houses and caves along the shady banks of the Wissahickon near Germantown. Their leader, Kelpius, was a good scholar and devoted much of his time to writing. One of his followers introduced the Episcopal Church Government into Pennsylvania and another was pastor of the Swedish Lutheran Church at Wicaca in the southern part of Philadelphia.

THE MENNONITES

These were a small denomination of evangelical Protestant Christians. They derived the name from Menno Simons (1492-1559) of Freisland, Germany, who was one of their leaders. Their creed of enjoining the intermarriage only of members of the same faith, nonresistance of violence, forbidding the taking of oaths, and the nonacceptance of public office except those connected with the management of the schools and the churches, tended strongly to isolate them from other factions and groups of people. Due to this isolation and lack of intermingling with other people, their influence on the early development of Pennsylvania was not very great. This sect anticipated the Quakers about one hundred years in the belief in divine light and in war and oaths as being unchristian. Owing to their persecution in Germany, their contact with Penn on his visit to Europe, and the favorable reports of Pastorious almost the whole body came to Pennsylvania. In 1688 a new company landed in America under the leadership of William Rittinghuysen (Rittenhouse) who later built the first paper mill in Pennsylvania. In 1702 they purchased a new tract on the Skippack in Montgomery County, Pennsylvania where they settled. Later some moved over into Lancaster County, Pa. The Mennonites resembled the Quakers with whom they often worshiped, but did not discard baptism or the Lord's Supper and added foot-washing to their religious customs. (For an extensive historic account of the Mennonites in America the reader is referred to "The Mennonites Immigration to Pennsylvania" by C. Henry Smith, Ph. D. (412 pages) Published by The Norristown Press, 1929, Norristown, Pa.)

THE DUNKERS OR DUNKARDS

("Tunkers," "Dippers," "Brethren," or officially "German Baptist Brethren")

This denomination was founded by Alexander Mack in 1708 at Schwarzenau, in Wittgenstein, Germany. The tenets and practices are mainly those of the Baptists. In 1719 they began to come to Pennsylvania where they spread, mainly westward. Their belief regarded nonconformity to the world as an important principle, followed closely Scripture teaching, and observed the primitive simplicity of the church. On arrival in America they joined the Mennonites at Germantown. Their leaders were the Sowers (father and son). They opposed war and the taking of oaths. About 1728 a body of about three hundred of them, under the leadership of Conrad Beissel, established a monastery in Ephrata, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. This group considered Sabbath the seventh day of the week. They started a Sunday school in 1740 which was probably the first in the United States. Christopher Sower, leader of the Dunkers in Germantown, published a weekly newspaper and a yearly almanac. He also printed, in the German language, the first bible in this country in 1743. This was about forty years before the first English bible was printed. Sower made his own paper, ink and type.

THE SCHWENCKFELDIANS

This sect got its name from Kaspar Schwenckfeld (or Schwenkfeld, died 1561), a Silesian nobleman who, after the Reformation, advanced a mystical interpretation of Christianity. This group had been persecuted in Silesia for almost two centuries and came to Pennsylvania in 1734. Their religious beliefs were practically the same as those of the Quakers. They settled about Pennsville, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania on the Perkiomen where many of their descendants still live. These people were fairly well educated and, because their beliefs were so similar to those of the Quakers, they were specially welcomed to Pennsylvania.

THE MORAVIANS

(Unitas Fratrum, Unity of Brethren, or United Brethren)

This sect was an offshoot of the Hussites in Bohemia which formed a separate church in Bohemia and Moravia about the middle of the 15th century. At the time of Luther they numbered about 200,000, but were later almost extirpated by persecution. The society, under the name of "The Renewed Church of the United Brethren" was reestablished in 1722-35 on the estate of Count Zinzendorf in Saxony. This is also called Herrnhuter. A group of these people established a settlement in Georgia in 1735. Later many moved to Bethlehem, Pennsylvania where they formed a cultured and devoted society whose principle aim was the spread of Christianity. Like most of the German religious sects, they were opposed to war and the taking of oaths. Count Zinzendorf joined the group at Bethlehem about 1741 and tried to form a synod by uniting all the German bodies and beliefs into one. He succeeded in getting representatives of each sect to meet, but there was too much rivalry to form a union. The Bethlehem settlement prospered. The Church owned the land and carried on all the business. Later the land and property were divided among the members. They sent out missionaries, from New England to Georgia, and did a great deal of good to the communities. They also carried on missionary work among the Indians which resulted in the formation of a band of red men which had adopted Christian ideas and customs.

THE REFORM AND LUTHERAN DENOMINATIONS

During the time from 1710 to 1776 the great number of Germans who came to this country were church people and belonged largely to the Reform and German Lutheran churches. As previously stated they came largely from that region along the Rhine, called the Palatinate. The reasons which caused this migration of some 30,000 Germans in 1709 have already been given. Those of the Reform Church came first and the Lutherans followed later. Of these 30,000, who had made their way to London for transshipment to America, some were sent to Ireland, some to New York, and the Catholics were sent back to Germany. From this time on the immigration of Germans rapidly increased. Owing to unfavorable reports from those who had landed in New York, nearly all the later arrivals entered at the Port of Philadelphia. The ships had such poor accommodations and sanitary provisions, and were so overcrowded with passengers that many died before reaching port. On arrival many were forced to sell themselves as servants to pay for their passage. After arriving at Philadelphia and taking the oath of allegiance they settled west of the city beyond the Quaker limits. They were, in general, quite sympathetic with Quaker policies. Many of these early arrivals were illiterate and had to make their mark after their name had been written for them on the ship's list of passengers, or after taking the oath of allegiance. This illiteracy greatly retarded advancement.

The man who probably did most for the members of the German Reform Church was Michael Schlatter. He was born in Switzerland in 1716 and came to Pennsylvania about 1746. He had a good education, was full of energy and enthusiasm, and had marked executive ability. By his efforts churches were established in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia. He succeeded in getting a large sum of money from Germany and Holland for the support of the churches and the establishment of schools among all denominations. Due to the objections of many to this form of charity and to the attacks by Christopher Sower, Schlatter soon lost favor and influence in spite of his good work.

The outstanding leader of the early German Lutherans was the Rev. Melchior Muhlenberg (b. 1711). He was a well educated man and possessed marked energy, tact and enthusiasm. Arriving in this country in 1742 he became the magnetic spirit to kindle new life and organize the work. He thus gave organization and leadership to the Lutherans. By his efforts he brought the Swedes into his church and got back some whom Zinzendorf had led over to the Moravians.

The immigration of the Lutherans increased so rapidly that in 1749 some 12,000 are reported to have landed in Philadelphia. This denomination probably exceeded all others in numbers by Revolutionary times. It is this group of divine worshipers with which we find our first Slonaker ancestors in this country associated. Our early ancestors were also officers and members of the congregation of that Lutheran church which claims to be the first German Lutheran Church to be established in America. This church was formerly called Falckner Swamp, but is now known as The New Hanover Lutheran Church. A chapter on the history of this church is given elsewhere.

This brief review of the principle religious phases and activities of the early Germans in this country will give us a broader view point from which to follow the history of our family since Colonial days.

HISTORY OF THE LUTHERAN CHURCH AT NEW HANOVER

By Hiram Lyday Sloanaker

To have the immigrating members of the Schlonecker clan pillars of the first Lutheran church in the United States is a very precious heritage indeed, and due to this fact a short survey of the early history of the church at New Hanover deserves a place in this book.

How easy it is to see that these pious folk, far from their well-loved hills and valleys of historic Germany, should desire a place of worship in the wilderness. Births, weddings, deaths, sorrows and joys were to be many, and there are few men who do not desire a place of worship where these intimate moments may be consecrated; where men, tired and worn in their struggle with nature, may find a peace which only their God can grant them.

As with all beginnings in obscure communities, when even the pastors had to lend a hand in an effort to wring a living from the stubborn soil, records are few, and a study of the early church has to be carried on in conjunction with a study of the settlement of the surrounding land.

We owe a great debt to the Rev. J. J. Kline, who assembled most of the following material from the early church records and from collateral works describing that region in the early days. Rev. Kline preached at the New Hanover church, in addition to his church duties in Pottstown, starting in 1896. He arranged the voluminous church records for publication by the Pennsylvania German Society in 1909. This story is told in the 20th volume, Proceedings of the Pennsylvania German Society, from which this is a brief resume.

It is strange that so little is known of the early history and struggle of this congregation. It would be expected that, as this is one of the first three original Lutheran congregations, and the oldest of all, frequent reference would be made to this fact.

This seeming negligence is explained partly by the fact that New Hanover was not on the main road west from Philadelphia. Also by the fact that the early pastors, Muhlenberg, Bronnholtz and others, in their reports back to Halle, Germany (as our present missionaries report back to their boards and churches), sent for the most part but simple transcripts of their official journals.

The church at New Hanover was located on the land grant of the Frankfort Land Company. From 1694, when the "Frankfort Land Company sent its first load of immigrants to Germantown, to begin the development of that section, there has been a steady growth of population and developing of its resources," so ran one of the reports back to Germany.

To make the matter of this early immigration to America clearer, we can go back and recount the history of some of the early settlers. Pastorius conferred at Kriegsheim, Germany, with Peter Schumacher, Gerhard Hendricks and other leaders of the intending settlers, "descended the Rhine to Crefeld, where he conferred with others who followed him across the ocean six weeks later."

Pastorius, having become the agent of the Frankfort Land Company, and of the Kriegsheimers and Crefelders, sailed June 6, 1683, and reached Philadelphia on August 16. Some two months later, thirteen men with their families, who had sailed on the Concord, reached Philadelphia. Coming late in the year they suffered great privations. But they were soon nicely settled and the news of this brought others. In 1694 a band of 40 Pietists arrived, many of them being university men.

Thus it may be seen that from the very day that William Penn took possession of his province, a stream of German immigrants came to settle in Pennsylvania, a name that means "Penn's Woods." Many tarried in Philadephia, many moved on to Trappe, to New Hanover and further west. This accounts for the number of taxables, whose names show them to have been German, found in the New Hanover region at the very beginning of the 18th century, and a few even before that time.

These people were not heathens. It was natural that they should desire a church with its ministrations for their growing families. Where this first service was held, who conducted it, and when the first steps were taken to organize the congregation, or the date of the first church building, will probably never be exactly known.

The fullest and most satisfactory statements are those given in the reports of the three oldest pastors, the Revs. Muhlenberg, Bronnholtz and Handschuh. The reports were sent to Halle, Germany, at the request of the synod, July 9, 1754.

In these reports the pastors reviewed the church's history from the earliest times up to the moment that their own reports were submitted. They reported that shortly before the beginning of the 18th century a few Germans crossed the sea to settle in Pennsylvania. They designated 1688 to 1708 as the first period of immigration. The wife of one Henry Frey was then still living. She herself had come over as early as 1680.

The years 1708 to 1720, in which many separatists came over and settled among the Lutherans, they designated as the second immigration period.

The third period was 1720 to 1730, when the Lutherans brought their own ministers along. The fourth period was from 1730 to 1743. None of these reports mentioned the organization of the New Hanover congregation. However, in Vol. 1 of the Halle Reports, revised edition, mention is made that "this is the oldest German Lutheran congregation in America."

In a footnote to his book "The Old Trappe Church," Dr. Kretschman writes:

> "The first German Lutheran Church in the United States was built at New Hanover (The Swamp) prior to 1719. Another log church was built there in 1721. A third begun in 1741 was completed 1747, and was superseded in 1768 by the present fine stone church."

Dr. Sachse, writing on the "German Pietists," says:

> "The earliest direct evidence of this congregation is a Swedish account of a visit made to Manatawny by Pastor Sandel in company with Daniel Falckner in the autumn of 1704, wherein Sandel assisted Falckner at the church service on Sunday, October 15."

The most satisfactory statement on the subject comes from Dr. Theodore E. Schmauk, in his "History of the Lutheran Church in Pennsylvania." Summing up his arguments, it would be safely within the facts to say that there was some sort of a Lutheran congregation, and that services were held at New Hanover, prior to the year 1700.

Dr. Schmauk also points out that a considerable portion of the original Swedish colony of 1638 was in reality German. Their governor, Printz, was a German, and no less than 54 German families came with him.

The Halle reports, too, say that many Germans had settled here before 1700. In a recently discovered letter written by Pastorius he says that "The first German Lutheran services were held in June, 1694, by a band of forty immigrants, six of whom are said to have been Lutheran theological students."

It would seem, then, that there would be a clear warrant for the statement that services were held with some regularity from about 1694 to 1700, by which time a congregation had been gathered. That this group erected a small church which was completed by 1703, possibly earlier. This primitive church was used until 1721, when it was replaced by one more commodious. In 1747 a new building took its place which served till the present stone structure was begun in 1767.

The precise spots where these churches and attendant schools were built is not known, but the presumption is that they stood close to the present building.

When the present church was completed in 1768 the matter was considered important enough to have the synod meet in New Hanover and to take part in the dedication. From the letter of invitation to the synod we quote one paragraph:

> "The building of a new church, begun by the congregation at New Hanover, in the name and in reliance upon the assistance of Him who can do more than we ask and understand, has, through the strength of the Omnipotent, been accomplished with such desired progress that we will soon see its completion. Hallelujah. . . ."

Among the signers of this invitation dated Sept. 10, 1768, was Michael Schlanecker, Jr. whose wife was Anna Marie Heilig. This Michael was still Junior because his father, Michael Sr., did not pass away till December 13, 1769.

At ten o'clock on Nov. 6, 1768 a great crowd gathered to dedicate the church. Eleven ordained ministers attended. Rev. Muhlenberg opened the service with the 100th psalm. The choir sang "Komm heiliger Geist, Herre Gott." Children were baptized, a collection of nearly sixty pounds (now $300, but then much more) was taken.

A description of the building dedicated is of interest, together with later improvements made as time passed and the community became more prosperous. The permanent character of the building is shown by the fact that it has weathered more than 170 years, and could easily stand for several centuries more. It is a gray stone building, with brown stone trimmings, 67 by 46 feet. The walls are very heavy, being more than thirty inches in thickness. The stone was transported from Chester County, six or seven miles away.

One of the earlier buildings had a bell, but this new dedicated church did not have one at the time of this celebration. About this earlier bell Rev. Muhlenberg reported in 1751, that "In the year 1748 the following members of the church purchased a bell, and had the same placed on the church for the common use of the congregation in their services, with the special proviso that the bell is to be rung for them and their descendants on the day of their marriage and on the day of their death, if they die in the christian faith."

(Editors note. The money for the purchase of this bell was raised by private subscriptions. Ninety subscribers raised 29 pounds and 5 shillings. The list of subscribers shows that Michael Schlanecker gave 5 shillings.)

The new church built in 1767-8 did not have a bell for many years. The cornerstone was laid June 25, 1767, and the dedication by the assembled synod, before mentioned, occurred November 6, 1768.

The new church at first had few arrangements for the comfort of the worshippers except benches and pews. It had a brick floor but was without stoves. So it is not strange that Rev. Muhlenberg said in his diary that the cold was almost unendurable.

On March 9, 1811, at the annual congregational meeting, the deacons were instructed to make up two subscription lists and collect money for two stoves, doubtless wood-burners. These stoves remained in use until February 1858, when new stoves were purchased.

On April 22, 1826, at another congregational meeting, it was decided to improve the church structure and it was resolved: "That the brick floor be taken out and a board floor be laid; that the windows be changed; that the church be painted; new doors put in; and the church decorated."

In 1867, exactly 100 years after the erection of this church building, several thousand dollars were raised to completely remodel the interior. In 1885 the church was again repaired, the woodwork painted and the walls frescoed.

In 1904 it was again remodeled; a heating plant replaced the stoves, and stained glass windows were added, together with a new pulpit and furniture. A new organ was likewise introduced, so that the church appeared in a new garb.

There is little said in the church records about the organ. Here and there are notations as to how, and how not, it was to be used. One agreement dated June 28, 1800, was between the officers of the church and an organ builder, a contract for a new organ. It was to have ten stops and a foot pedal; to be built of the best material and to have a walnut case. The price was to be 230 pounds. This organ appears to have been used almost 100 years. In 1905 a larger and more modern instrument was substituted for it.

As hinted before, members of this early Schlonecker clan served many times as church officers. Among those records preserved are those instances where our ancestors were mentioned as having served, and the dates given.

In the year 1765, on May 29, a congregational meeting was held in the church at New Hanover, and a constitution was presented, accepted and subscribed to by the church members. Among those elected trustees was Michael Schlonecker (13). This was the first of the Michaels, who died four years later, whose first wife's name we do not know, but whose second wife was Eva Felicitas Wustin (Wistar).

On January 19, 1767, Michael Schlonecker, Jr., was elected a deacon (14).

On January 8, 1770, George Schlonecker was elected a deacon (14).

On January 6, 1778, Michael Schlonecker was elected an elder (28). This is the same Michael, Jr., elected deacon in 1767. His father, Michael, Sr., had meantime died in 1769.

On January 6, 1794, John Schlonecker was elected a deacon (75).

On April 2, 1797, the church council resolved to adopt by-laws. John Schlonecker was one of the three men appointed to draft them (77).

It is from the birth, baptismal, confirmation, wedding, and death records that we are able to reconstruct the first two generations of the Schlonecker family so accurately, and in Rev. J. J. Kline's history of the New Hanover church all the records which have been preserved are recorded.

It is touching indeed to read these church records of the early members of our family in this 20th volume, Proceedings of the Pennsylvania German Society. One can seem to see and feel the joys and tragedies that struck across this simple rural community. So many children passed on in their early childhood, an indication of lack of doctors and medical knowledge.

When my son and I visited the churchyard in 1935 we searched for Slonaker (Schlonecker) markers, and could find but one, a small stone bearing the name of Salome Schlonecker, (daughter of John), who died at the age of 18 soon after the turn of the 19th century. Many old markers in the church yard are not legible, in fact they have melted away as if made of something far softer than stone. Doubtless many of these are old Schlonecker stones, since many were probably buried in this graveyard.

The only other Schlonecker stone of colonial date which we found is in the graveyard at Pikeland church, a few miles from Phoenixville, Penna. This is the stone of Susannah Neiss Schlonecker, wife of the third Michael Schlonecker, who left the New Hanover district sometime around 1790. This Michael's name is spelled Slonaker. His children, buried around him, one of whom is my greatfather Jacob Sloanaker, spelled their name Sloanaker. So it was about this time that our ancestors were anglicizing their names, and different spellings came into vogue. Here were three different spellings side by side on the grave markers.

This Susannah Neiss, daughter of Zachrias Neiss, is one of the two or three Neiss sisters who married Schlonecker men and reared large families. The present Governor of Maryland is Gov. Nyce, but I do not know that he is of this particular family tree.

In the church records, too, the name of Ickes appears often, and these are the ancestors of the Harold Ickes, Secr. of the Interior in President Franklin Roosevelt's cabinet, I learned by writing to him in 1938.

Returning to the graveyard at New Hanover, I noticed there many family memorials, erected by family associations commemorating the progenitors of their family lines in this country. I could not help but feel that it would be a fine thing if the tens of thousands of Schlonecker descendants, no matter how we spell our names, could give small sums which, in the aggregate, would enable us to erect there a memorial in memory of the first generations of Schloneckers who braved a new world and even more bravely reared large families under such meagre circumstances.

I would be happy to post the first sum of money, and to act as trustee with Dr. J. R. Slonaker, of Palo Alto, California, or any other member of the clan, for the several hundred dollars which would be needed to make this memorial possible.

And let me here commend, too, for all of us, those vast efforts of Dr. Slonaker, of Stanford University, which have made possible this Schlonecker genealogy. This job, which he has spread over two decades, is one that costs family associations more than the cost of the family genealogy—thousands of dollars, time which he has given gladly, and at a great financial cost in time, postage and stationery, and most of all, untiring patience.

In concluding the history of the fine old church at New Hanover, let me urge all of the family who can to make a pilgrimage to this community. I can guarantee that after a visit to the church, a walk through the burial plot, and a thoughtful survey of the very hills which your ancestors observed so long ago, you will be spiritually refreshed, and go away a better citizen of the best of countries.

THE GERMAN INFLUENCE IN PENNSYLVANIA

This history would not be complete without a brief summary of the possible influence the German people may have had in the early making of the United States and especially Pennsylvania. They were present in Pennsylvania in sufficient numbers to have played no small part in shaping the colonial policies and practices of this province.

Rupp says there were 20,000 Germans in Pennsylvania before 1727, the year in which immigration became extensive. He further says that 1800 more were added up to 1742 and by the end of 1748, 6000 more had arrived. Between 1749 and 1754 nearly 32,000 arrived through the Port of Philadelphia and that nearly 10,000 more had arrived before the beginning of the Revolutionary War. This would make a total of approximately 70,000 which would constitute a considerable portion of the total population of the province. Isaac Sharpless in "Two Centuries of Pennsylvania History," pp. 186-194, estimates that at the time of the Revolution there were 300,000 people in Pennsylvania divided approximately one-third each of Quakers, Germans, and miscellaneous. This great number, however, did not exert much influence on the customs, habits, and policies of the colonial province. This was due to their great frugality and the lack of intermingling with the English speaking people.

The ancestors of these German immigrants had for a long period of time ranked as the foremost farmers of the world. It was to be expected, therefore, that when their descendants reached this country they would continue the vocation previously followed. Rupp says that Pastorius and the Frankfort Land Company secured for the Germans the choicest farming lands. Later, as the migrations pressed westward of Chester County into the state, they took up the rich meadow lands of Montgomery, Lancaster, York, Lebanon, Berks, Lehigh, and portions of Bucks counties, leaving the hillsides to other nationalities. They almost invariably selected that land which contained the heaviest timber, knowing that it would produce the largest crops, while many of the Scotch-Irish were no doubt intimidated by the herculean task of removing the heavy timber.

The frugality and perseverance of the German people is further emphasized by Fisher in "Making of Pennsylvania." On page 132 he says: "But to most of our Germans greatness still means to have a great farm. They cling to the land and to the country life more persistently than even the Scotch-Irish, and it has been said that fully eighty per cent of them are farmers. Scattered all through the State, and in the majority in many counties, they have stamped the country population, and, perhaps, the typical Pennsylvanian, if such a person is possible in so mixed a community, with many of their characteristics. Their heaviness, however, has its advantage. They are generally a most thrifty, conservative people, always husbanding their resources, qualities which, if the State ever becomes homogeneous and they are amalgamated with the rest of the people, may produce very great results. Their farms are often found to have descended from father to son for more than one hundred years, in many cases untouched by a mortgage, and they are among the most skilful and successful farmers in the world."

What was thought of the Germans and how they ranked in the minds of the English speaking people of the colony can best be given by quoting from the Pennsylvania Colonial Records, Vol. 3, p. 315. While addressing the Council in 1738 relative to restriction of immigration of the Germans, Lieut. Gov. George Thomas said: "This Province has been for some years the asylum of the distressed Protestant of the Palatinate and other parts of Germany, and I believe it may with truth be said, that the present flourishing condition of it is in a great measure owing to the industry of those people; and should any discouragement divert them from coming hither, it may well be apprehended that the value of your lands will fall, and your advance to wealth be much slower." This shows the high esteem in which the Germans were held.

The Germans were so occupied clearing their farms, raising and harvesting their crops, and building their homes that little attention was paid to education. All human energy was used in conquering the wilderness and providing the necessities of life for their families. This resulted in the second and especially the third generation in a great lack of education. There was an almost universal belief among the older Germans that education made their children lazy and destroyed their desire to farm. It, therefore, did not disturb their conscience to have their children spend their time working on the farm rather than in school.

However, ministers and teachers gradually changed conditions by establishing schools. Christopher Dock's school on the Skippack for the Mennonites was opened in 1718. Ludwick Hecker taught the Dunkards at Ephrata in 1739. Count Zinzendorf directed and taught the Moravians in 1743 at Muddy Creek, Lancaster, Oley, Mill Creek, Warwick, Heidelberg, Macungie and Germantown. In 1748 the Lutherans had schools in Philadelphia, Germantown, New Holland and Lancaster. Then in 1749 at least twelve schoolmasters arrived and began their duties of establishing and holding regular sessions. Michael Schlatter and Henry Melchoir Muhlenberg, the Reform and Lutheran church leaders, were strongly in favor of education and did much to advance it.

Through the influence of the schools, the schoolmasters, and the ministers this move toward illiteracy was averted and the need of a good education firmly established. From this time on education assumed an important place in German life.

The early Germans were hardy and robust. This may have been due to a large extent to the law of "The survival of the fittest". These people had but recently run the gauntlet of the passage from Europe to America. Owing to over crowding, and the unsanitary conditions and lack of accommodations on shipboard, many, if not most, of the infirm and weaklings died before reaching port. This left the most rugged to arrive and to become our forbears. Insofar as they intermarried with those of other origins the effect was for the betterment of the health and vigor of the offspring. This intermarriage, however, was not very common until several generations had passed.

During the early days of colonial times the sanitary conditions were far from good. Due to these unsanitary conditions and to the lack of doctors and medical care, the death rate sometimes reached an abnormally high per cent. During the year 1769 there were 340 children born. During this same period there were 211 burials, the majority being under one year of age. (Proc. Pa. Germ. Soc. Vol. 7, Pt. 2). This mortality of approximately 62 per cent of the number born, may have been due to some epidemic. I have records of several deaths in 1749 due to Asiatic Cholera, but nothing throwing any light on the year 1769. Many of the contagious diseases which the medical profession can now control, were, in those early days, considered as "children's diseases" which they had to have and the sooner they had them the better off they would be.

In order to make a comparison of the death rate for another period of time I have taken the records of the New Hanover Lutheran church and extracted from them the number of births and deaths respectively that occurred between the years 1740 and 1750. During this decade there were 296 births and a total of 76 burials, or an approximate mortality of 22 per cent as compared to births. This 22 per cent included all ages. In order to show at what age, or ages, the mortality was greatest, the deaths were grouped according to the age of the deceased. The following interesting results were obtained: From birth to 10 years of age, 21 died; 10 to 20 years, 2; 20 to 30, 3; 30 to 40, 4; 40 to 50, 2; 50 years and older, 13. Amongst the older people who passed on were recorded quite a number of 80 or more years, and one, a widow, (Anna Maria Geiger, nee Mais, widow of Jacob), reached the age of 90 years and 2 months. This was the oldest noted in these records. The cause for the high percent of mortality for the year 1769 still remains unexplained.

The following extract from the Pennsylvania Colonial Records, Vol. 3, page 392, is given to show that the Germans were not only law abiding and good citizens, but were also eager to become qualified citizens:

"January 9th, 1730-1.

"A petition of Several Germans praying to be naturalized having been presented to the governor, his Honr. after a proper Enquiry into their Characters, & by the Advice of some Gentlemen of his Council, sent the following Message in Writing to the House:

"Gentlemen:

"A petition having been presented to me in behalf of several Germans now inhabiting this Province, a list of whose Names is hereunto annexed, praying that they may enjoy the Rights & Privileges of English Subjects, I have made Enquiry into their Characters, & find they have behaved themselves so well during their Residence amongst us, that I have no Objection to their receiving this Mark of Favor from the Legislature of Pennsylvania. It likewise appears by proper Certificates produced to me, that they have taken & subscribed the Qualifications by Law directed, & therefore I hope your House will concur with me in passing a Bill for their Naturalization."

"P. Gordon."

The influence of the German immigration is also seen widely scattered over the United States in the names of towns and cities. A newspaper item recently stated that there are 82 towns named Hanover or Hannover; there are 66 places named Hamburg; 23 towns called Brunswick; 19 places named Brenner; and some 300 towns which have taken the names from certain areas in Germany. Besides these there are certain combinations of German names. The probability that these places were named by descendants of these hardy German pioneers, who resided in those localities shows how widely the possibility of German influence has spread. These descendants have brought to these widely separated localities their sturdiness of character and physique, their persevering and bull-dog tenacity to succeed, their humane and just treatment of their neighbors, and their strict adherence to right, law and order. These characters have had their influence in molding public opinion and action toward advancement in all phases of civilization. The intermingling and intermarriage with other people, now the custom of the descendants of the later generations, have brought about a suppression of the typical German element, but its influence is still working. Among these descendants we find leaders in all the walks of life, who stand head and shoulders above their fellow man. Leaders in education, industry, science, art, literature, government, etc., too numerous to mention. This influence of the German people for good has been exerted, is being exerted, and will continue to be exerted throughout all time to come.

GERMAN EMIGRATION FROM PENNSYLVANIA

Almost all the first German immigrants to this country either landed at the Port of Philadelphia, or later found their way to Pennsylvania and settled in a rather restricted area some 40 to 70 miles northwest of Philadelphia. Some landed in New York many of whom later moved to Pennsylvania. It was not many years later before they began moving out of this region.

Some went westward and located in Western Pennsylvania near Bedford, Connellsville, Mount Pleasant and Pittsburg where many of their descendants still live. As the country became more thickly settled and the value of the land increased many hardy pioneers moved farther westward into Ohio and other western states where we now find the descendants widely scattered. It is difficult to follow this westward movement. There was always a tendency to settle in groups which resulted in certain localities, at the present time, being composed largely of German descendants.

Another great movement was southward into Maryland and the Shenandoah Valley, a fertile region some 30 miles wide and 300 miles long, in what was then Virginia. It will be of historic interest to follow this southern movement in some detail.

J. W. Wayland (255), in discussing the German influence in the Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, says that in 1726 or 1727 the Germans crossed the Potomac at "Old Packhorse Ford" a few miles above what is now Harpers Ferry. They founded the village of New Mechlenburg which was incorporated in 1762 as Shepherdstown, after Thomas Shepherd who settled there in 1734. This town is now in Berkeley Co., W. Va., a few miles east of Martinsburg. The Germans secured their land grants after they came, some of these grants bear dates as early as 1729. At first these early immigrants were squatters, but very soon purchased their land from a Welshman, Richardap Morgan, who had previously obtained a grant of about 1730 acres.

The literacy of these early Germans in Virginia is shown by the following quotation:—"The Peaked Mountain Church records show that an agreement to build a union church by the Lutheran and Reform Congregations at McGaheysville, Rockingham Co., Va., in 1768 was signed by 48 men, of whom 44 wrote their names." (261).

In 1732 Yost Heit (Joist Hite) came from York Co., Pa., with his three sons-in-law, Jacob Chrisman, George Baumann (Bowman) and Paul Frohmann (Froman), and settled about five miles south of where Winchester now is. Jacob Chrisman settled about two miles farther south at the place still called Chrisman's Spring. George Bowman located still farther south on Clear Creek. Paul Froman settled also on Clear Creek several miles west of Bowman. Peter Stephans and several other Germans founded Stephansburg, now called Stephens City, in Frederick Co., Va.

Several years prior to the German influx to this region John Vaumeter, a Dutchman, seeing the great possibilities of this rich and then unoccupied valley, secured a grant for some 40,000 acres in the lower valley. This was latter purchased in 1732 by Joist Hite and resold in smaller tracts.

One of the early settlers was Jacob Stauffer (Stover?) who about 1730 secured a large grant of land located from the fork of the Shenandoah southward. This would now comprise portions of Page, Shenandoah, and Warren Counties in Virginia. It is said that in order to get this large grant he had to increase the number in his party. This he did by giving names to all his cattle, horses, pigs and other domestic animals.

In 1734 Robert Harper settled at the "Great Falls" and later established the ferry which still bears his name at Harpers Ferry, W. Va.

A fair idea may be gotten of the density of population in Virginia in 1776, including all nationalities, from a census made at that time of the number of men of military age. In Frederick County there were 1260 men; Hampshire County, 700; East Augusta County, 2000; and Cumberland County, 1000 men. (262) Since these numbers include only men of military age, both single and men with families, we have no way of determining the total number of inhabitants in these localities at that time. However, this does show that these localities were far from sparsely settled at the time of the Revolutionary War.

After the Revolution there was a great inflow of Germans who came largely from Pennsylvania and a few from Maryland. They seemed to be in good financial circumstances for they paid cash for their land. They occupied the region near Winchester, Va. The first two houses in Winchester were built about 1738. It was established as a town in 1752. The inhabitants of Winchester were composed largely of Germans and Irish with a few Scotch and English. The Germans and the Irish were always ready for a brawl. It is said that is was the custom of the Germans on St. Patrick's Day to exhibit the effigy of the Saint with a string of potatoes around his neck and his wife, Sheely, with her apron full of potatoes. The Irish always resented this indignity to their Saint and his holy spouse and a free for all fight followed. The Irish would retaliate on St. Michael's Day by presenting St. Michael with a rope of sauerkraut around his neck. This invariably caused another riot resulting in many blackened eyes, bloody noses and broken heads.

The reason for the migration of the Germans from Pennsylvania into Virginia was principally an economic one. In the counties of Lancaster, Lebanon, Berks and York, Pa., the value of land had so advanced that a great desire for cheaper land arose. The rumor that 100 acres in the rich Shenandoah Valley could be bought for a few pounds no doubt was a great incentive to the migration southward. It is reported that 5000 acres were bought for 400 pounds. This was only about $2.50 per acre. That the reason for the move was largely economic is also shown by a letter written April 30, 1732, by William Beverly to a friend in Williamsburg relative to land in the Shenandoah Valley. He said, "Ye northern men are fond of buying land there, because they can buy it for six or seven pounds pr. hundren acres, cheaper than they can take up land in pensilvania and they don't care to go as far as Winsburg."

These Germans who had migrated south, regardless of their religious beliefs, played an important part in the Revolution. Their attitude toward the war and Great Britain is shown by the resolutions which were adopted at a meeting held at Woodstock, Va., June 16, 1774. Some of these resolutions were as follows:—

"That we will pay due submission to such acts of government as his Majesty has a right by law to exercise over his subjects and to such only."

"That it it the inherent right of British subjects to be governed and taxed by representatives chosen by themselves only, and that every act of the British Parliment respecting the internal policy of America is a dangerous and unconstitutional invasion of our rights and privileges."

"That enforcing the execution of the said acts of Parliment by a military will have a necessary tendency to cause a civil war, thereby dissolving that union which has so long happily subsisted between the mother country and her colonies; and that we will most heartily and unanimously concur with our suffering brethern of Boston, and every other part of North America, who are the immediate victims of tyranny, in promoting all proper measures to avert such dreadful calamities, to procure redress of our grievances, and to secure our common liberties."

The resolutions closed by "pledging themselves to each other, and to our country" and that "we will inviolably adhere to the votes of this day."

Another manifestation of patriotism is given by the Rev. John Peter Gabriel Muhlenberg, born at Trappa, Pa., 1746, and a son of the Rev. Heinrich Melchoir Muhlenberg, the Lutheran patriarch. This son was a preacher in the lower valley and later a general in the Revolution. In his last sermon to his congregation in Woodstock, Va., Jan. 1776 before leaving for the war he said (in part):—

"Dear brethern and sisters: I feel truly grieved to announce that this is my farewell sermon, but if it is God's will I shall soon return to you. It is a sacred duty that calls me from you and I feel I must submit to it. The endangered fatherland to which we owe wealth and blood, needs our arms — it calls on its sons to drive off the oppressors. You know how much we have suffered for years — that all our petitions for help have been in vain — and that the King of England shut his ears to our complaints. The Holy Scripture says: There is a time for everything in this world; a time to talk, a time to be silent, a time to preach and to pray — but also a time to fight — and this time has come. Therefore, whoever loves freedom and his new fatherland, he may follow me."

Most of the Germans in the Shenandoah Valley did not believe in slavery. The farmers, with the assistance of their sons, cultivated their own lands, did their own harvesting of crops and were beholden to no one. In this respect they showed great independence. The rapid recovery of this valley from the devastation caused by the Civil War, as compared with other regions of the south, is attributable to the fact that these people had been accustomed to doing their own work. All they lost were their houses and barns. Being used to labor these were soon replaced. Other parts of the south lost not only their homes and buildings but also their slaves. Having depended on their slaves for so long and not being accustomed to hard labor themselves the process of reconstruction was extremely slow and often delayed for years.

It has been impossible to trace the genealogy of those who migrated southward because of lack of complete evidence. There is no doubt, if information were available, that all the German descendants now living in Virginia and West Virginia could trace their ancestry back to some German who settled in Pennsylvania early in 1700. This lack of genealogical data has resulted in isolated groups whose genealogy will have to be given separately. The following ancestors of these unconnected groups lived in Virginia and West Virginia and were the earliest known ancestor who migrated southward from Pennsylvania:—Christopher Slonaker (Group I-A), George Slonaker (Group I-B) and Burkhart Sloneker (Group I-C). The spelling of the last suggest he belongs to antecedants who spelled the name Slonecker. Christopher and George lived in the same general region near Winchester, Va., and Martinsburg, W. Va. Many descendants still live in this locality. Burkhart settled some 200 miles farther south. He later moved to Texas where many of his descendants now live. The genealogy of these groups will be given later.

There are now living in the Shenandoah Valley a large number of Slonaker descendants. Many reside in Frederick County. That their ancestors migrated from Pennsylvania to Virginia about Revolutionary War times, or later, is indicated by the absence of any Slonaker wills recorded in Frederick County prior to 1805. In this record of wills the earliest date noted was 1743 (236). It seems safe, therefore, to assume that the first Slonakers migrated to the Shenandoah Valley about 1800.

HISTORICAL GLEANINGS

In searching through the early historical records of the Germans in America I have run across many references to the Slonakers. Since the name is spelled in so many different ways I have included in the following lists of names found those names whose spelling is very similar to Schlonecker, the original spelling of our name. However, in my opinion some of these closely allied names refer to people who were not of our clan.

In each case we have used the spelling as found in the record and the reference where the name was found is given. These lists of names and the references to where they were found are given to enable persons interested to find starting points for further historical investigation they may wish to make and to give proofs of data presented in these pages.

We have grouped these findings under five headings: War Service; Taxes, assessments, etc.; Warrantees of Land; First U. S. Census (1790); and Church records. The names are roughly alphabetically arranged. At the close of each of these presentations the names are rearranged according to the places where they lived. From this it will be seen that often the surname of the same individual was found spelled in two or more different ways.

This grouping shows that up to and including Revolutionary times those who were unquestionably Slonakers were located principally in the counties of Cumberland, Montgomery, Philadelphia and York. It also shows that Philadelphia county, which was then a very large county, contained the largest number of our ancestry. Few had apparently migrated far from the original place of settlement.

THE FIRST U. S. CENSUS, 1790

The first U. S. Census listed Slonakers from only two of the states, Pennsylvania and Maryland. Since we know there were many Slonakers residing in these two localities whose names are not given in the census, we must conclude that this first census was far from complete. This census gave not only the name of the head of the family and where living, but also the number of each sex comprising the family. This number included the heads of families. The following names are given as spelled in the 1790 census:

Slonecker, Jno. Berks Co., Pa. 1 male over 16, 5 females.
Slonecker, Michael Sr. Berks Co., Pa. 2 males over 16, 1 female. (Probably wife.)
Slonecker, Michael Jr. Berks Co., Pa. 1 male over 16, 2 males under 16, 5 females.
Stonecher, Henry. Montgomery Co., Pa. 1 male over 16, 3 males under 16, 2 white females.
Stonecher, John. Montgomery Co., Pa. 1 male over 16, 1 male under 16, 2 white females, 1 other free person.
Stonaker, Catherine. Washington Co., Md. 2 white females, 2 white females under 16.
Slonacre, Christian. Frederick Co., Md. 1 white male, 6 females.

Schlicker, Christ'r. Montgomery Co., Pa. 2 males over 16, 1 male under 16, 1 female.
Schlicker, Henry. Montgomery Co., Pa. 2 males over 16, 2 males under 16, 5 females.
Schlicker, Yost. Montgomery Co., Pa. 1 male over 16, 1 male under 16, 2 females.
Schlichter, John. Montgomery Co., Pa. 3 males over 16, 1 male under 16, 2 females.

1850 CENSUS

It was reported to me that the 1850 census gave the names and ages of the heads of the family and the names and ages of their children. I find that the U. S. census for 1850 does not do this. The following names were given me by the reportee.

Slonecker, Adam. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. Age 82. (Born 1768?) Living with Jacob Slonecker who very likely was his son.
Slonecker, Jacob. Age 49. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1801, probable son of Adam.)
Slonecker, Magdalena. Age 51. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1799, probable wife of Jacob.)
Slonecker, Frederick. Age 19. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1831, probable son of Jacob.)
Slonecker, Lydia. Age 15. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1835, probable daughter of Jacob.)
Slonecker, Mary. Age 21. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1829, probable daughter of Jacob.)
Slonecker, William. Age 10. Milford Tp., Bucks Co., Pa. (Born 1840, probable son of Jacob.)

CHURCH RECORDS

Since religious persecution was one of the causes for the German migration to America we would naturally expect them soon after their arrival in this country to affiliate with the organized religious denomination in their vicinity. In order, therefore, to throw some further light on the distribution of the Slonakers during the early days in Pennsylvania, a careful search has been made through the available published records of the different churches and congregations. It would be presumed that the people residing in any given locality would affiliate with the nearest church. But such an assumption is unlikely for the early Germans were strongly inclined to adhere closely to their chosen faith and form of worship.

The following church records have been examined to determine if any Slonakers had been members of the congregation:

United Reform and Lutheran Church in Hopewell Township, York Co., Pa. Register 1767 to 1834. No Slonakers found. We do find some names quite similar. (253).

Births.

On Page 175, Schlenker, Anna Maria, b. Sept. 30, 1808, parents Christian and Margaret.

Page 177, Schlenker, Magdalen, b. May 26, 1812, parents Andrew and wife.

Page 178, Schlenker, Sybilla, b. July 9, 1814, parents not given.

Page 181, Schlenkler, Benigna, b. August 16, 1825, parents not given.

Communicants.

Schlenker, Sybilla, Oct. 30, 1814, page 185.

Schlenker, Margaret, May 12, 1816, page 185.

In the writer's opinion none of these persons were Slonakers.

First Reform Church, Lancaster, Pa., 1736 to 1800. Birth and Baptism records. (254). No Slonakers found.

Trinity Lutheran Church, Lancaster, Pa. Birth and Baptismal Records 1774 to 1800. (254). No Slonakers found.

Old Moravian Cemetery of Bethlehem. (251). No Slonakers.

Williams Township Congregation, 1733-1831. Births, Marriages, Deaths, Communicants. (250). No Slonakers.

Germans in Settlement of Maryland. (249). No Slonakers found.

Great Swamp Reform Congregation, Lower Milford Township, Lehigh County, Pa., 1736-1833. (248). No Slonakers found.

German Reform Church, Philadelphia, 1748-1802. Marriages. (247). No Slonakers found.

St. Michaelis and Zion Congregation, Philadelphia, 1745-1759. Births. (246). No Slonakers found.

Goshenhoppen Reform Charge, 1731-1833. (244). No Slonakers found.

Tohickon Reformed Congregation, Bedminster Township, Bucks County, Pa., 1745-1869. (256). No Slonakers found.

Tohickon Lutheran Congregation, Bedminster Township, Bucks County, Pa., 1749-1840. (257). Henry Schlucker was sponsor at the baptism of John Frederick Fuchs, baptized Jan. 6, 1763. Since the baptism of other Fuchs had been sponsored by Slonakers in the New Hanover Lutheran Church it is quite likely that this Henry Schlucker may have been a Slonaker and the name incorrectly spelled. If so we are unable to place him. The first Henry in our record was born in 1761. This might support the four brother legend.

Augustus Evangelical Lutheran Church, Trappe, Pa. Marriages, we find Michael Schlanecker (Widower) was married Jan. 19, 1752 tto Eva Filicitas Wustin (Widow Casper). And on March 20, 1760 George Schlenecker (S. of Michael) was married to Ann Catharine Elizabeth Burchard. Note spelling of surnames. (255).

Evangelical Lutheran Congregation in Philadelphia, 1745-1764. Record of Marriages. (245). We find Johannes Heinrich Bauer was married March 5, 1761 to Anna Barbara Schoeneker. She may have been a Slonaker. No other possible Slonakers found.

New Hanover German Lutheran Church. (19). The records of the New Hanover Lutheran Church in New Hanover (Falkner Swamp), Montgomery County, Pennsylvania, have been of inestimable value in giving information concerning the early history of the Slonaker Family. The records of church officers, of births, baptisms, communicants, marriages, and deaths have been carefully recorded and preserved. These records have been published by the Rev. J. J. Kline and are to be found in Volume 20 of the Pennsylvania German Society, Proceedings. We owe much to Mr. Kline for putting these records in such a convenient form which enables us to give authenticity to the early history of our ancestors. Without this great help it would have been impossible to give a clear and correct history of the early ancestors.

The page number after the following names refer to Mr. Kline's published work. A few names were found in other sources in which case the complete reference will be given where they were found. In all cases we have spelled the names as found in the records.

SLONAKER IMMIGRATIONS

Our investigation shows that there have been at least five separate immigrations of Slonakers into this country. These occurred at approximately the following dates and from the regions indicated.

1. The first arrivals came most likely from the Palatinate, possibly from near Switzerland, and arrived late in 1600 or early in 1700. The early ancestors in this group were Adam and Michael Schlonecker who settled in Chester and Montgomery counties, then known as Philadelphia County.

2. The passport for the Widow Schlunegger and her seven children was dated March 24, 1824. She was the widow of Rev. John Schlunegger, (born 1777, died 1814 in Switzerland) and came from Arna, Switzerland. She and her children settled in Butler County, Ohio, in 1825.

3. Passport dated 1834 for Rev. Michael Schlunegger, b. 1811 at La Chaux de Fonds, Switzerland; d. 1879 at Louisville, Ohio.

4. Ancestor Christian Schlunegger, born 1811 at La Chaux de Fonds, Canton Neuchatel, Switzerland; died 1897 at Pulaski, Iowa. Came to this country in 1873 and settled at Pulaski, Iowa.

5. Ancestor Christian Schlunegger, born 1846 at Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland, died at Petaluma, California, 1922. Date of entry not given.

If there have been other immigrations I have failed to come in contact with them. Regardless of the difference in the original spelling of the surname, I feel sure that all these groups could be traced back to a common ancestry. The first immigration doubtless came from the Palatinate since most of the Germans at that time were coming from that region. The conditions which caused the exodus to America may also have caused a migration into Switzerland. If so this may have been sufficient to bring about the difference in the spelling of the name. German critics whom I have consulted think these two spellings might easily be traced back to a common ancestor. This I will leave to some younger enthusiast who may wish to delve into foreign genealogy.

It will be noted that the last four groups of immigrants all came from Switzerland. This strongly suggests that the first Slonaker immigrants may also have come from Switzerland or from the Palatinate very close to Switzerland. The truth of the matter can only be determined by a considerable amount of genealogical research in Germany and Switzerland.

Besides these five groups of ancestors that reached this country at different dates and whose genealogical records will have to be treated individually, we have also a number of groups of descendants whose early ancestry has not been determined due to lack of information. These we will group under a sixth heading and designate it "Groups of Undetermined Ancestry." By presenting the genealogical history in this manner it is hoped that some of the descendants in these undetermined groups may be able to further trace their earlier ancestors and thus make the connection onto the family tree. Whenever possible suggestions will be given as to possible connections and ancestry.

We will now discuss in more detail what we have learned concerning each of these five immigration groups and follow in each case with the genealogical record of the descendants that now comprise each group.

It will be noticed in following the genealogical records or by consulting the index that the original spellings of the surname (Schlonecker and Schlunegger) have been simplified by different lines of descent so that now we have as many as fifteen different spellings. The following are spellings of the surname found in the index and the number of persons who used each. These numbers do not include the daughters who married and thus changed the name.

Schlonaker, 17; Schlonecker, 37; Schloneger, 34; Schluneger, 26; Schlunegger, 20; Sloanaker, 40; Slonaker, 1133; Slonacker, 4; Slonecker, 207; Sloneger, 1; Sloneker, 109; Slonicker, 6; Sloniger, 28; Sloniker, 200; and Slonneger, 19.

It will be seen that Slonaker has been used by more people than all the other groups combined. This spelling, therefore, has been used throughout the general discussion and treatment of the history and the other spellings in the genealogical presentation where they have appeared.

1. THE FIRST SLONAKER IMMIGRATION

It is not known just when the first of these Slonaker ancestors came to this country. They were, however, well established in Chester and Montgomery Counties early in 1700. Since from 1683 to 1709 only two or three thousands of German immigrants had arrived and that the great movement began in the spring of 1709, it is more likely that they did not arrive prior to 1709. Beginning in 1727 all ships entering the Port of Philadelphia were required to furnish a list of their passengers, their occupation, and where they came from. Since we do not find the names of Adam or Michael Schlonecker in any of the passenger lists of ships arriving after 1727 they must have arrived prior to this date. We do find one name, Stifan Lunneker, spelled also Luneger, that might have been a Slonaker. He arrived on the Ship Hope, August 28, 1733. He was unable to write his name and made his mark when his name had been written for him. The scribe no doubt spelled the name phonetically. It was a common custom in those days to perpetuate the given names by passing them on to later descendants. We do not find the name Stephen in any of the many lines of Slonaker descent I have investigated. Arriving on the same ship were also Ulrich Loninacre, Ulrich Loninacre, Jr. and Jacob Loninacre. Their marks by their names indicate their inability to write. The very close similarity of the phonetic spelling of these names indicates they belong to the same family. Also the given names, with the exception of Jacob, are quite foreign to those found in the Slonaker lineage. I am therefore of the opinion that this man was not of our clan.

As already indicated these first ancestors spelled the name Schlonecker. This spelling has been gradually simplified by different lines of descent so that now we have a large variety of spellings, each of which can be traced back to the original spelling. In my research through the early history of Pennsylvania for documentary evidence of this group I have found twenty-one different spellings of this surname as follows: Schlenecker, Schleneckert, Schlenker, Schlonecker, Shonacre, Showecker, Showecker, Slamaker, Slenacre, Slenecker, Sloanaker, Sloenecker, Slohnecker, Slonacre, Slonaker, Slonecker, Slonicher, Slunecker, Stenecker, Stolnaker and Stonecker. These different spellings were no doubt due to the officials who wrote the name and spelled it phonetically. These early spellings have been simplified by later generations so that we now have a large number of spellings all of which can be traced back to a common ancestry.

There is a legend which has passed down through succeeding generations in my family, and I have heard the same from widely different sources in other lines of descent, that there were four brothers who came to this country late in 1600 or early in 1700.

Dr. Edgar Munson Slonaker (b. 1870, d. 1934) of Williamsport, Pa. wrote me January 8, 1921 as follows: "I wish to say that I have always understood, but I cannot tell you my authority, however, it was told to me, that many years ago, the Slonakers were related to the Queen of Holland and that Bavaria was the place from which the four brothers left when they came to this country.

"They landed at New York and settled on the spot where old Trinity Church now stands, at Broadway and Wall Street. They had some trouble and separated there, one coming to Jersey Shore, Pa., and I think the photo I will send you is he. A second went West and a third to some place around Reading, Pa. I have heard where the other went but have forgotten. They were not very affectionate or congenial, which seems to be a trait. They never saw each other after the separation at New York. I do not give this as authentic but have understood this ever since I can remember hearing the relatives talk about our ancestors."

In an earlier letter dated May 13, 1904 this same party says: "There is a Miss Bastress . . . who has a record of the old stock of Schloneckers showing that we are descendants from the Queen of Holland. Many years ago four Schlonecker brothers came to this country from Bavaria, Germany. Shortly after they arrived here they had a quarrel which resulted in their separation and not being a very affectionate class of people, they were ever after bad friends. As near as I can trace them one settled in Jersey Shore, Pa., one in Lancaster County, Pa., one in Berks County, Pa., and one went West some place I never could find out where. I am a great, great, grandson of the John Schlonecker who was born in Bavaria, Germany in July 18, 1763; was married to Margaret Nice of Nicetown, Montgomery County, Pa."

The New Hanover church records show that this John Schlonecker was born in this country and was the son of Michael (confirmed John Michael) and Anna Maria (Heilig) Schlonecker who were married in this country. This Michael Jr. was also probably born in this country and his father, Michael Sr., without any doubt was one of the Slonakers who immigrated to America. If authentic records prove part of a rumor false it makes the remainder of the rumor more doubtful.

An excerpt from a letter written in 1904 by Dr. Alter L. Slonaker (1862-1909), Pittsburgh, Pa. says: "I understand that there were four Slonakers who came to this country many years ago. They parted in the eastern part of this state and I have no record of where they went."

This four brother legend has also been reported by Robert M. Slonaker (1838-1921) in a memorandum written 1876 probably from information given him by his father, Jared Nyce Slonaker (1800-1879). He said that the four brothers came to this country about 1734, that their names were Michael, John, Jacob and Henry, and that they settled in Montgomery County, Pa. Later Michael and Jacob moved to Chester County, Pa., Henry moved to Northumberland County, Pa., and John moved to Reading, Berks County, Pa. He further says that John had five girls and one son, John Jr. John Sr. died about 1812. John Jr. served in the Revolutionary War and was discharged in 1776 with honors. He moved to Jersey Shore in 1816 where he lived till his death in 1846. Now this John Sr. is the same John, as given above, who was the son of John Michael and Anna Maria (Heilig) Schlonecker. So again we have authentic evidence to disprove at least a part of this man's statement relative to the four brothers.

In spite of evidence to the contrary, the persistence of this legend, coming down to the present through widely different channels, strongly suggests that the four brother legend may be more than a myth. There must have been some ground for its origin. However, the truth of the matter will probably never be known.

If there were four brothers then the Adam Schlonecker who signed the petition to Gov. Gordon in 1729 could well have been their father. If this were true the first census in 1790 should have given some of their descendants, but it failed to do so. Also tax records, land transfers, etc., should bring to light some of the descendants of the four brothers. But nearly all the Slonakers we do find in these historical documents can easily be traced back to the first Michael, known as Michael Sr. However, I have found several Slonakers mentioned in the documentary history whose names do not fit into the descendants of Michael Sr. This has been the only corroborative evidence I have of the four brother legend and this might easily be explained by a failure to get a complete record of all the descendants of Michael Sr.

Since genealogists in other families have encountered similar mythical four brother legends and Royal connections, and since we have been unable to find any authentic evidence in the records of the past to support the four brother ancestry and the Royal connections, we are strongly inclined to give little credence to this legend.

The early history, with the exception of the records of the First German Lutheran Church at New Hanover, Penna, formerly known as Swamp Church, The Swamp, or Falckner Swamp, is very meagre. After a careful study of the available records I am able to give two possible explanations to account for this persistent rumor of four brothers.

There is authentic mention of Adam Schlonecker and also a fairly complete record of Michael Schlonecker and his family. This Adam could have been a brother. If so and the legend of the four brothers is true we would still have two brothers to account for. All the historical literature and genealogical history, which has been examined, have utterly failed to give a clue to any other brothers. It looks, therefore, as though Adam might have been the father of this Michael, and that the first four sons of Michael, were the four brothers of the legend. Most, or all of them, however, were born in this country. I have found no authentic record to verify this assumption.

The only record we have found of this Adam is that he was one of seventy-four signers of a petition to Governor Gordon of Pennsylvania for protection from the Indians. This petition was dated April 29, 1728. He must have been at that time a man of some importance and influence in his community to have been one of the signers. It is only reasonable to assume that the signers of this petition were heads of families, with wives and children dependent on them, and owners of land in the community. This indicates they were permanently established. The names of many of the signers are found in the New Hanover Church Records.

All legends and rumors, however, must have had some basic facts on which they were founded. They are not usually developed by the imagination. It seems wise, therefore, in dealing with this early history to assume the four brother rumor as a start of the genealogy of this group of Slonakers, and that their given names were John, Jacob, Henry and Michael.

Two petitions were sent to the Governor asking protection from the Indians. Since they are of great historic value both of them will be given as they appear in the literature. Michael Schlonecker was not a signer of either of these petitions. The lack of punctuation and improper spelling and capitalization will be readily noticed. They are as follows:—

"To his Excellency Patrick Gordon Esqr Governor Generall In chie (f) Over the Province of pensilvania And the Territoris Belonging Benbrenors township and the Adjacences Belonging May ye 10th 1720

"We think It fit to Address your Excellency for Relief for your Excellency must know That we have Sufered and Is Like to Sufer by the Ingians they have fell upon ye Back Inhabitors about falkners Swamp & New Coshahopin Therefore We the humble Petitioners With our poor Wives And Children Do humbly Beg of your Excellency To Take it into Consideration And Relieve us the Petitioners hereof Who Lives Lie at Stake With us and our poor Wives & Children that Is more to us than Life Therefore We the humble Petitioners hereof Do Desire An Answer from your Excellency By ye Bearor With Speed So no More at present from your poor Afflicted People Whose names are here Subscribed" Then follows the signatures of the 77 signers.

This petition, signed by seventy-seven men of influence and standing in the community, was evidently not acted on by the governor for a second petition, written almost eight years later and signed by seventy-four persons, was again submitted to the Governor. It reads as follows:

"To the Honorable Patrik Gordon Esqr. Governor of the Province of Pensilvania &c:

"This Petition of the Frontier Inhabitants of ye County of Philadelphia humbly Sheweth

"Whereas Your Petitioners are at Present so Alarmed by a Nois of ye Indian That Several Families have lost their Plantations with what Effects they Could Possibly Carry away Women In Child bed being forced to Expose themselves To Coldness of ye Air and hereby Their Lives are In Danger

"We Your Petitioners therefore humbly Pray That Your Hon. would Be Pleased To Take or Use Such Measures with ye Indians That Your Petitioners may be Freed From These Alarms. for Yet we are Informed That The Indians are Consulting Measures Against us. We hope Your Hon. will Comply With our Humble Request to prevent as well our Fears as Danger. And Your Petitioners as in Duty Bound Shall ever pray &ca. Ap. ye 29—1728."

Among the signers of this last petition we find the name of Adam Schlonecker written in a fairly legible hand. I have found no further reference to him in any of the literature so am unable to state what part he played in the early ancestry of our family in this country.

It would seem that these two petitions came from approximately the same locality for four people had signed each of the petitions. There were also four others, apparently two sets of brothers, for the surnames Fry and Reichardt were on each of the petitions, but with different given names. I am unable to give the location of the Benbrenors township from which the first petition came, in its relation to that of New Hanover.

The records of the New Hanover German Lutheran Church, taxes and assessments, warrantees of land, war service, and other items of interest found in the early history of Pennsylvania all prove almost conclusively that Michael Schlonecker, mentioned above, was the progenitor of most if not all the Slonakers who have lived in Pennsylvania up to the present and of those descendants who have migrated from Pennsylvania to other parts of the United States. Our investigations further show that none of the latter Slonaker immigrants settled in Pennsylvania.

Though we are fairly sure that the Slonakers belonging to the first immigration group all arrived before 1727, we find some names which phonetically so closely resemble our name that we have thought it wise to give them and let the reader be the judge of any possible kinship.

In volume I of "Pennsylvania German Pioneers" by Ralph Beaver Strassburger we find the following names of persons immigrating into this country some of whom might possibly have been Slonakers:—

Schlenckher, Andreas, (p. 475), arrived on ship Duke of Wirtenberg, Capt. Montpelier, Com. from Rotterdam and Cowles, Eng. List 169, 16th 8ber, 1751.

Schlencker, Christoffel, (pp. 536-7-8).

( )cker, Frederich Wilhelm, (pp. 536-7-8), part of name gone.

Schlencker, Frantz Henry, (pp. 536-538) (Could not write — made his mark).

Slinke, Hendrick, (p. 537) (Could not write — made his mark).
Slinker, John Wm., (p. 536).
Slinker, Frantz Henry, (pp. 536-38) (Could not write — made his mark).
Slinker, Fred Wilhelm, (pp. 536-7-8).
Slinker, Christr. (pp. 536-7-8).

The above names apparently represent both the ship's list of passengers and the list of those who qualified at the Court House. These are in List Number 202 B. "Foreigners imported from Hamburgh in the ship Leathley, Capt. John Lickley, were qualified at the Court House, Wednesday, 19th Sept. 1753".

Schlencker, Hans, (p. 410) arrived Mon. Sept. 25, 1749, in Ship Speedwell, Capt. James Creagh, from Rotterdam, but last from Cowles, Eng. 240 souls from Wirtenbergh, Alsace and Hanau.
Lunneker, Stifan, (pp. 117, 120, 121).
Loninacre, Ulrich.
Loninacre, Ulrich, Jr.
Loninacre, Jacob. The last four above arrived Aug. 28, 1733, in Ship Hope, Daniel Reid, Master from Rotterdam. Took and subscribed to Oaths of the Government. I think these last four were of the same family and were likely brothers excepting Ulrich, Jr.

None of these names are found in the records of the New Hanover church. We do find, however, that some of these people paid taxes and resided in other parts of the colony (see tax list).

Due to the region where they first settled becoming somewhat congested and to cheaper land elsewhere, it was not many years before this group of Slonakers began spreading over wider areas. We now find descendants in every state of the Union and many in foreign countries. We have found none in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island and South Carolina. They migrated principally southward into Maryland, Virginia, and West Virginia, and westward into first Ohio, then on into the Mississippi Valley, the Prairie states and finally to the Pacific Coast. Few of these descendants are found south of Virginia. Owing to the much earlier settlement in this country the descendants in this group are much more widely distributed and more numerous than any of the later immigration groups.

The genealogical record of the ancestors and descendants of this first immigration group will now be given:

GENEALOGY OF GROUP I.

I 1. Adam Schlonecker. Date of birth, death, marriage, etc., unknown. This man came to this country late in 1600 or early 1700. Where he was born and died is not known. He must have been a person of considerable importance in his community to have been one of the signers of the previously mentioned petition dated April 29, 1728, to Governor Gordon of Pennsylvania for protection from the Indians. Since he was not one of the signers of a similar petition eight years previous to this one suggests that he arrived in this country after 1720, or at least had not become a well established citizen. We have failed to find any authentic record as to whether he was married and had a family, but if there is any credence to be placed in the "four brother legend" he most likely was their father. We have concluded to accept this hypothesis and, therefore, consider him as representing the first generation (I) and the four legendary brothers, John, Jacob, Henry and Michael, the second generation (II) in this country. We have found no mention of any sisters of these four brothers.

II 1. John Schlonecker, one of the assumed four brothers. Dates of birth, death, marriage, etc., unknown. We have no authentic record of him or his descendants if he had any. We have no record of any descendants who can with certainty trace back to him. We do have one group of descendants whose ancestry we have been unable to determine which might possibly trace back to this John. But due to the lack of proof we have presented their record under the heading of "Undetermined Ancestry." The prevailing custom of perpetuating the name of the father, or of brothers and sisters in later generations strongly suggests the authenticity of this John for it is one of the most common names found. He was evidently born abroad and come to this country early in 1700.

II 2. Jacob Schlonecker. We have no authentic dates of birth, death or marriage. Assumed to be one of the four legendary brothers. He must have been born abroad and came to this country early in 1700. Jacob is a very common name found in later generations which suggests the existence of this Jacob.

II 3. Henry Schlonecker. No authentic record has been found for the dates of birth, death, or marriage. We have assumed that he was one of the four brothers who must have been born abroad and immigrated to this country early in 1700. There is a record of Henry Stenecker (single freeman) who paid 10 shillings taxes in 1786 in Heidleberg Township, Northampton Co., Pa. (8). Also in the records of the Tohicon Reform and Lutheran churches, Bedminster Township, Bucks Co., Pa., we find that Henry Schlucker was a sponsor at the baptism of John Frederick Fuchs, Jan. 6 1763 (9). Since the spelling of surnames has been found to be frequently incorrect, these references may possibly refer to the same individual and to this legendary brother. Nothing further that could possibly apply has been found in our search of the early history. However, we find the name Henry given to many individuals in later generations which again strongly suggests the credibility of the four brother rumor. We have been unable to trace any of the later generations back to this Henry.

II 4. Michael Schlonecker. He was doubtless born in Germany, but the date and place are unknown. He died near New Hanover, Pa., Dec. 13, 1769 (10). He was married twice, but the date of his first marriage and the name of his first wife are unknown. She died near New Hanover, Pa., Nov. 20, 1751 (11). In the marriage records of the Augustus Evangelic Lutheran Church at Trappe, Pa., we find the record of his second marriage as follows:—"Schlanecker, Michael (widower) Married Jan. 19, 1752, to Eva Filicitas Wustin (Widow Caspar)" (134). (Note wrong spelling of both surnames in the church record). She was the widow of Casper Wister who is reported to have been born at Hidspach, Germany, Feb. 3, 1696, came to this country Sept. 16, 1717, and to have made the first glass in America (40).

There were seven children by the first marriage and six by the second (Generation III). Michael and family were members of the New Hanover Lutheran Church (called also Falckner and The Swamp). The records of this church have been well preserved and published (19). The dates of birth, death, marriage, etc., are authentic. He was elected one of the trustees May 29, 1765 (13), and a deacon Jan. 19, 1767 (14). Michael Schlunecker (note spelling) and wife were sponsors at the baptism of Joh. Adam Mercels April 16, 1758 (16) and Anna Maria Durr March 17, 1751 (15). In 1780 the Widow Slonecker (note spelling) was assessed for a value of 1800 pounds (17) and paid taxes of 40 pounds and 10 shillings in New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa. (18). Apparently the estate was divided at this time for the records of taxes were changed to "Michael Slonecker, Est." value 15 tax 6 shillings and an effective supply tax on a value of 100 pounds for 2 pounds. This was in Upper New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa., in 1781 (20). In 1782 we find an Effective Supply Tax of 3-6-0 against a valuation of 20 pounds for Michael Slonecker Est., Upper New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa., (21), and in 1783 a Federal tax assessment against the estate of 20 acres (22). These references indicate a simplification of the spelling of the surname. However the spelling in the church records still used the original spelling. Michael Schlonecker was naturalized at the Superior Court of Philadelphia, April 10, 1760 (23).

Michael Sr. (so designated to distinguish him from his first son Michael Jr.) was the father of 13 children. By his first wife (name unknown) there were:- III 1, John Michael Jr., III 2, John Jurg (George); III 3, Anna Maria; III 4 Anna Catharine; III 5, George Adam; III 6, Barbara; and III 7, Daughter, name unknown, died young. By his second wife (nee Eva Filicitas Wister) III 8, John; III 9, Susanna; III 10, John Jacob; III 11, Christian; III 12, Michael; and III 13, Barbara. It will be noticed that there are two Michaels and two Barbaras, but their dates of births were widely separated. The records of the daughters are very incomplete and certain assumptions have been made. The records of each of their children and their descendants will now follow:

III 1. John Michael Schlonecker, Jr., first child of Michael Sr. and first wife. Born in Pa. July 29, 1727, and died July 7, 1812, age 84 years, 11 months and 18 days. Married March 26, 1749 (25) to Anna Maria Heilig, born March 30, 1730, died Jan. 30, 1808, age 77 years, 1 month, 10 days. After the death of his father in 1769 he was called Michael Sr. to distinguish him from his own son, Michael Jr. He was naturalized at the Superior Court of Philadelphia April 10, 1760 (23). His Will is recorded in Book D, page 56, Court House, Reading, Pa. He was confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran church, 1743 (24). Served in the Revolutionary War, the name being spelled Slenacre (26). He was elected deacon of the New Hanover Lutheran church Jan. 19, 1767 (27) and an Elder Jan. 6, 1778 (28) in which capacity he served till 1781. He was one of the signers of a letter dated Sept. 10, 1768, inviting the Synod to the dedication of the new church (135).

Michael Schlonecker and wife were sponsors at the following baptisms:- George Michael Bender, born Feb. 7, 1770, baptized Feb. 23, 1771, parents Jacob and Susanna (29); Abraham Linzenbiegler, born March 11, 1773, baptized April 14, 1773, parents Paul and Anna Maria (30); Anna Maria Schlonecker, born July 31, 1782, baptized Oct. 6, 1782, parents Michael Jr. and Susanna (31); Jacob Jung, born August 2, 1782, baptized Sept. 8, 1782, parents Henry and Catharine (32). Johann Jacob Fuchs, born August 8, 1784, baptized Sept. 25, 1784, parents Johannes and Margaretha (33). Johannes Schlonecker, born Jan. 25, 1785, baptized Feb. 1, 1785, parents Henry and Maria (34). In 1769 Michael Sloanaker (note spelling), Frankfort and New Hanover Townships, Philadelphia Co., Pa., paid 12 pounds, 10 shillings, and 8 pence taxes on 200 acres, 2 horses, and 3 cows (35). In 1780 Michael Slonecker, New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa., paid 29-5-0 taxes on property valued at 1300 pounds (36). Michael Slonecker, New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa,, paid an Effective Supply tax of 3-16-10 on property valued at 262 pounds (37). In 1782 Michael Slonecker, New Hanover Township, Philadelphia Co., Pa., paid an Effective Supply tax of 1-11-6 on a value of 252 pounds (38). In 1783 he was assessed for taxes on 128 acres, 2 horses, 2 cows, and 4 sheep, property still in New Hanover Township (39). In the first (1790) U. S. Census of residents of Exeter Township, Berks Co., Pa., we find "Michael Slonecker, Sr., 2 males over 16 and 1 female. This included the heads of families. This census was very incomplete for we know of many Slonakers living in Pennsylvania at that time who were not listed.

Every genealogist sooner or later encounters a mythical fortune waiting to be distributed amongst the descendants of a wealthy ancestor. A circular letter written about 1910 or 1915 relative to a supposed fortune waiting to be distributed on proof of claim, has come into my hands. Because it involves this Michael Slonaker's wife, Anna Marie Heilig, I deem it wise to quote it in full as it may add to the historic interest of her descendants.

"To the Heirs of Heilig, Harley, Deary and Slonacre Heirs."

"There is an alleged Estate in Holland, left to the Heirs of Wolfert Webber, whose two sons and daughters came to this country and settled in the City of New York — and purchased land — part of said land Trinity Church is built upon.

"The estate in Holland is said to be several million.

"Henry Heilig with his wife Susana came to this country about 1753 bringing the following children, Henry Jr., John, George, Anna Maria Dreary and Susana Slonacre. The tradition of the family is that Susana Heilig was a Holland Princess or Duchess, and we believe she was descended from Wolfert Webber as Wolfert Webber was connected with the Royal family in Holland. I have heard father made this statement. And as a descendant myself and I think we ought to band together and have our branch of the family arrange to have search made.

"From various members of the family I learn for a fact that there was an entailed estate left to the Heirs of the family of the Heilig's in Holland. Whether it be the Webber estate or not.

(Signed) J. B. Witcraft, Delair, New Jersey."

"There is 45,000 invested in Holland for the 3d generation of the Webber Heirs."

Michael Jr. and Anna Marie (Heilig) Schlonecker had the following twelve children who belong to the fourth (IV) generation in this country:—IV 1, Anna Maria (died in infancy); IV 2, Anna Maria; IV 3, Susanna; IV 4, Catharina; IV 5, John Michael (died in infancy); IV 6, John Michael; IV 7, John Heinrich; IV 8, Johannes; IV 9, Anna Margareth; IV 10, Johann Jacob; IV 11, Elisabeth; and IV 12, Maria Dorothea.

IV 1. Anna Maria Schlonecker, the 1st child of Michael and Anna Maria, born March 31, 1749, baptized May 6, 1750, died August 16, 1750, age 1 year, 4 months, and 2 weeks (39).

IV 2. Anna Maria Schlonecker, the 2d child of Michael and Anna Maria, born Jan. 8, 1752, baptized March 15, 1752 (40). No further authentic record has been found. There is a hint that she married Paul Linzenbiegler for her parents, Michael and wife, were sponsors at the baptismal service of Abraham Linzenbiegler, born March 11, 1773 and baptized April 14, 1773 as son of Paul and Anna Maria. It was a common custom for grandparents to be sponsors at such services. On the possibility of this assumption being true the following descendants were found in the church records and are given for descendants in this group to verify.

V 1. Abraham Linzenbiegler, born March 11, 1773, baptized April 14, 1773 (47). Married Sept. 15, 1795 to Christina Muller (48). They had the following children, VI 1, 2, etc.

VI 1. Maria Margareth Lintzebiegler, born April 27, 1796, baptized June 28, 1796 (49).

VI 2. Anna Maria Linsebugler, born June 23, 1798, baptized August 5, 1798 (50).

VI 3. Elisabeth Linsebugler, born Feb. 8, 1801, baptized March 15, 1801 (50).

VI 4. Anna Barbara Linsebichler, born April 22, 1803, baptized July 31, 1803 (50).

VI 5. Peter Linzebechler, born Oct. 1, 1805, baptized Jan. 12, 1806 (49).

V 2. Paul Lindsbigler, born July 21, 1779 (49). Married August 2, 1807 to Elizabeth Binder (48). Maria Elisabeth Binder born March 24, 1781, baptized May 6, 1781 (51). The church records show that there were at least two children, VI 1 and VI 2 following:—

VI 1. Maria Sarah Linsenbiegler, born Jan. 31, 1815, baptized April 9, 1815 (49).

VI 2. Samuel Linsenbiegler, born May 10, 1817, baptized June 17, 1817 (49).

V 3. Johannes Linzenbiegler, born May 12, 1784, baptized June 13, 1784 (50). Married April 10, 1810 to Maria Binder (48), born April 26, 1785, baptized August 7, 1785 (51). Church records give one child, VI 1 following:—

VI 1. Johan Marcus Linsenbiegler, born Jan. 31, 1811, baptized March 2, 1811 (49).

V 4. Maria Margareth (Linsebigler) Stauffer, born Dec. 29, 1789, baptized Feb. 2, 1790 (49). Married March 8, 1807 to Jacob Stauffer (52). Records give one child, VI 1, following:—

VI 1. Anna Maria Staufer, born May 5, 1808, baptized May 22, 1808 (53).

IV 3. Susanna Schlonecker, the 3d child of Michael and Anna Maria, born Jan. 21, 1754, baptized Feb. 25, 1754 and sponsored by George Heilig and Anna Maria Schlonecker (41). She was confirmed in her 15th year May 22, 1768 as daughter of Michael Jr. (42). An authentic record of the marriage of Susannah has not been found. There is, however, a suggestion that she married Jacob Bender since three children of Jacob and Susanna Bender when baptized were sponsored by three different Slonakers. On the above assumption the following descendants can be listed, V 1, etc.

V 1. George Michael Bender, born Feb. 7, 1770, baptized Feb. 23, 1771, sponsored by Michael and Anna Maria Schlonecker (46). Married Feb. 22, 1795 to Maria Christina Herbel (54).

V 2. Johann Jacob Bender, born Feb. 5, 1776, baptized April 8, 1776, sponsored by Johannes Bender and Catharine Schlonecker (45). Confirmed April 22, 1791, age 15, as son of Jacob (59). Married Sept. 14, 1800 to Elizabeth Friederich (54).

V 3. Johannes Bender, born April 25, 1778, baptized June 7, 1778, sponsored by Johannes Bender and Elizabeth (46). Confirmed April 20, 1794, age 15, as son of Jacob (57). Married Feb. 13, 1820 to Hannah Bickel (54).

V 4. Henrich Bender, born June 21, 1781, baptized August 12, 1781, sponsored by Henrich Schlonecker and Anna Maria Bender. Married August 7, 1803 to S. Palzgraf (54).

V 5. George Binder (note spelling), born May 19, 1784, sponsored by Michael Kurtz and wife Friederica (55). Confirmed 1799 as son of Jacob (58). Married Nov. 2, 1806 to Susanna Palzgraf (54).

V 6. Susanna Binder (note spelling), born August 4, 1786, baptized Sept. 17, 1786, sponsored by Michael Schlonecker and wife Susanna (51).

IV 4. Catharina Schlonecker, the 4th child of Michael and Anna Maria, born Nov. 17, 1755, baptized March 21, 1756, sponsored by Henry Heilig and Catharina Slanecker (her aunt, note spelling) (56). Confirmed April 22, 1770 in her 15th year as daughter of Michael. She was a sponsor at the baptism of Johann Jacob Bender April 8, 1776 (41) whom as we have assumed was her nephew. At this time she was not married. There is no record found of her marriage, but there is supporting evidence that she married Henry Young (Jung) for her parents were sponsors at the baptism of Jacob Jung (Young) Sept. 8, 1782 whose parents were Henry and Catharina (32). Also Henry Young and wife Catharina were sponsors at the baptism of Henry Schlonecker (son of her brother Henry) Oct. 19, 1789 (41). If this is true there is a record of one child, V 1, following:—

V 1. Jacob Jung (Young), born August 2, 1782, baptized Sept. 8, 1782, sponsored by Michael Schlonecker and wife Anna Maria (32). No further record has been found.

IV 5. John Michael Schlonecker, the 5th child of Michael and Anna Maria, born April 2, 1758, baptized June 25, 1758, sponsored by George Heilig and wife (56). He apparently died in infancy as the next child born was also named John Michael.

IV 6. Joh. Michael Schlunecker (note spelling), the 6th child of Michael and Anna Maria, born June 23, 1759, baptized August 5, 1759, sponsored by George Heilig and wife (39). Confirmed May 14, 1775, age 15, as son of Michael (60).

Died April 12, 1846. Married April 3, 1781 to Susanna Neis (Nice), born (March?) Dec. 9, 1762, died Jan. 11 (2?), 1818. The tombstone marking the grave of Susanna in Pikeland, Pa. cemetery bears the following legend:—"Susanna Slonaker, Tochter (daughter) Zacharias Neis, born Dec. 9, 1762. Married Apr. 3, 1781, died Jan. 2, 1818, age 55 yrs. 2 mo. 4 days."

According to Enoch Jones Acker, Anselma, Pa. "Michael was on the building committee of old St. Peters Luthern Church Pikeland, Pa. when it was decided in 1811 to build a new stone church to replace the old log church that had been used for 40 years." He also gives the following:—"Michael Slonaker and Susanna his wife conveyed to John Slonaker and wife Anna Slonaker of Brandywine Township, Chester Co., Penna. Feb. 27, 1813." "Notes of conveyance: Benj. Chew, Alexander Wilcox and Benj. Chew, Jr., Attorneys in Fact for Samuel Hoare, Middlesex Co., Kingdom of Great Britain, convey to Michael Slonaker of Pikeland Township, Chester Co., Pa. March 31, 1796. Consideration 253 pounds and 16 shillings. See Deed Book M 2, Vol. 32." "From Deed Book K 2, Vol. 34—Benj. Chew, Alexander Wilcox and Benj. Chew, Jr., Attorneys in Fact, for Samuel Hoare, Middlesex Co., Kingdom of Great Britain, conveyed to Michael Slonaker of Pikeland Township, Chester Co. Pa. Jan. 1, 1793. Consideration 532." These records establish residence in or near Pikeland, Pa.

Michael Schlonecker (Slonaker) and wife Susanna were sponsors at the baptism of Susanna Binder, Sept. 17, 1786 (51) and Samuel Lindsbigler Dec. 2, 1781 (49). Michael served in the Revolutionary War in the years 1777 to 1786 as shown by the following records:—(Spelling of the name as given in the records) Michael Slenacre, Jun. in 6th Battalion Philadelphia Co. militia under Capt. Richards, 1777-8 (26). Michael Schlonecker, 4th class private 3d Co. 4th Battalion, Philadelphia Co., 1777-8 under Capt. Fred'r Beiteman (61). Michael Slownacker "Muster roll of Capt. Philip Hahn's Co. of the 4th battalion, regiment of foot, in the service of the U. S., commanded by Col. Dean in Phila. Co. militia, Dec. 22, 1778 (62). Michael Slonecker, "Return of Non-associators for New Hanover Tp., Phila. Co. 1779" (63). Michael Slonacre, 4th class private, Capt. Frederick Beiteman's Co. Phila. Co. militia commanded by Lieut. Anthony Bitting, Esq. for the year 1780" (64). Michael Slonecker, 4th class private,

"A list of the names and surnames of all male white inhabitants residing within my company district in New Hanover Tp. between the ages of 18 and 53 together as they are classified belonging to the 2d company, 4th Battalion Montgomery Co. militia commanded by Lieut. Col. Peter Richards" 1785 (65). Michael Sloneiker, 4th class private, "A list of names of white persons between 18 and 53 living in New Hanover Tp., Montgomery Co., 4th Battalion, 3d Co., Capt. Benjamin Markley" 1786 (66).

We are indebted to Hiram Lyday Sloanaker, Harry Milton Sloanaker, Enoch Jones Acker, and Aaron H. Slonaker for great help in compiling the genealogy of this group.

Michael and Susanna are reported to have had 11 children, 6 sons and 5 daughters, V 1, etc. following:—

V 1. Anna Maria (Slonaker) Hipple, born July 31, 1782, baptized Oct. 6, 1782, sponsored by Michael Schlonecker and wife Anna Maria (the grandparents) (41). She is reported to have married Henry Hipple. We have no further records.

V 2. Catherine (Slonaker) Wesler, the 2d child of Michael and Susanna, born Oct. 3, 1777 (date computed), died August 13, 1885. Married Jacob Wesler. The legend on her tombstone in Pikeland, Pa. cemetery is as follows:—"Catherine, consort of Jacob Wesler, daughter of Michael and Susannah, died Aug. 13, 1835, age 37 yr., 10 mo., 10 da." From these data the date of birth was computed. She was apparently not a member of the New Hanover church since those records do not mention her. We have found no record of any children.

V 3. Jacob Slonaker, 3d child of Michael and Susanna, born Oct. 14, 1785, died July 12, 1849 of Asiatic cholera. His grave stone in Pikeland, Pa. cemetery bears this legend:—"Jacob Slonaker, died July 12, 1849, age 64." He was married May 9, 1811 to Mary Morgan, born Jan. or Feb. 19, 1785, died Feb. 15, 1873, age 88. Her tombstone in Pikeland, Pa. cemetery reads:—"Mary Slonaker, wife of Jacob Slonaker, d. Feb. 15, 1873."

Married May 3, 1784 to Elisabeth Steinbrenner (25) (68). He was a private in the Revolutionary War, 1777 to 1780. In Capt. Frederick Beitman's Co. of the 4th Battalion Philadephia Co. militia 1780 (69) and in Capt. Philip Hahn's Co., 4th Battalion, Regiment of Foot, in the Service of the U. S. commanded by Col. Dean in 1778 (70). In 1786 he is listed as corporal in the "Class return of Capt. John Dengler's Co. for the year 1786 in Douglass Township, County of Montgomery and state of Pinsila Militia commanded by Colo. Peter Richards Esq. for 1786." (71). Heinrich Schlonecker and Anna Maria Bender were sponsors at the baptism of Heinrich Bender August 12, 1781 (43). In the asssessment list of Douglas Township, Philadelphia Co. we find the name Henry Slonacre as one of the residents subject to taxation. We have authentic record of but three children, V 1, etc. following:—

V 1. Johannes Schlonecker, born Jan. 25, 1785, baptized Feb. 1, 1785 as son of Heinrich Schlonecker and wife Elisabeth (41). We have found no further authentic record. There is a suggestion that he might have been the John whom we have been unable to connect on the tree and who was the father of Andrew, Jacob, John and Henry who were born early in 1800. Or possibly the John who married Matilda Thomas.

V 2. Maria Schlonecker, born Feb. 3, 1787, baptized April 1, 1787 as daughter of Henry and Elisabeth (39). No further record has been found.

V 3. Henry Schlonecker, born May 1, 1789, baptized Oct. 19, 1789 as son of Henry and Elizabeth (41). Further record is lacking.

IV 8. John Schlonecker, born June 8, 1763 in Montgomery Co., Pa., baptized Oct. 23, 1763 (56), died August 17, 1846. Married March 31, 1785 to Margaret Neiss (Nyce, Nice), born July 18, 1764, died Sept. 10, 1842. John and Margaret were sponsors at the baptismal services of the following:—
Elisabeth Schlonecker (daughter) Oct. 15, 1788 (41).
Anna Maria Schlonecker (daughter) Dec. 20, 1791 (41).
Catharina Schlonecker (daughter) Jan. 27, 1795 (41).
Jonas Schlonecker (son) May 2, 1796 (39).
Salome Schlonecker (daughter) March 3, 1799 (39).
Joreth (Jared) Schlonecker (son) July 15, 1800 (39).
Johannes Voegely (parents Geo. and Anna Maria) June 21, 1803 (72).
Johannes Schlonecker (son) Jan. 8, 1805 (41).
Salome Erb (parents Peter and Christina) March 1, 1811 (73).
Jeremiah Honnetter (grandson) May 30, 1813 (74).
John was a member of the New Hanover Lutheran church. Was elected a deacon Jan. 6, 1794, and was requested to audit the accounts of the senior deacons Jan. 20, 1794 (75). He was again elected deacon for one year March 14, 1794 (76), and was one of three appointed for By-Laws April 2, 1797 (77). About 1814 moved from Montgomery Co. to Jersey Shore, Pa.

John and Margaret are reported to have had 9 children—Elizabeth, Johannes, Anna Maria, Catharina, Jonas, Marcus, Salome, Joreth and John. However a record said to be from John's bible gives—"Son Samuel married 1833." Since this record was at the end of the record of the other children it seems reasonable to conclude that Samuel was a 10th child and will be so considered.

Through the kindness of Miss Edith Mildred Bastress, 138 Fairmount Av., Sunbury, Pa. we are able to give an abstract of John's will as follows:—

"Abstract of Will of John Schlonecker, in Will Book 2, p. 5, Lycoming County, Pa. (Williamsport)

The children's records follow, V 1, etc.:—

V 1. Elizabeth (Schlonecker) Bastress, born August 31, 1788, baptized Oct. 15, 1788 (41), died Nov. 12 (22?), 1880, at Jersey Shore, Pa. Married Nov. 22, 1807 (78) to Solomon Bastress, born Jan. 20, 1788 at Pottstown, Pa., died May 11, 1872 at Jersey Shore, Pa. Record from John's bible "Daughter married Solomon Bastress." We are indebted to Edith M. Bastress for the following:— Solomon Bastress was born in Pottstown, Pa. and later (1814) moved to Jersey Shore, Pa. where he spent the rest of his life. He was a weaver and dyer by trade, but after settling in Jersey Shore he became a surveyor and scrivener and carried on that business in addition to his trade. Solomon Bastress was sent to the Legislature from Lycoming County in 1827, and reelected in 1828-9-30, serving four terms in succession. In 1846 he was elected an Associate Judge and served until 1856. In addition to the above duties he also served as Justice of the Peace in Jersey Shore for a number of years. To show the appreciation and esteem in which he was held a township was named Bastress after him. In the Jersey Shore Herald of May 12, 1872 the following obituary appeared:

"In this place on the 11 inst., Hon. Solomon Bastress, aged 84 years, 3 months and 22 days.

"The deceased was born in Pottstown, Montgomery County, Pa., January 20th, 1788. He served in the war of 1812, holding the Commission of Lieutenant. In the year 1817, he moved with his family to his late residence. He was employed in this then new County as Surveyor and Conveyencer, which afforded him an opportunity of forming an extensive acquaintance in his own and neighboring Counties. As an appreciation of his worth he was elected to the State Legislature in 1826 and re-elected for three consecutive terms. He was also honored with the position of Associate Judge for the term of ten years.

"Mr. Bastress maintained in all his relations and duties a high character for strict integrity. When in his sixteenth year he professed faith in Christ and united with the Lutheran Church. During his long life he was enabled to witness a good profession before many witnesses. As might be expected after such a life of devotion and uprightness, his end was peace. A short time before his death, realizing that the time of his departure was at hand, with his unusual fervency he committed his dear ones and his own soul to the care of his Heavenly Father, "then yielded up his spirit and was gathered to his people." He leaves behind him his aged companion of his long pilgrimage, children and grandchildren and many friends to whom his memory is blessed. "Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace."—Jersey Shore Herald.

We are indebted to Dr. Edgar Munson Slonaker, a son, for some interesting personal history. He says "The day my father was born, Jan. 1, 1821, one of the old Irish 'biddies' who was present when the event took place, said, 'Now I will show you how to have a healthy boy baby and a long lived man'. She took him out and broke the ice in the rain barrel at the corner of the house and soused him into the water and strange to say no bad effect followed." He also gives an account of his father's early life. "When Pappy was a young man, he went all over the country with a wagon peddling tinware and gathering rags. He did not stick to this very long, soon selling out. He then started out again with a large Elk in a covered wagon, with a sign painted on the side 'Ten cents to see the Elk'. He did quite well. Twenty years ago, I saw in the Philadephia Inquirer or North American, I don't know which one, there was a long article written by some old timer about the Elk in Pennsylvania and gave a write-up about John Slonaker of Jersey Shore going through the country with the last known Elk in Pennsylvania." "When I was a student in Philadephia in 1892, I went into a bank on Chestnut Street to get some money. The old fellow at the window recognized the name and asked me if I knew John Slonaker, 'the big man of Jersey Shore'. I answered, 'Yes, I am his baby'. He then laughed and told me about how he and Pappy emptied a bottle of whiskey one time while fishing up Pine Creek."

"From the Elk Business, he drifted into the grocery business on the main Street of Jersey Shore where the Presbyterian church now stands. At this time he married. Well, in those days the grocery store sold whiskey and of course he, being a progressive man, kept an up-to-date store trading groceries and whiskey for shingle lathe. However, seeing more profit in the lumber, he quit the grocery business and went into the lumber business. Believe me, he was a 'money getter.' This was when he was about thirty-five years old. . . . He became a very prominent lumber man in this county and state and accumulated about $300,000 from about the age of thirty to fifty years. At that time he was considered wealthy. Mother wanted him to retire, but no, his greed for money was so great that he and Dan Smith of Williamsport got a contract to pave Washington, D. C. with tared chestnut blocks. He had carload after carload of chestnut blocks delivered at Washington and also got a few laid when something happened, I don't know just what, but Congress halted the work and his loss was $75,000. They could not sell the chestnut blocks and so the people carried them away. He tried the balance of his life to get Congress to pay his loss, but they never did. From that time reverses seemed to smile on him and he lost everything and when he died could not pay fifty cents on the dollar. He owned a very productive farm in Northumberland County and one at Jersey Shore. He owned the City Hotel in Williamsport at that time on the corner of Pine and Third Streets. He was also engaged in the tannery business. He was very proud and after his losses said that he could not stand the chagrin and died without any disease or organic condition, simply of grief."

An interesting account of the wedding is given in the following excerpt from the diary of Andy J. Geiger, Matilda's brother.

"Monday November 1, 1852 . . . Till (Matilda) stopped to see me—said she wanted to see me this even. After supper I went over. Her intended husband is in town, John Slonaker. She says she has no work now and her board is paid in full. As I have been chosen Groomsman she wants me to see the old brick preacher tomorrow morning and see if he can marry them Tuesday even, if not Wednesday or Thursday will do. When married they will go to the Eagle Hotel, and remain in the city till Monday—then they intend going to see our sister Mary on the Ohio bl. Pittsburg—visit the falls of Niagara and some of his relations at Meadville, &c. It is undecided which route they will take . . ." "Tuesday, November 2 . . . Well now for the particulars of Till's marriage. This morning I went up to see Mr. Calloway, the Pastor of the old Brick. I engaged him to be at home bt. 8 & 9 o' this even, to marry a couple. I left the yard at noon and told Till I made with the Revd. After dinner I stopped to see her again. John has not been up; but she expects him this P.M. I left word whither for him should I not see him—that I will call with a carriage for him at the Eagle Hotel at 8 o'. I then went to Ned; he recommended a carriage to me which stands in front of the Girard House. On my way down I purchased a pair of White Kids for the occasion. I made arrangement for the carriage at $1—an hour & to be at the Eagle Hotel at 8 o'. I walked up—stopped to see Till—John had been there and she told him the arrangement. Well Till all is ready & you & Martha Ann be ready ¼ past 8 and we will call for you. After supper I dresses myself in my best supporting the 1st pair of white kids I have ever bought. I felt well & when I was in full dress many said, 'Mr. Geiger you look better than I have ever seen you'. Soon after 7 o' I went down to the Hotel—enquired for Mr. Slonaker, but he was not in. I took a seat in the reading room. He passes by me twice before I knew him or he me. We exchanged salutations. 'Well John, said I, you think about changing your condition of life?' 'Yes I have been thinking about it.' 'Well I believe it the most happy if we are prepared for it.' We had a social chat till the carriage was announced. In a few min. we were seated in a good carriage & whirled away over the rough pebble pavement as fast as two fine horses could speed it. Now we are drawn up at the door, No. 26 Green Street. All ready—now the parting commences & tears are restrained with difficulty—good by and well wishes & kisses are exchanged with the intended bride. The last 'Good-by' from her friends and the carriage door is closed. Away we go—I keep up some nonsence to drive away melancholy. But here we are at the Rev. He is out; but his wife sent for him. He recognized my sister; but he thinks that Martha Ann and I are the intended bride and groom; for Till and John are dressed very plain. After a few minutes conversation, the minister rose and said 'Well friends if you are ready I will proceed.' We had so seated ourselves that all we had to do was stand up when he was ready. Now he discovered who was to be married. I felt sorry while he was proceeding with the ceremony, that my only single sister would soon be separated from me & fall under the protection of another, who might not treat her with that kindness she deserved. In a few minutes he had finished and we took our seats, but not as we rose; for now my sister is a married woman and claims the protection of another. The preacher observed, 'Getting married is short work.' He made her out two certificates, one for her marriage which I signed & one for her church membership. She and John felt disposed to be quiet and sad; but the preacher talked lively and told how much he was surprised. Again we are seated in the carriage & the driver is directed to Parkinson in Chestnut Street. By accident John broke the front glass. It seems singular that they should have got married on the presidential election night and the seeming honor of bon fires in all directions to light up our way. They did not care for anything but ice cream & we took the same. By 10 o' we were landed safely at the Eagle Hotel. I had some difficulty in settling with the driver. Martha Ann & I stayed with them till 11 o' when we took our leave of them & promised to call tomorrow even."

VII 2. J. George Slonecker, Lawyer and Judge. Born March 22, 1851, died April 7, 1923 at Topeka, Kan. From the Sunday, April 8, 1923 edition of the Topeka Daily Capital we find the following brief history of him. "Judge J. G. Slonecker, 72, one of the most prominent attorneys in Kansas, died at Christ's hospital last night after an illness of several weeks. Judge Slonecker was born on a farm near Savannah, Ohio, March 22, 1851 and attended Savannah Academy, and later Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ill., from which he was graduated in 1870, having completed a classical course. He came to Topeka in 1872 and was admitted to the bar in 1873. From a modest compilation of autobiographical notes left by Judge Slonecker, the really wide scope of his extremely active legal practice can be ascertained. He was attorney for the company that built the railway from Fort Scott to Topeka, and for the company that built the first electric street railway in Topeka. For many years he was special attorney for the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway. He was engaged in much important litigation. He was chairman of the delegation from the Kansas Bar association to the Universal Congress of Lawyers and Jurists held at the St. Louis World's fair in 1904. For two years he was in a law partnership with the firm of Slonecker, Wheeler & Switzer, but was not connected with any firm during the remainder of his law practice. When the bankruptcy law was enacted in 1898 he was appointed referee by Judge Foster of the United States district court and was reappointed by Judge Hook and Judge Pollock. In 1903 and 1904 he was president of the Kansas Bar association and thereafter was its treasurer until November, 1921, and also a member of its executive council. President Taft offered him an appointment as United States judge in the Indian territory, but he refused it because of the extent of his practice here. He was a member of the American Bar association and long a member of its standing committee on jurisprudence and law reform. Judge Slonecker took part in the organization of Washburn college school of law and taught classes in it for twelve years without compensation. He also lectured at the Kansas university school of law. He was an active Republican of the stalwart type and in 1888 and 1889 was president of the Kansas State Republican league and was always afterward active in politics. He was a close associate of Senator Charles Curtis. Judge Slonecker was a member of the board of trustees of Christ's hospital and a director of the city library, Topeka club and the Kansas State Historical society. He was a member of the Co-operative club and the Chamber of Commerce. Judge Slonecker never married. His father died when he was a year old and his mother lived with him in Topeka until her death in 1911. She was a woman of exceptional education and, in the language of her son, 'a woman of high ideals and fine character' and the relationship between mother and son was unusually close thruout her life."

V 10. Samuel Slonaker. This is doubtful yet a record said to be from John's bible reads—"Son Samuel married 1833." Since this record was in the same group with his sons Jonas and Jared it looks as though this Samuel did exist, but we have no further record.

IV 9. Anna Margareth Schlonecker (Slunecker in church records), born Oct. 17, 1765, baptized Dec. 15, 1765 as daughter of Michael Jr. and Anna Maria (87), confirmed 1781 in her 16th year as Anna Margaretha Schlonecker, daughter of Michael Schlonecker (88). No further record.

IV 10. John Jacob Schlonecker, born March 23, 1768, baptized May 7, 1768 as son of Michael and Anna Maria (41). He was confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran church May 29, 1784, age 16 (89), as son of Michael. Reported married to Ann Catherine (Fuchs?), born March 20, 1772 (computed), died July 31, 1834. Grave stone in Longsdorf cemetery reads —"Ann Catherine, wife of Jacob Slonecker, died July 31, 1834, aged 62 y. 4 m. 11 d." Jacob Schlonecker and Miss Catharine Fuchs were sponsors at the baptism of Catharina Fuchs March 26, 1786. Jacob Schlonecker and Maria Steinbrenner were sponsors at the baptism of Marie Schlonecker (daughter of Henry and Elizabeth) April 1, 1787. E. Jones Acker has found in a deed book at West Chester, Pa. this record—"On April 1, 1814 Jacob Sloniger of the twp. of East Pennsboro, Cumberland Co., and Catherine, his wife, conveyed to Jacob Sloniger of the Twp. of Pikeland, Chester Co., Pa., 167 acres and 25 perches." There were three Jacobs born within thirteen years of the same time which leads to confusion. 1. John Jacob, son of Michael Sr. and 2d wife, Eva Filicitas (Wister) Schlonecker, born March 16, 1755. 2. John Jacob, son of Michael Jr. and Anna Maria, born March 23, 1768, and 3. Jacob, son of Geo. Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Schlonecker, born 1765? We have used our best judgment in dealing with these. It seems there were at least two children, V 1, etc. following:—

V 1. George Slonaker, born Feb. 25, 1797 (Computed from grave stone), died Dec. 10, 1851, age 54 y. 10 m. 15 da. Tombstone in Longsdorf cemetery, New Kingston, Pa., reads—"George Slonaker, died Dec. 10, 1851, aged 54 y. 10 m. 15 d." This man may have been the ancestor of the unclassified group headed by George H. and Nancy (Hicks) Slonaker to be given later.

V 2. Elizabeth Slonaker, born May 27, 1808, died July 28, 1831. E. Jones Acker claims she was the daughter of Jacob. He so decides because of the position of her grave stone in Longsdorf cemetery, New Kingston, Pa. which reads—"Elizabeth Slonaker, born May 27, 1808, died July 28, 1831."

IV 11. Elizabeth Schlonecker, born July 12, 1770, baptized Nov. 19, 1770 as daughter of Michael and Anna Maria (41). She was sponsor at the baptism of Elisabeth Susanna Reier August 1, 1779. No further record.

IV 12. Maria Dorothea Schlonecker, born Dec. 20, 1773, baptized April 20, 1774 as daughter of Michael and Anna Maria (39), died Nov. 14, 1776, age 2 y. 10 m., 3 w., 1 da. (11).

III 2. Johann Jurg Schlonecker, born 1732?, confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran church Nov. 5, 1749 at the age of 17 as son of Michael (90), died Feb. 15, 1777, age 45 (90). He was married March 20, 1761 in Worcester Twp. to Anna Catha. Elizabeth Burchard according to the marriage records of Augustus Ev. Lutheran church, Trappe, Pa. (91). George and wife were sponsors at the baptism of Joh. George Erb, May 8, 1763 (92) and of Johann George Kehl, Nov. 19, 1770 (93). George Sloanaker was assessed in Frankfort and New Hanover Twps. Phila. Co. Pa. in 1769 on 100 A. 3 horses and 5 cows, tax 10 0 4 (94). In 1779 Widow Slonecker of Frankfort and New Hanover Twps. paid a tax of 15 pounds (95). According to the New Hanover church records there were at least three children, IV 1, etc. following:—

IV 1. Joh. Heinrich Schlonecker (Slunecker in records), born June 15, 1751, baptized August 16, 1761 as son of George and Elisabeth Catherina (87), died Dec. 12, 1773, age 12 y., 5 m., 3 w., 6 d. (11).

IV 2. George Schlonecker, born Dec. 25, 1762, baptized April 11, 1763 as son of George and Catharina Elisabeth (87), died Dec. 2, 1774, age 7 y., 10 m., 3 w., 6 d. (10).

IV 3. Infant son, born Jan. 3, 1763, died Sept. 5, 1766 (96).

III 3. Anna Maria Schlonecker, born 1737? 1738?, confirmed New Hanover Lutheran church March 29, 1752 in 14th year of age as daughter of Michael (97). Anna Maria Schlonecker and George Heilig were sponsors at the baptism of Susanna Schlonecker, daughter of Michael Jr., Feb. 25, 1754.

III 4. Anna Catharina Schlonecker, born 1738 or 39, baptized in the New Hanover Lutheran church March 29, 1752, age 13, as daughter of Michael (97). Catharina Slanecker and Henry Heilig were sponsors at the baptism of Catharina Slunecker, daughter of Michael Jr. and A. Maria, March 21, 1756 (98). No further record.

III 5. George Adam Slonecker, born about 1740, confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran church April 17, 1756 in his 16th year as son of Michael Schlonecker (99). He was married March 13, 1763 to Frederica Dorothy Barbara Wister (25). T. M. Shallenberger says he came from Switzerland, (his brother says the Palatinate) was about 40 when the Revolution started, was impoverished by the war and with his sons, John and Adam, moved to Shenandoah Co., Va. George Adam was in Capt. Hahn's Company from New Hanover Twp., Montgomery Co., Pa. (100). George Adam and wife were sponsors at the baptism of George Adam Schlonecker, son of Johannes and Catharine, Nov. 6, 1771 (31). He paid taxes in Frankfort and New Hanover Twps., Philadelphia Co., Pa. in 1779 (101 and 102). Through the kindness of Miss Margaret Kane we are able to publish the last Will of Adam Slonaker which was dated August 5, 1812. "Last Will and Testament of Adam Sloneker, Senior, in Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland County.

"In the Name of God amen, I, Adam Sloneker Senior of Mount Pleasant Township, Westmoreland County and State of Pennsylvania being very sick and weak in body, but of sound mind, memory, and understanding, blessed be God for the same, but considering the uncertainty of this transitory life, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following, to wit. But otherwise or after her decease, the Remainder shall be divided in equal Shares among my five Children the names as follows: my son Adam, my daughter Catharina, my son John, my daughter Mary, my daughter Elizabeth. Michael Eicher John Storm."

It will be noticed that the spelling of the surname has been much simplified. It is also seen that one of his daughters had married Peter Hile, but his descendants have not given me a clue as to which it was. We have found no record to help us in the New Hanover church records. According to the descendants of George Adam there were eight children, IV 1, etc. following:—

IV 1. George Adam Sloneker, (Slunecker in church records), born Dec. 22, 1763 (1766?), baptized Jan. 29, 1764 as son of George Adam and Friderica Dorothea (87). Died 1819 or 1820 in Fayette Co., Pa. Married Oct. 11, 1791 to Elizabeth Welsh (Welch in her father's Will), born May 22, 1777, died 1860 in Fayette Co., Pa. Her father was Casper Welch who in 1779 served as a private in Capt. Samuel Rogers' Co. Eighth Battalion, Cumberland Co., Malitia in Pa. (103). George Adam Slonaker served in Capt. Hahn's Co. from New Hanover, Pa. (100), but this may have been his father. Miss Hazel Vivian Jewell says that Adam and his brother John bought a flour mill in Pa. which is now known as the Detwiler Mill. This is coroborated by Mrs. Edna Mollie (Leeper) Williams who says George Adam and family had a grist mill in Bullskin Twp. and was well-to-do, but they loaned money which was not repaid and failed. After the death of George Adam the widow and daughter, Christina, stayed with a married daughter, Mrs. Strickler, while the bachelor son, Jake, went to Calif. in '49 and got enough gold to buy them a small home near the old place. She further states that George Adam had a brother in Bullskin who was a potter and that a descendant of his, Jake, lives in Connellsville, Pa. George Adam had a large family consisting of the following eleven children, V 1, etc.

V 1. John Slonecker, born Oct. 13, 1792. Reported not married. It is said that he was a potter and had a pottery in Connellsville, Pa. After the death of his father he operated the grist mill, but was unsuccessful and lost both the mill and the pottery. We have no further record of him, but we suggest a possibility that he may have married and was the father of Andrew, Jacob, John, and Henry who were born between 1816 and 1829 and whose ancestry we have not determined for lack of reports.

V 2. Enoch Slonecker, born Dec. 25, 1794. No further record.

V 3. Dorothy Barbara Slonaker, born Dec. 16, 1796, died when small.

V 4. Elizabeth (Slonecker) Ellenberger, born Jan. 2, 1880 in Pa., died May 18, 1845. Married March 25, 1824 to Jonas Ellenberger, born Feb. 24, 1805 in Somerset Co., Pa., died June 1, 1884 in Pennsville, Pa. We have been unable to determine the father of Jonas Ellenberger. We have the following authentic references to other Ellenbergers (257): —Johannes Ellenberger, born August 11, 1799, baptized June 2, 1800; Jacob Ellenberger, born April 26, 1801, baptized June 6, 1802; both sons of George and Elizabeth Ellenberger. Johannes Ellenberger, born Jan. 31, 1800, baptized March 16, 1800, son of Carl and Elizabeth Ellenberger. Carl Ellenberger, married May 13, 1899 to Elizabeth Detter (260). George Ellenberger, married July 7, 1799 to Elizabeth Hilpart (260). Jonas could have been the son of either George or Carl who very likely were brothers. We also have a reference to Christian Ellenberger who was a 7th class private 1781-2 in the Revolutionary War (258). This shows the Ellenberger name was not an uncommon one during Colonial times.

Lions Club. "Wilmerding, Pa., reports the loss by death of a charter member, past president, and member of the board, Jay C. Stauffer. He was a highly popular and active member of his club, and when he lay in state the club attended in a body. He was treasurer of the First National Bank, and for 12 years was a member, and two years secretary of the school board."

From the July 6, 1939 issue of The United Presbyterian—"It is with a deep feeling of sadness that the session and members of the East McKeesport, Pa., United Presbyterian church record the death of Mr. Jay C. Stauffer, a member of session who passed to his reward on June 5, 1939 at the age of 68 years. . . . Mr. Stauffer was a devoted member of the East McKeesport church since November 1920 and was installed a ruling elder a few months later. He was a faithful and consistent Christian and very sincere in the performance of his duties as an elder. He was well versed in church government and his opinions and decisions in matters pertaining to the work of the session were carefully considered by the entire body. At the time of his death he was superintendent of the Sabbath school, which office he held for several years. He was also active in civic and social affairs in the community, having served as a member and secretary of the School Board for several years. . . ."

Editorial—"Everyone who knew J. C. Stauffer, assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Wilmerding were shocked when they learned that he suffered a stroke last Sunday morning, but when word was received that he had passed to the great beyond on Monday afternoon, both Wilmerding and East McKeesport then knew that they had lost a useful and worthy citizen and those who knew Mr. Stauffer loved him for sympathetic and kindly understanding. His loss will be keenly felt by most of us."

Barbara (Schlonecker) Bauersax, 6th child of Michael Sr. and 1st wife Schlonecker, born 1742, was confirmed in her 14th year in the New Hanover Lutheran church as daughter of Michael April 17, 1756 (106), married Dec. 27, 1764 to Valentine Bauersax (107) (109). Barbara Slunecker and George Adam Baursax were sponsors at the baptism of George Adam Slunecker, son of George Adam and Friderica Dorothea Jan. 29, 1764 (98). Barbara Slunecker and Johannes Heilig were sponsors at the baptism of Johannes Slunecker, son of Michael, Jr. and Anna Maria, Oct. 23, 1763 (98). Barbara Slunecker and David Burckert were sponsors at the baptism of Joh. Heinrich Slunecker, son of George and Elisabeth Catharina, August 16, 1761 (98). (Note spelling of surname). We have found no record of her descendants.

III 7. Infant daughter, 7th child of Michael Sr. and 1st wife Schlonecker, born 1744?, died Dec. 18, 1751 age 7 years (11). Name not recorded in church records.

III 8. Infant daughter, 8th child of Michael Sr. and 1st wife Schlonecker, born March 26?, 1750, died August 16, 1750, age 4 mo., 3 wks. (108).

III 9. Johannes (Daniel?) Schlonecker, born May 4, 1753, baptized May 18, 1753 as son of Michael and Eva Elisabeth (2d wife) (41), confirmed in the New Hanover Lutheran church April 22, 1770, age 17 years, as "the late Michael's son" (110), died March 30, 1777 age 24 (10), married to Catharina Schmidt, born 1757. In 1774 taxes were assessed against John Slonacre (in index), Slonaker (in text), for 1 - 13 - 4 in Frankfort and New Hanover Tps., Philadelphia Co., Pa. (111). During the years 1779 to 1783 Widow Slonecker, spoken of in some cases as John's widow, paid taxes from the same location (112, 113, 114, 115, 116, and 117). The records give four children, IV 1, etc. following:—

IV 1. George Adam Slonaker, born August 1, 1771, baptized Nov. 6, 1771 as son of John and Catharine (31), married to Sarah Kraus (Krause), born April 9, 1773, baptized May 16, 1773 as daughter of Daniel and Margaretha (118). Mrs. Catherine (Taggert) Stout, a descendant of George Adam, says that he married a Heilick instead of Sarah Kraus. Unless her given name was also Sarah the following church references would disprove this assertion. George Adam and Sara were sponsors at the baptism of Sara Pelz May 4, 1806 (119), and for their son, Isac (note spelling, born June 11, 1809), baptized Oct. 22, 1809 (34). G. A. Schlonecker and Sarah were sponsors at the baptism of Judith Yost July 29, 1821 (120). The records of the New Hanover Lutheran church give Joh. Adam and Sara as parents of Catherine Schlonecker, born Sept. 15, 1797 (31). The John evidently should be George. According to Mrs. Agnes (Taggert) Adam, great-granddaughter of George Adam and Sarah, there were seven children, V 1, etc. following:—

V 1. John Slonaker. No record. Probably died young. This is the child which makes the seven stated above. All other reports have listed but six children. We have two groups of descendants, whose ancestor was John, that we have been unable to connect onto the family tree. He may have been the John who married Catherine ——— and whose children were Andrew, Jacob, John, and Henry; or he may have been the John who married 1st Matilda Thomas, 2d Leah Thomas (sisters) whose children were Thomas C., Oliver H., Augustus S., and Harvey J. Descendants in these groups may be able to determine if this possibility exists.

V 2. Daniel Slonaker, born August 18, 1793, died Sept. 5, 1870, married Salome (Hoffman?) Gele Fogel (Vogel), born Oct. 17, 1790, died July 15, 1876. According to C. C. Kepler Daniel married Salome Hoffman, but Mrs. Anna M. Slonaker, widow of Samuel, says he married Miss Vogel. There is a possibility that he may have been married twice, but we have no record. William L. Slonaker, a grandson of Daniel, says the name was Salome Gele Fogel. The following record from the New Hanover church is of interest: "Vogel, Salomea, born Oct. 18, 1790, Bapt. Dec. 5, 1790, parents Friederich and Margaretha" (121). Reports show that Daniel had a family of six children, VI 1, etc. following:—

'When I was fifteen years old', said twenty-year-old Seymour Blau, 'my main diversion was shooting craps, and my ambition was to become New York's biggest bookie and policy king. Now, five years later, I have many decent diversions and ambition—and all this because of one man. That man is Harry E. Slonaker, director of the Boys' Brotherhood Republic at 290 East Third Street, a community house for the kids of the teeming Lower East Side. There are more than a hundred alumni who feel exactly the way Seymour does, and they are giving Mr. Slonaker a testimonial dinner tonight at the Webster Hotel. It could have just as easily been a different story, with perhaps thirty per cent of this group eating beans in Sing Sing on this evening, said Seymour with a shudder. Were we not from one of the worst juvenile delinquency areas in New York.' His work will live and bear fruit long after he has passed beyond."

In a "Receipt roll of a Company of Pennsylvania militia commanded by Capt. John McDowel of the 133 Regmt. 1813" Christian Slanager is listed as a private (122). This was evidently not his uncle Christian, son of Michael Sr., who would have been past 53 years of age. No further record of him has been found.

This was Michael Sr., who died Dec. 13, 1769. There is a suggestion that she married Jacob Bender for Michael Schlonecker and Anna Maria were sponsors at the baptism of George Michael Bender (born Feb. 7, 1770, baptized Feb. 23, 1771) whose parents were Jacob and Susanna. It was a custom for relatives to be chosen as sponsors. Nothing definite has been found to verify this assumption.

Christian Schlonecker and Catharina Schmidt were sponsors at the baptism of Christian Schlonecker, son of Johannes and Catharina, May 26, 1776 (31). Christian Slonacher (in index) Slonicher (in text), a single man, paid taxes in Paradise Tp., York Co., Pa. in 1779 (125). He was in Capt. Hahn's company from New Hanover, Pa. (126), Private in Westmoreland Co. Militia (127), Private in York Co. Militia Continental Army (127, 128, 129 and 130). No further record has been found.

III 13. Michael Schlonecker, born 1764, confirmed at the age of 17 in the New Hanover Lutheran church 1781 as Widow Schlonecker's son (88). From Ester (Slonaker) Hawk we have the following concerning the early life of Michael. "My grandfather was Michael Slonaker. I do not know when or where he was born, but he died about 1831 at Dennisonstown, now called New Alexandria, Pa. and was buried at Greensburg, Pa. about five miles west of Dennisonstown. I do not know the names of his brothers and sisters. For some time Michael lived at Martinsburg, Va. but about 1810 he moved to Dennisonstown taking about six weeks to make the trip to his new home in Westmoreland Co. He was married to Eva Potzer, but I do not know the date. They had the following children:—

George, Daniel, Katie, Peggy, Eva, Ester and Sally." This brief history is also verified by Mrs. Hattie (Hawk) Kunkle of Arnold, Pa.

He worked with his father on the farm until he became of age, when he took charge of the place conducting it successfully for a number of years. Here he carried on general farming and established qualities which commanded the respect of all his neighbors. While living in Westmoreland Co. Mr. Fennell served six years as tax collector and served his fellow citizens in Armstrong Tp. in that capacity for one term. He has filled other responsible offices in both places, giving satisfaction to all concerned. In religion he was originally a Lutheran, serving as an elder in St. James Church during his residence in Westmoreland Co. EDITORIAL COMMENT

The foregoing genealogical record contains all the descendants we have found who have authentic records to show they are descended from Michael Sr., one of the supposed four brothers, who came to America early in 1700 and which we have designated Group I.

Beside this large group we have a number of smaller groups which without doubt belong to Group I, but whose ancestries have not been traced, or are not sufficiently clear to enable us to place them with any degree of accuracy onto the family tree. The writer has had no clue as to whether some or all of these isolated groups have descended from this same Michael Sr. or from some of the other four brothers. We are, however, fully convinced that all these isolated groups belong to Group I, or to the first Slonaker immigration and not to any of the later ones. It is hoped that descendants in these isolated groups may be able to bridge the gap and connect themselves onto the proper limb of the family tree.

It will be noticed in the foregoing history that many records have not been completed. Some of these records stop early in the genealogical history. It is quite possible that many of the following isolated groups may be descendants of these earlier ancestors whose descendants have not been determined. In dealing with these unconnected groups the writer has suggested possible connections which may assist the descendants in these groups to bridge the gap and make authentic connections.

The fact that early historical records of land transfers, taxes, etc. have been found of persons not recorded in the descendants of Michael Sr. strongly suggests the four brother legend. We have, however, found no church or other authentic records which verify the four brother assumption.

These unconnected groups belonging to the first Slonaker immigration will now be considered. They will be designated by the name of the oldest ancestor in each group. In determining the generation to which the ancestor of each group belongs we have used the average date of birth of similar generations in the preceding records. These average birth dates are given in the following table:—

Generation	No. of cases	Avg. date birth	Range in date of birth
III	14	1741	1727 - 1766
IV	19	1766	1749 - 1801
V	73	1802	1771 - 1826
VI	94	1829	1796 - 1857
VII	98	1854	1830 - 1889
VIII	97	1893	1861 - 1923
IX	89	1918	1889 - 1935
X	35	1926-7	1913 - 1939

It will be noted that a wide range in the dates of birth exists even in generation III which consisted of Michael Sr.'s children. It is therefore impossible to determine with absolute accuracy the generation to which the ancestors in the following groups belong. We have used our best judgment and believe they are as accurate as the information at hand will permit.

GROUP I A. CHRISTOPHER SLONAKER, GENERATION IV.

What little we know of the early history of Christopher Slonaker has been handed down by word of mouth to the present generation. A great-grandson, Arthur B. Slonaker of Dillons Run, W. Va., gives the following:—"The 'Slonaker Legend' as I have heard it, is somewhat as follows: Our Christopher was reputedly a 'Pacifist' but he got caught in a Revolutionary War net and was drafted into service. So long as he was allowed to drive a team he stuck. But he was transferred to the fighting line. After a season of this he and another decided that they would rather be A.W.O.L. So they made their way through southern Pennsylvania and I presume by his old home. At any rate, as the story goes, he procured his Frow, Drawing Knife and Rifle, after which the two headed for Western Virginia. On this route they found the Potomac was to be reckoned with. The river was full from melting snows, but the weather was so cold that ice had formed at considerable thickness along the edges. When they had reached a big rock on the edge of the current and looked out over the swift rushing water, the companion said that was the end for him, as he could not swim. Christopher knotted his belongings together, gave his fellow traveler some instructions, took him on his hand, paddled with the other and brought the outfit to safety. . . . Great grandfather then came on through the backwoods and finally located on what is known as 'Timber Ridge' about ten miles east of where I live. Here he built a hut that still stands; here I suppose all his children were born for I believe that it was his home during the remainder of his life. There are two graves under an old cherry tree that stands on a little knoll some distance from the home site and these are said to be those of himself and wife." Through the kindness of the above writer we have in our possession a photograph of this old log cabin which must be nearly 150 years old. It shows its age and looks as though it had not been lived in for 40 or 50 years. One would judge it to be about 16 by 20 feet in size, with room above for an ample loft for storage of extra beds.

Another great-grandson, Evan Joseph Christopher Slonaker, Capon Bridge, W. Va., gives the following: "Christopher came from Holland. Fought in the American Revolution. Was a teamster, refusing to take a gun as he did not want to kill. He came to Virginia from Pennsylvania and settled about 18 miles west from Winchester, Va. near the state line in Hampshire Co., W. Va. on Little Timber Ridge.

He considered the low land to be unhealthy. He carried his frow, drawing knife and rifle. The rifle is now in my possession as it was his wish that it be passed on to those who bore his given name. He was a great fighter and would go miles to have a bout. He was a large and strong man, fair complexion, hazel gray eyes and curly dark hair (not black). He married a Miss Noal (not sure of the spelling). Later in life when he and another man were carrying a log on their shoulders the other man dropped his end and a snag so injured Christopher's back that he was never stout again."

A great-granddaughter, Mrs. Mary Jane (Slonaker) Powell, Capon Ridge, W. Va., says that her Aunt Louisa (Slonaker) Hawkins said that Christopher came across the ocean. A "Christoffel Schlencker" is reported by Strassburger (131) to have come to America. In our research we have found a number of different spellings of this name and all have proved to be not Slonaker descendants. Furthermore, beginning with 1727 all captains of ships were required to furnish a list of their passengers. These lists have been published and no Slonakers have been found in them. Evidence, therefore, all points to Christopher having been born in this country. Mrs. Powell also says that she had heard he came from Pennsylvania. This accords with statements made by other descendants and is most likely true.

The first U. S. Census (1790) does not give a Christopher Slonaker, but does mention a Christopher Schlicker of Montgomery Co., Pa., who had two sons over 16, one daughter under 16 and a wife. Though the surname was often spelled incorrectly it is very doubtful if this Schlicker was really a Slonaker. This first census was far from complete as it failed to list many Slonakers who were living in Pennsylvania. There was also a Christopher Schlencker who paid taxes in Berks Co., Pa. 1767, but this date eliminates this Christopher from the Slonaker clan.

From the information at hand it is impossible to state just how this Christopher is related to the other Slonakers of Group I. A few suggestions as to possible relationship will be given.

There was a Christian Slonaker, born 1760 and a son of Michael Sr., concerning whose descendants we have no record. This Christian was in war service from York Co., Pa. and paid taxes as a single man. But since he was honorably discharged from service in 1781 (130) it would eliminate him as having changed his name to Christopher. This is given because of the possibility that after Christopher deserted the army he might have changed his given name to avoid being easily traced. Though these two were born about the same time and we have no record of the descendants of Christian, there is no evidence that they were the same individual.

There is a strong possibility and some evidence that this Christopher was a descendant of Michael Sr. Thomas Martin Shallenberger, a great, great, great grandson of Michael Sr. says that George Adam Slonaker, a son of Michael Sr., was about 40 years old when the Revolution broke out, was impoverished by the war, and with his sons, John and Adam, moved to the Shenandoah Valley in Virginia. This is the region in which Christopher settled and lived. It is further reported by several descendants that this George Adam had two sons whose names were not known. Christopher could very well have been one of these unknown sons. While we do not know the date of birth of Christopher, all records indicate that he belonged to the same generation (IV) as the children of George Adam. It was a common custom for parents to name their children after their own brothers and sisters and after uncles and aunts. John, the authentic son of George Adam, had a son whom he named Christopher. Though this is but a slight clue it does add further support to the possibility of Christopher being one of the unknown sons of George Adam and thus a descendant of Michael Sr. The name, Christopher, was quite common in Montgomery Co., Pa. While this possible connection seems quite plausible we have no direct evidence to verify this suggestion of ancestry.

IV ?. Christopher Slonaker, born about 1770 in Pa., died about 1840 near Capon Bridge, W. Va. Reported to have married a Miss Noal (Noel, Noell, Nole, Noll, Null). Left Pennsylvania late in 1700 and settled on Little Timber Ridge, W. Va. where both lived, died and are buried. Eight children, 3 sons, 5 daughters, V 1, etc. following:—

V 1. Margaret (Slonaker) Parish, born 1797? in W. Va., died Nov. 15 or 16, 1872 age 75 at Gore, Va., married William Parish, born 1797, died Jan. 21, 1883 age 86 at Gore, Va. Both buried in Fairview Cemetery near Capon Bridge, W. Va. Five children, VI 1, etc. following:—

Va., died Nov. 26, 1899 of pneumonia at Farmland, Ind., married Jan. 8, 1851 to Nancy Morris, born Oct. 1, 1826 Rainsboro, Ohio, died August 27, 1925 at Hood River, Ore., lacking 33 days of being 99 years old. Both buried at Farmland, Ind. Adam Slonaker was bound out to George Oats in W. Va. with whom he lived till 21 years of age. He then went to New Petersburg, Highland Co., Ohio where he married Nancy Morris, a school teacher. About 1854 they moved to Farmland, Randolph Co., Ind., where they purchased a farm covered with virgin growth hard wood timber. He followed farming and stock raising the greater part of his life. Later in life he became Township Trustee of Schools in Monroe Township. After serving some years in this capacity he was elected one of the three county commissioners. He occupied this office for several years until his death at the age of 76. The following special news item from Hood River, Ore. under date of August 28, 1925 may be of interest: "Mrs. Nancy Slonaker, 99, the valley's oldest resident, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Jeffrey, wife of a west side orchardist. Mrs. Slonaker, an invalid for many years, came here in 1911 with her daughter. She was born October 1, 1826, in Ohio. The funeral will be at Farmland, Ind. Other surviving children are: Mrs. Alice Paris, Oakland, Cal.; Mrs. J. A. Hancock, Mankato, Minn.; Arthur Slonaker, Farmland, Ind., and Dr. J. R. Slonaker, Palo Alto, Calif."

The following from a "Memoriam" gives a good history of her life: "Nancy (Morris) Slonaker, daughter of Isaac Morris and Marie (Cooper) Morris, was born near Leesburg, Ohio, October 1, 1826 and died at the home of her daughter, Charlotte Elizabeth (Slonaker) Jeffrey, in Hood River, Oregon, August 27, 1925 at the age of 98 years, 10 months and 27 days. Her early days were spent in the neighborhood of her birthplace. During the winter of 1849-50, while teaching school, she became acquainted with Adam Slonaker. Their acquaintance ripened into true love, and they were married January 8, 1851. Their wedding tour, lasting through January, February and a part of March, was made by horse and buggy and extended into parts of West Virginia and Virginia, near Winchester, where they visited relatives and the birthplace of her husband.

In March they returned to Ohio and went to housekeeping. In this home three children, Alice Virginia, William Norris and Julia Elma, were born. In 1855 they moved, as pioneers, to Indiana, then a wilderness, and settled near Farmland, where they resided during the greater part of her life. They both lived to see the wilderness transformed into rich and valuable farms. She was a charter member of the Christian Church of Farmland and was always active in its work.

Five more children blessed this happy pair. They were

Anna Miriam, Cornelia Bell, Charlotte Elizabeth, Arthur Siegel and James Rollin. In 1858 the reaper saddened the household by taking Willie, Julia and Miriam. After the death of her husband in 1899, Aunt Nancy lived with her children, all of whom were married. In 1911, at the age of 84 years, she went to Hood River, Oregon, to be with her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Jeffrey. She loved the great Northwest and was happy in her new home, but always first in her thoughts came her old friends and neighbors and her beloved Christian Church of Farmland. The many words of cheer and love that she received from them did much to brighten her declining years. To few is it given to live so long a life and to accomplish so many deeds of kindness, love and mercy. 'Her good works shall live after her,' and truly her children can 'rise up and call her blessed.'

Her surviving children are: Alice Paris of Oakland, California; Cornelia Hancock of Mankato, Minn.; Charlotte Jeffrey of Hood River, Oregon; Arthur Slonaker of Canton, Ohio (now Farmland, Ind.), and James Rollin Slonaker of Palo Alto, California.

Aunt Nancy lived to be a great-great-grandmother and left many descendants to mourn her loss. Loving hands laid her to rest by the side of her departed husband in the family lot in Wood Lawn Cemetery at Farmland, Ind." They had eight children, VII 1, etc. following:—

VII 1. Adam Christopher Slonaker, born June 21, 1855, died June 29, 1928. Lived and died at Winchester, Va. He was a fuel merchant. The following news item from the Winchester (Va.) Evening Star of Saturday, June 30, 1928 will be of interest as it gives much early history: "Adam C. Slonaker called by death; ill a long time. End comes peacefully to prominent business man who had made a brave fight against incurable disease. Formerly sheriff of Hampshire Co. Masonic rites to be held at interment in Mount Hebron Cemetery here late on Monday afternoon. Adam C. Slonaker, for the past 30 years prominently identified with business, church and civic interests of Winchester, died about 7 o'clock last evening at his residence, No. 324 Amherst St., following an illness that lasted for some months. He was 73 years of age. The end was calm and peaceful, in spite of the fact Mr. Slonaker had been a great sufferer for past three weeks from a tumorous cancer. He possessed rather remarkable vitality and will-power, and although he realized his health was failing steadily he never gave up nor went to bed until the day before his death. He retired about his usual hour Thursday evening, but felt too weak to get out of bed yesterday morning, which was the first time in many years that he had failed to get up for his breakfast. His condition grew worse steadily during the day, and he lingered until early last evening, when the final summons came. Announcement of the death of Mr. Slonaker was received with widespread sorrow among a large circle of friends and acquaintances in Winchester and vicinity and also in Hampshire county, W. Va., where he was born and reared. He was identified with many interests here, a man of uncompromising integrity and faithful to every trust, and very popular in every circle in which he moved. Mr. Slonaker was a member of one of the oldest families of

Hampshire county, and he was born about three miles from Capon Bridge, then in Virginia, June 21, 1855, the son of David and Margaret Slonaker. They were from pioneer families in that region, and were among the most substantial people of Hampshire County. Mr. Slonaker grew up on his father's farm, and also worked in his flour mill near Capon Bridge. He served eight years in the office of sheriff of Hampshire county, having been elected on the Democratic ticket. After his term of office expired Mr. Slonaker and his family moved to Winchester. He acquired the coal business of the Miller Supply Company at the yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on the Northwestern Grade, and had been actively in charge of the business ever since, or until his health failed about a year ago. The firm operates under the name of A. C. Slonaker and Son. He was an intimate friend of former Gov. John J. Cornwell, of West Virginia, now chief counsel of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, and they frequently exchanged letters of a social character and maintained a friendship that had extended over a period of many years. Mr. Slonaker was a member of various Masonic societies of Winchester and a past presiding officer of all local branches. He was past worshipful master of Winchester Hiram Lodge, No. 21, Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons; past high priest of John Dove Chapter, No. 21, Royal Arch Masons, and past eminent commander of Winchester Commandery, No. 12, Knights Templar. He also was a member of Acca Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, of Richmond, and a charter member of the new Winchester Shrine Club. He had been chaplain of Hiram Lodge for some years. He was also a ruling elder of the Presbyterian Church, a trustee of Hiram Lodge of Masons, a charter member of the Rotary Club and actively identified with Madison Lodge, No. 6, Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He was one of the organizers of the Commercial and Savings Bank of Winchester and had been a member of its board of directors since its organization. . . . Mr. Slonaker is survived by his widow, who was formerly Miss Elizabeth B. Hott, a daughter of George and Elizabeth Hott, of Forks of Capon, W. Va.; two daughters, Misses Irene and Cornelia Slonaker, and two sons, R. Bruce and Daily R. Slonaker, all of this city. He leaves also one brother, James W. D. Slonaker, of North Avenue."

A few excerpts from a tribute by the Handley (Library) Board of Winchester, published in the Winchester Evening Star July 3, 1928 will further show the character of this man. "An appreciation of this man after death should be as simple and truthful as he himself was in life. No parade of phrases could add much to the unadorned statement that he was a good man. He worshipped God without pretense of piety, and served this community without self seeking. He loved his family and was loyal to the state. He was fair to his fellows and just in his dealings with all men. He climbed to material success with independent industry, but he made no mean use of the men he met on the way up. He loved his fellowman and liked to see him succeed. He mingled with men, took a prominent part in fraternal organizations, and realized that a useful man cannot live to himself alone. He was loyal to his friends and incapable of sacrificing them for his own advantage. He had strong common sense and exercised a balanced judgment. He thought as straight as he lived. He knew men and could tell the genuine from the spurious; he was not easily deceived. He was calm and clear in counsel and positive and dependable in action. He was slow to condemn and quick to appreciate his fellows. Not only did he refuse to bear false witness himself, but he did not like to listen to false witnesses. His just mind did not convict the accused on vagrant gossip. He had faith in God, faith in his government and faith in the capacity of men for good."

The foregoing shows the character of Adam C. Slonaker and the esteem in which he was held by his fellow townsmen. A few years ago the writer had the pleasure of being entertained most royally by Mr. Slonaker and his family and learned to know them all personally. We feel that the statements made in the Press are not only wholly true, but could have been expressed more strongly without erring in any particular. Some years ago Mr. Slonaker had business in Omaha, Neb. He thought while he was that far west he would just run on out to California and see J. R. Slonaker with whom he had been corresponding. He probably did not realize he was but little over halfway from his home to San Francisco. He arrived in San Francisco in the morning, immediately took a train to Palo Alto (one hour's ride) and arrived while we were eating lunch. He had already eaten so could not be induced to eat more. After a short conversation he inquired about trains, saying he had to start back home that evening. Nothing I could say or do would change his plan. We made the most of the three hours we had together and when he left I felt that I had known him always even though this was our first personal contact. The news of his passing on was a great shock to me for I knew that his community had lost a very valuable citizen and I a very true and faithful friend.

as Parkeses Valley. Later he sold out and moved to Ohio. He was a small and shrewd man and could not hold his own in a physical combat. He once had trouble with a Mr. A, but knew he could not whip him but that Mr. B could, so one night when Mr. A had passed through B's place, George slyly followed and threw down the fences. B knew A had gone through so he thrashed him for the misdemeanor. So George got his revenge. George was the father of nine children, VI 1, etc. following:—

GROUP I B. GEORGE SLONAKER,

GENERATION IV.

IV 1. George Slonaker. Nothing is known that gives a clue to the ancestry of this man. The fact that the first known of Supplementary groups A and B both lived in the same locality and their descendants still reside in the same region strongly suggest a close relationship between these groups. Christopher Slonaker of Group A and George Slonaker of Group B were also of nearly the same age and could well have been brothers. If so they could have been the two unknown sons of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Slonaker. But we have found nothing to verify this assumption. George Adam was known to have a son George Adam who went by the second name. We have examples in the names of the children of the first Michael (one of the legendary brothers) where one of the given names has been used several times. For example, John Michael, John George, and John Jacob, but only one John, all found in the church records as sons of Michael Sr. This is also found in the children of Michael Jr. and others. The repetition of given names was a common practice in the early generations and though baptized with both names, they later in life used the second given name practically all the time. The George above could, therefore, have been a son of George Adam, so far as a repetition of given names is concerned. However, the records of the descendants of the other children of this first Michael are so incomplete that any guess might be far from true.

There is no question of a doubt that this group of descendants belongs to Group I, whose ancestors came to this country early in 1700. It is hoped some of the parties comprising this group may unearth some early record which will enable them to make authentic connection.

We have no record of the dates of birth or death of George Slonaker. He is reported to have married Elizabeth Hicks and to have had at least one son, V 1, following. No record of other children has been found.

Va., died June 15, 1933. News clipping, April 26, 1940: "Party planned for George W. Slonaker. Friends and relatives of George W.

Slonaker of near Capon Bridge, W. Va., will honor him on Sunday at a birthday dinner. It will be Mr. Slonaker's 98th birthday. Members of the family have extended an invitation to all of Mr. Slonaker's friends and relatives to attend." Another news clipping gives some of his history:

"Vet Nearing 100 Reports on Prison Fare of Another War." By C. G. Wilkins.

"So poorly fed and so hungry would George Washington Slonaker, now 98 years old, become at times while he was a Federal prisoner during the War Between the States, that he said stewed rat meat tasted good, and that he would often trade one meal a day of hard tack for a chew of tobacco. He ate rat meat not once but many times, he said, 'and it tasted all right.'

Mr. Slonaker, who celebrated his 98th birthday on April 27 (1940) last at his Park Hollow farm home several miles southwest of Capon Bridge, W. Va., reviewed many highlights of his life during the days of 1861-65 for the writer.

He continued to enjoy remarkable health. He stands six feet tall, his shoulders are square and the glint in his eyes reveals a keen interest in the affairs of this world even though he is nearing the century mark.

Mr. Slonaker is the son of the late George H. and Leah Barrett Slonaker, and he was born April 27, 1842, near Hook's Mill, several miles up the Capon River from Capon Bridge.

Enlisted at Romney. He was 20 years old when the War Between the States broke out in 1861. He enlisted in Company F, 33rd Virginia Regiment, commanded by Captain Sprandler, at Romney, then Virginia. This company belonged to General "Stonewall" Jackson's "foot cavalry" which made rapid forays and engaged in numerous battles up and down the Shenandoah Valley. Mr. Slonaker retains vivid recollections of those days. He says that he never shot a Federal soldier, and he feels quite happy over the thought as years go by. On one occasion, however, he pulled his trigger twice on a Union soldier, but each time the cartridge failed to explode. He was standing on the opposite side of a narrow road, in the vicinity of Kernstown, states Mr. Slonaker, and not over ten steps separated the two men during the skirmish. When he went back into the woods some 300 yards and pulled the trigger again, the cartridge exploded and was fired into a tree. Mr. Slonaker feels that it was to be that the gun did not explode when pointed directly at the Union soldier.

He remembers going over the mountains from Staunton to McDowell, but the battle was over when his troop arrived. He did see 74 Union soldiers, dead, laid out in a row before burial. One man of huge physique had long, red hair, he says.

He was at Chancellorsville, also, where "Stonewall" Jackson lost his life, but Mr. Slonaker did not take part in that momentous battle, being stationed in the rear.

Captured near home. Mr. Slonaker's capture by Federals was typical of his other war experiences. He was enroute home for a visit and met another soldier several miles from home (he did not say whether Federal or Confederate), who asked for his boots. Mr. Slonaker favored the man and took the stranger's old shoes in return. The next morning, he went to Spencer's tanyard (near what is now Millbrook, W. Va.) several miles from his home, to get leather for a new pair of boots for himself. He was a shoemaker by trade. There he was surprised by a band of Federal soldiers who placed him under arrest, and by a circuitous route took him to Fort Delaware, Del., where he was held prisoner for the remainder of the war. He was captured in the spring of 1863.

Mr. Slonaker says Fort Delaware was on a 19-acre island with the ocean on one side and the mainland not far distant. It was at Fort Delaware where they were scantily fed that he and fellow prisoners caught and ate rats for subsistence. He says that on one occasion, several men went around the fort where the rats had dug through the fort banks and allowed water to enter, and caught 25 at one time. They cooked and ate part of them, and sold the others, he says.

Traded Tobacco for Hardtack. It was almost a daily occurrence to trade off one meal of hardtack for chewing tobacco, because he was generally more hungry after eating than before, and the tobacco lessened the gnawing pains of hunger.

After the war closed and he was released from prison, Mr. Slonaker returned to his mountain valley home and continued to farm his 160 acre farm and follow the shoemaker's trade. He made shoes for his family and eight children, and one of the prized possessions of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Carlyle, who lives with her father, are the old shoe lasts, bench and small kerosene lamp used by her father.

Mr. Slonaker has lived through a period of history filled with many and rapid changes. He was born while John Tyler, the tenth president, was in office. Twenty-two others have followed him in the White House; four major wars have been fought by the United States. The horse and buggy era has given way to the motor age of the automobile and flying machine.

Through it all has come Mr. Slonaker, his equanimity undisturbed. He now enjoys his "second sight," excellent hearing and seemingly excellent health. He is probably Hampshire county's oldest citizen, her only surviving Confederate Veteran and possibly the oldest resident in the state of West Virginia.

Does Not Need Glasses. Mr. Slonaker's faculties are unusually keen. He reads his newspapers without glasses and keeps closely informed on events throughout the world. He walks with a cane, more as a precaution than as a necessity.

He has one hobby which he greatly enjoys — making friends with birds. One of his achievements is the taming of a wild partridge which now is an inseparable companion. The other day when the writer visited his home, Mr. Slonaker was taking his regular afternoon nap. The partridge had gone along to bed with him. When he arose shortly afterward, down came the partridge perched on his master's shoulder. The bird, named "Mary Ann" while still quite young, is a male. He chuckled and chirped in a rapid fire manner for the stranger, sat on his lap and walked around under his chair and on a nearby table.

Mr. Slonaker was married to the late Miss Almire V. Oglesbee of West Virginia. In addition to his daughter, Mrs. Carlyle, her husband and family, there are five other living children, Mrs. Dora Knee and John Slonaker, both of Strasburg; James and Carl Slonaker, both of Capon Bridge, and Mrs. Leathy Devers, Oakland, Md.

Over 100 relatives and friends from a wide radius came to greet Mr. Slonaker on his recent birthday."

GROUP I C. BURKHART SLONEKER, GENERATION V.

This man is reported to have moved from Pennsylvania to Virginia when a lad, or a young man. He settled in what is now the southern part of W. Va. This is quite remote, some 200 miles, from the region where Supplementary groups A and B lived. Since he spelled the surname differently and the regions of settlement so remote, it is very doubtful if there was any close relationship. What little we know concerning this man has been given by his grandson, Samuel S. Sloneker of Plainview, Texas. He states that Burkhart was born in Pennsylvania and that his ancestors came from Holland. After the death of his father he ran away from an older brother and settled in what is now known as W. Va. The names of his older brother, other brothers and sisters, or of his father were not given. Since his first child was born near Sinks Grove, W. Va., it is reasonable to conclude this was where he settled. About 1855 he moved to Texas where he spent the remainder of his life. He had a large family.

The fact that he is reported to have been born in Washington Co., Pa. is sufficient proof of his connection to Group I. This county is in the extreme western part of Pennsylvania and borders on West Virginia near Wheeling. It lies just southwest of Pittsburg, Pa. Many of the descendants of Michael Slonaker (born 1764, son of Michael Sr. of Group I) lived in the area surrounding Pittsburg and Burkhart may have been a close relative. The dates of birth of this Michael's children would indicate that Burkhart may have been a son. This is the only suggestion we can give as to his possible ancestry.

GROUP I D. JOHN SLONAKER, GENERATION V.

There have been no reports from descendants of this man which give any clue concerning his ancestry. In the records of the descendants of Michael Sr., one of the supposed four brothers, we find three Johns whose records of descendants are wholly lacking. These are:—

1. John Slonaker, born Oct. 5, 1773, generation IV, son of John and Catharine (Schmidt) Slonaker, and grandson of Michael Sr. and 2d wife. This John would probably have married about 1790-1795 and his first child would have been born soon after.

2. John Slonaker, born Oct. 13, 1792, generation V, first child of George Adam and Elizabeth (Welsh) Slonaker, grandson of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Slonaker, and great grandson of Michael Sr. and first wife. He would likely have married about 1814 and his first child would have been born soon afterward. Many of the descendants of this George Adam spell the name Slonecker, but in his will George Adam spelled it Sloneker.

3. John Slonaker, dates of birth and death unknown, generation V, the first child of George Adam (born 1773) and Sarah (Krause) Slonaker, grandson of John and Catharine (Schmidt) Slonaker, and great grandson of Michael Sr. and 2d wife. The later children of this George Adam were born 1793, 1797, 1805, 1806, 1808. This John, if the first child, would therefore have been born about 1790 and would have been married about 1814.

Since the first child of the ancestor (John) of this group of descendants was born 1816, very suggestive evidence is presented to show that this ancestor and either the 3d John (son of George Adam and Sarah (Krause) Slonaker), or the 2d John (son of George Adam and Elizabeth (Welsh) Slonaker) were the same person. The dates of birth of the children of our subject would clearly eliminate John No. 1 above. The spelling of the surname tends to eliminate John No. 2. If this reasoning is valid it appears that our subject belongs to generation V. This conclusion as to generation V is also supported by the dates of birth of his descendants. While the above facts strongly suggest where this group could easily fit onto the large group of Michael Sr.'s descendants, the records are too inadequate to make a positive assertion. Some of the descendants may have positive evidence which will enable them to make the right connection, for there is no doubt that the ancestors of these descendants belong to the first group of Slonakers who came to America early in 1700. Because of the uncertainty of the connection this group is presented as supplementary group D of group 1.

V ?. John Slonaker. We have no record of the dates of his birth, death, or marriage, nor to whom he was married. It is reoprted that he was a son of John and had a brother by the name of Jacob. One of the children of George Adam and Sarah (Krause) Slonaker was Jacob, born Feb. 7, 1818, died July 12, 1887, and this John is reported to have had a son, Jacob, born Sept. 7, 1818 and died April 12, 1899. This may be some help in making the connection. John is reported to have had at least four sons, whose correct genealogical order I may not have right because of lack of dates of birth. They were VI 1, etc. following:—

VI 1. Andrew Slonaker, born Oct. 16, 1816, died Feb. 22, 1901, married July 12, 1843 to Amanda Stouffer, born Feb. 15, 1826, died Feb. 10, 1909. They had seven children, VII 1, etc. following:—

GROUP I E. JACOB SLONAKER,

GENERATION V.

The descendants of this man have given no information concerning his ancestry. It is clearly evident that he was a descendant of the first Slonakers who arrived in America early in 1700. The custom of a given name being passed on from father to son, grandson, etc. leads to an examination of the records of the descendants of Michael Sr. for a Jacob who might be an ancestor of this Jacob.

We find there were four Jacobs, all descendants from Michael Sr., whose records are wholly lacking or incomplete. These are:—

1. Jacob Slonaker, born March 16, 1755, generation III, 11th child of Michael Sr. and 2d wife. He was baptized 1755 as John Jacob. His record is completely lacking. From the fact that he was not confirmed in the New Hanover church in which he was baptized, leads one to conclude that he had moved to another region. He could have been the ancestor of our subject. We have no authentic proof and is given as a mere suggestion.

2. Jacob Slonaker, born March 23, 1768, generation IV, 10th child of Michael Jr. and Anna Maria (Heilig) Slonaker, and grandson of Michael Sr. This Jacob was baptized 1768 and confirmed 1784 in his 16th year in the New Hanover Lutheran church. The church records also give two of his children: 1. George, born Feb. 25, 1797, and 2. Elizabeth, born May 27, 1898. There is a rumor that there was also a son, Jacob. These children would belong to generation V. We have no further authentic record.

3. Jacob Slonaker, date of birth not known (about 1765), generation IV, 6th child of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Slonaker, and grandson of Michael Sr. This Jacob is reported to have not married. If true it would eliminate him as an ancestor of this group.

4. Jacob Slonaker, born Feb. 7, 1818, generation V, 10th child of George Adam and Elizabeth (Welsh) Slonaker, grandson of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Slonaker, and great grandson of Michael Sr. and 1st wife. The date of birth would suggest this man could have been the father of our subject. But he is eliminated by the report that he was not married, that he went to California during the gold rush and got enough gold to enable him, when he returned home, to pay off the mortgage on the home farm where he lived with a maiden sister, Christina, the rest of his life.

If the rumor that Jacob No. 2 had a son, Jacob, is true, this seems the most logical place to attach this group of descendants to those of Michael Sr. But we have no proof that this reported son, Jacob, and the ancestor of this group were the same man even though the suggestion is very strong.

The suggestions given may help the descendants to establish an earlier ancestry and possibly to connect them with the large group headed by Michael Sr.

Another point which may be of use is that most of the descendants of this group live in West Virginia in the vicinity and south of Wheeling, W. Va.

GROUP I F. GEORGE ALEC SLONAKER, GENERATION V.

None of the descendants of this man, who have been contacted, know who his parents were. A granddaughter, Mrs. Susan Barbara (Slonaker) Miller of Telford, Tenn., says her father's people lived about 20 or 30 miles from Bedford, Pa. Her father was Jacob Weaver Slonaker. A grandson, Charles E. Slonaker, says his grandfather, Jacob Weaver Slonaker, came from Bedford, Pa. to Tennessee soon after the war. He further states that one of his aunts told him that none of them spoke German in her father's family.

George Alec Slonaker is reported to have lived and died at Alumbank, Pa., a small place about 30 miles northwest of Bedford. He evidently was a descendant of the pioneer Slonakers who came over early in 1700 and comprised Group I. He may be a descendant of Michael Sr., but we have no proof. There was a large family of ten children. With the exception of his son, Jacob Weaver, most of his descendants live in Pennsylvania, many in the neighborhood of Alumbank, Pa.

We are unable to make any suggestions regarding possible connections of this group to the other Slonakers of Group I.

V ?. George Alec (Alexander?) Slonaker, born Feb. 8, 1797, died Feb. 28, 1875 age 78 yr., 20 days, at Alumbank, Pa., married Nancy Goodwin, born 1797, died Jan. 18, 1880 age 83. George C. Beisel, a great grandson, says he was born Feb. 8, 1779. If the age at death is correct the year should be 1797. They had ten children, VI 1, etc. following:—

VI 1. Margaret (Slonaker) Forman, born August 1, 1819, died 1865, married Adam Forman. No record.

A daughter, Emma Jane, gives date of her father's birth Feb. 6, 1823, but if the age at death is correct it should be as given above. Another daughter, Susan Barbara, gives date of her mother's death July 30, 1891. He moved from near Bedford, Pa. to Tennessee soon after the War of Rebellion as indicated by reports and the dates and places of birth of his children. "Sister of lost Cox children is called by death. Mrs. Samuel Brown, 78, dies at home in Pleasantville, after stroke. Pleasantville, Feb. 14. Mrs. Anna Josephine (Cox) Brown, age 78, widow of Samuel Brown, and a sister of the Cox children, known as the Lost Children of the Alleghenies, died yesterday at her home here, following a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Brown was stricken three weeks ago and had been in a serious condition until death occurred.

"She was born August 12, 1854, near Pavia, a daughter of Samuel and Susanna (Slonaker) Cox, both deceased. When two years of age her two brothers, George, aged seven, and Joseph, aged five, wandered away from the Cox home in Spruce Hollow. Fourteen days later the brothers were found dead under a large tree in a ravine.

"Although an intensive search was instituted for the missing Cox children, the dream of Jacob Dibert, a resident of that section, is said to have led searchers to the place where the bodies were discovered. A monument is erected at the spot where the children were found and a memorial service is held there each year.

"Mrs. Brown's husband passed away here 15 years ago. She is survived by a brother, Samuel Cox, of Johnstown, and two sisters, Mrs. Amos Edwards, of Alum Bank, and Mrs. Sarah Daugherty, of Johnstown.

GROUP I G. DAVID SLONAKER,

GENERATION V.

No information concerning the ancestry of David Slonaker has been received from any of the descendants in this group. Neither have we been able to find a possible connection, or offer a suggestion regarding his relationship to the other Slonakers. There is no doubt that his ancestors belong to Group I, the first Slonaker immigration early in 1700. Judging from the date of his birth David belongs to either generation V or VI. But taking the dates of birth of the descendants into consideration it appears that he should be definitely placed in generation V.

The dates of birth of David (Group I G), Jacob (Group I E), John (Group I D), George A. (Group I F) and William (Group I J) strongly suggest that they may have been brothers, but there is no proof at hand to substantiate this assumption. Descendants may be able to trace farther back in the ancestry and establish relationships which are at present unknown.

felter, was elected teacher of the Glen Rock Second intermediate school at the monthly meeting of the school board Tuesday night. She will succeed C. Jacob G. Slonaker, supervising prohibition enforcement officer at Philadelphia, told of a case where the authorities were informed a certain vessel would attempt to discharge an illicit cargo at a given place and time. GROUP I H. DAVID ELLSWORTH SLONAKER, GENERATION VI.

Even though this man died March 1900 and apparently belongs to Generation VI (which includes a number of living representatives in other lines of descent) his descendants know very little concerning his ancestry. He is reported to have been born and to have lived near Bowerston, Harrison Co., Ohio, a locality about 35 miles northwest of Wheeling, W. Va. This suggests a close relationship with the Slonakers of Pennsylvania and would place him definitely in Group I.

Mrs. Francis B. Slonaker (nee Olivia Owen) of Summit Station, Ohio says they know little concerning the ancestry, but had often been told that Slonaker was an adopted name. If this is true it is possible that the members of this group may not be true Slonaker descendants. She also mentions two great aunts, Mrs. Lulu Von Boston and Mrs. Laura Cockran, both of Colorado Springs, Colo., who would be daughters of David Ellsworth. Mrs. Mary Jane (Slonaker) Palmer of Bowerston, Ohio, a granddaughter of David, says her grandfather had no brothers or sisters. If this is true the following suggestion as to possible connections would be erroneous. However it may be of value regardless of apparent contraditions.

In Group I G we have a David Slonaker, son of David and Julia Ann (Harner) Slonaker, whose record is completely lacking. He was born about 1834 and belonged to generation VI. We know nothing of this David except that he was reported deceased. This David belonged to a family of twelve children all of whom were born near Gettysburg, Adams Co., Pa. If it were not for the statements that the ancestor of this group was born near Bowerston, Ohio and was an only child, this suggested connection would be a reasonable one.

Another David, belonging to generation VI whose record is completely lacking, might be the David of this group. He was one of a family of nine children whose father was William (Group I J) and lived in Adams Co., Pa., near Gettysburg. The date of his birth is not known, but he is reported to have moved to Ohio and lost track of by his brothers and sisters.

Owing to lack of cooperation and response to requests for information by some of the descendants of David Ellsworth, some dates of birth and complete records are not available. Therefore the names of his children may not be arranged in their chronological order. Neither are we sure the list we present comprises all the children.

VI ?. David Ellsworth Slonaker, born near Bowerston, Ohio, died March 1900 near Bowerston, Ohio, married Sarah Jane Roby, born near Bowerston? or Leesville?, Ohio, died August 1925 at Columbus, Ohio. Four children have been reported, VII 1, etc. following:—

GROUP I J. WILLIAM SLONAKER, GENERATION V.

None of the descendants of this group have given the name of the father of William. There is a rumor, which is partly substantiated, that his father was John, but this has not been definitely affirmed. If John was the father then there are three Johns, whose records have not been ascertained, who could be considered as the possible ancestor. Each of these are descendants of Michael Sr. of Group I. They are:—

1. John, generation IV, born 1773, son of John and Catherine (Schmidt) Slonaker and grandson of Michael Sr. and 2d wife, Eva Filicitas (Wister) Schlonecker.

2. John, generation V, born about 1790, son of George Adam and Sarah (Krause) Slonaker, grandson of John and Catherine (Schmidt) Slonaker, and great grandson of Michael Sr. and Eva Filicitas (Wister) Schlonecker.

3. John, generation V, born 1792, son of George Adam and Elizabeth (Welsh) Slonaker, grandson of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Slonaker and great grandson of Michael Sr. and Eva Filicitas (Wister) Schlonecker.

Since the date of birth of William was 1802 this would conclusively eliminate the last two Johns as they would be only about ten years old at this date. Therefore, if the father of William was John, we have a fairly clear connection with Group I.

Judging from the regions in which they lived and from the dates of birth one is led to surmise that the following persons were brothers: William, born 1802, generation V, Group I J; David, born 1806, generation V, Group I G; and John, born 1819, generation V, Group I K. This is partly corroborated by John Edgar Slonaker of Hughesville, Pa., a descendant of John, Group I K. He says his great great grandfather came from Germany and settled in Berks Co., Pa. Later he moved to near Hughesville, Lycoming Co., Pa. and raised a large family. He further says that John (evidently his great grandfather) had eight children; William, Henry, John (his grandfather), Rebecca, Elizabeth, and three whose names are unknown. One of these unknown might have been David (Group I G).

Because of the lack of complete verification of this surmised brother relationship we have chosen to present the records of the descendants of these possible brothers under separate headings and leave to the descendants who have more information the task of tracing the ancestry farther back.

The records of the descendants of William are far from complete. He is reported to have married twice. The number of children born varies with different sources of information from six to nine. Henry C. Slonaker, a grandson, (son of John), says there were three boys, (John, Jerry, George), and three girls (Lydia, Sarah, Kate). Mrs. Clara Slonaker (widow of George, the son) York, Pa. adds two more girls, Mary and Eliza, who, she says, were sisters of her husband. Then we have word from Charles E. Slonaker of Bloomington, Ill. stating that his father, Jerry, had a half-brother, David, who lived in Ohio, and a half-sister (name not given) who lived in York, Pa. Mrs. Clara Slonaker also mentions David, but says he lived in Frizelburg, Md. These reports indicate that William had at least nine children. It is quite possible those mentioned by Henry C. might belong to the 1st marriage and the others to the 2d marriage, but proof is lacking. Owing to lack of dates of birth of most of these children a chronological order of their names cannot be given.

Aaron H. Slonaker of Anselma, Pa. wrote some years ago that there was a grave stone in Pikeland cemetery which bears this inscription:— "William Slonaker, Aged 40, Died Oct. 26, 1866." This cannot apply to the William of this group because he did not die until 1889 and in 1866 would have been 64 years old instead of 40. Furthermore Mrs. Clara Slonaker says that William, her husband's father, was buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, York, Pa.

V ?. William Slonaker, born Dec. 28, 1802 (1805?) at New Chester, Pa., died August 14, 1889 at York, Pa., buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, York, Pa. Married twice, 1st to Margaret Cashman, born 1838?, died age 68, married 2d. to Leah Albrigh. Nine children by the two marriages, VI 1, etc. following:—

VI 1. John Slonaker, born Jan. 15, 1836 at Emmetsburg, Md., lived and died at York, Pa., 1904 age 68, married to Elizabeth Kissinger, born April 7, 1836 at Shrewsbury, Pa., died 1906 at York, Pa. According to his son, Henry C., he served in the Civil War and was for some time a prisoner in the famous Libby Prison. He died at York, Pa., at the age of 68 in 1904. His son, Henry C., says there were four children. A granddaughter, Sarah Isabelle Slonaker, gives five children, VII 1, etc. following:—

VII 1. William Martin Slonaker, born Sept. 4, 1857 at

York, Pa., married May 1876 to Mary Ann Butcher, born 1855 at York, Pa., died May 14, 1890 at York, Pa. William left York about 1910 and his people have not heard from him since. There were six children, VIII 1, etc. following:—

VIII 2. John William Henry Slonaker, 1104 Bellevue Ave., Laureldale, Pa., born March 22, 1878 at York, Pa., married March 28, 1901 to Sarah Catherine Schaffer, born Oct. 6, 1877 at Reading, Pa. Seven children, IX 1, etc. following:—

Mr. Slonaker has been associated with the Illinois Central Railroad for a number of years and is their agent at Bloomington, Ill. He has been a most willing helper in getting the records of this group as complete as they are and the compiler is greatly indebted to him for his valuable assistance. From the Monday, April 10, 1939 issue of the Bloomington Daily Pantagraph we quote the following:—

"C. E. Slonaker dies at Easter Morn Service. Retired in 1937 after 25 years as I. C. Agent, C. E. Slonaker, a man '71 years young', died Sunday morning as he probably would have wished, among the young people of the First and Grace Methodist Episcopal churches, circles in which he always was welcomed despite his age.

"His death came near the close of the Easter sunrise service held in the chapel of the Beck memorial home by the Epworth leagues of the two churches.

"He had asked Saturday night if they 'didn't think maybe he was young enough' to take part in the service Sunday morning and was told 'sure'. So he joined the group and sat down in a seat near the rear of the chapel.

"The service started at 6:30 a. m. It was about 7:15 when Miss Marian DePew and another girl seated behind him, noticed his head bent forward and thought he was drowsy from having arisen so early. A moment later his head fell backward. Miss DePew motioned to her brother, James, and several of the young people sought to awaken him.

"The expression on his face convinced them something was wrong. In a moment several of the boys carried him from the room. Dr. O. M. Rhoades was called, while the service proceeded, with those in the front of the room unaware of what had happened. The doctor pronounced Mr. Slonaker dead.

"A verdict of death from myocarditis, a heart ailment, was returned Monday afternoon at an inquest conducted by Coroner Leo Hemmele.

"The funeral service is to be held at the Beck chapel at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, with Dr. Loyal M. Thompson, First Methodist pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Park Hill cemetery. Friends may call at the chapel in the meantime.

"Mr. Slonaker, who resided at 405 Leland avenue, had been an employee of the Illinois Central railroad 37 years. He retired Sept. 1, 1937, after 25 years as the company's chief agent here. He has been a railway employe 45 years.

"He was born April 16, 1867 at Newville, Pa., son of Jeremiah and Margaret Slonaker. He married Miss Marguerite Cawthorne Sept. 20, 1892, and came to Bloomington May 20, 1912.

"Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Bunnell of Richmond, Ind.; two sisters, Mrs. Frank Schroeder and Mrs. Frank Major, both of Warrensburg, and a brother, John, also of Warrensburg.

"He was a member of the First Methodist church and of the Sons of Union Veterans."

GROUP I K. JOHN SLONAKER,
GENERATION V.

The given name of the ancestor of this man has not been definitely ascertained. It is stated by John Edgar Slonaker of Hughesville, Pa., son of Oliver H. and grandson of this ancestor, that his great great grandfather came from Germany and settled in Berks Co., Pa. He subsequently moved to Lycoming, Co., Pa., where he reared a large family. If this early ancestor came from Germany he must have been one of the four legendary brothers who arrived in America prior to 1727, for after this date all ship captains were required to furnish a list of their passengers and we have found no further Slonaker arrivals until the next century. This definitely connects this isolated group (K) to Group I, or the first immigration.

John Edgar Slonaker also says that John (evidently his great grandfather) had a family of eight children:— William, Henry, John (his grandfather), Rebecca, Eliza and three whose names are unknown. If this is true then John would be the father of John, the ancestor of this group. It would also confirm that William (Group I-J) and this John (Group I-K) were brothers.

In dealing with the genealogy of William (Group I-J) we gave a possible connection to show that he could be a descendant of Michael Sr., one of the supposed four brothers. It was through John, generation IV, b. 1773, son of John and Catherine (Schmidt) Schlonecker, and grandson of Michael Sr. and Eva Filicitas (Wister) Schlonecker. Since William and John of this group were apparently brothers, the same connection could be made by the descendants of this group. This seems a reasonable conclusion to make, but we have found no authentic proof of this connection. The descendants may be able to establish a definite relationship.

Owing to the death of most of the older members of this group we have been unable to give much of the personal history of this John. The most authentic and complete resume of him has been given in a letter from his son, Harvey John Slonaker of Gobleville, Mich., under date of February 23, 1921 which reads as follows:—

"Here is my Father's history so far as I know it. My Father (John Slonaker) was born in Pa. July 26, 1819. I do not know his Father's or Mother's given name. I think he (grandfather) was a tavern keeper. Grandfather Slonaker bound out my father (John Slonaker) to a man in the vicinity of Jerseytown, Pa. Father was from 4 to 6 years old when he was bound out. The papers were made out in German. I have seen them, but in his moving around he lost them. Father had a hard time in his boyhood. Kicked from pillar to post. Never had much of this world's goods, but had laid up treasures in Heaven. He had a character and reputation equal to the best. He was a blacksmith by trade. When a young man belonged to a cavalry troop in Hughesville, Pa. I have heard him speak of two brothers, William and Henry (in Ohio), and of two sisters, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Crotzer of Pa. Father said the last time he saw his father was when he took him to be bound out and when it was time for grandfather to start for home, of course my father, knowing nothing of what had been done, wanted to go home with his father. Father said he took him across his knee and spanked him and told him to stay there. Can you think of anything more inhumane? Father had but little education, but enough to carry on blacksmithing. Sometimes he had three or four men under him. He held the most important Township offices in Moreland Township, Lycoming Co., Pa. and was honorable and upright in all his dealings. Belonged to the Lutheran Church and was the S.S. Superintendent. If you could find Will Slonaker, son of Henry Slonaker, my father's brother, he could give you more information than I can. Last I heard of him he was in Franklin, Pa. many years ago. Write to Torrence Marshall of Williamsport, Pa."

(Signed) "Harvey John Slonaker."

(Both Will Slonaker and Torrence Marshall were written, but they failed to reply.)

GROUP I L. LEMUEL SLONAKER, GENERATION VII.

All we know concerning this man has been furnished by his two children. His son, Harry, says that his father died while he was in his infancy. The year of his father's death was not given, but it must have been early in the nineties as Harry was born in 1889. Lemuel was born at Altoona, Pa., Dec. 28, ———. The year of his birth is unknown. He left his home in Pennsylvania when a boy to join the U. S. army during the Civil War in which he served as bugler. At the close of the war he did not return to Pa., but settled in the state of Illinois where he died in a soldiers' home. He was twenty years older than his wife. Lemuel was very reticent regarding his relatives, his ancestors and his former home in Pennsylvania thus leaving little for his children to pass on. The name of Lemuel's father is not known, but the maiden name of his mother is given as Millie Izenberg who died many years ago in Altoona, Pa. Nothing is known concerning his brothers and sisters if he had any. In all the descendants we have contacted, numbering many thousands, we have found the given name of Lemuel but one other time and this man was born in 1868 and lives at Jones Springs, W. Va. As near as we can determine Lemuel belongs to generation VII.

VII ?. Lemuel Slonaker, born Dec. 28, ——— at Altoona, Pa., married Nannie L. (Floyd) McDowell, born Jan. 1, 1859 at Tamalco, Ill., died Feb. 14, 1931. Two children, VIII 1, etc. following:—

VIII 2. Harry Rueben Slonaker, 1132 Woodmere Ave., Detroit, Mich., born March 4, 1889 at Greenville, Ill., married June 21, 1928 to Bell Pagan, born Dec. 15, 1888. No children reported.

GROUP I M. FREDERICK SCHLONECKER, GENERATION III.

The date of birth of this man has not been ascertained, but from certain historical documents it would likely be about 1745. We have no knowledge of who his parents were. He apparently did not belong to the New Hanover church congregation as we find but one mention of him in the records of this church.

Friederick Schlonecker and Catharina were sponsors Nov. 6, 1771 at the baptism of Johannes Schlonecker, son of George Adam and Frederica Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Schlonecker (41). It is presumed that he was married and the given name of his wife was Catharina. We have found no mention of him in the many other church records we have examined. Since Johannes, whom he sponsored, belonged to generation IV, Frederick most likely belonged to generation III. If so his father may have been one of the four legendary brothers who came to America early in 1700. Since he was not mentioned as a son of Michael Sr., whose record is quite complete in the New Hanover church records, it gives credence to the four brother rumor. If true then his father would be John, Henry, or Jacob, who were the remaining four brothers.

We find in Caveat Book No. 3, of the Land Office, under date of Feb. 22, 1768 the following:— "Frederick Schlencker enters a Caveat against the Acceptance of a Survey for George Garlack als. Gerlinger on his Application No. 3078 for a Tract of Land in Greenwich Town'p, Berks County. The said Schlencker Alledging that he Claims this land under an Improvement Right. The last Monday in March Next is Appointed to hear the Matter in Variance on this Caveat the Parties Concerned having due Notice. (signed) David Kennedy for James Tilghman, Sec'y. To John Lukens, Sur'gr Gen'l." (Capitals and spelling as in the original.) (132).

We also find this record of war service:— "Frederick Slouaker, Lieut. 2d Reg. Philadelphia Co. Pa., 1795." (133).

We find no further references to this man. In later generations we find the name Frederick used several times, but none of these persons could have been this man.

GROUP I N. DANIEL SLONIKER, GENERATION IV.

We have been unable to determine just where this group of descendants fits into the Slonaker history. For some time we thought they were more closely related to Groups II, and III than to Group I, but more recent investigation leads us to conclude they belong to the first immigration. This conclusion is supported by many of the descendants who say their ancestry were called Pennsylvania Dutch and moved from Pennsylvania to eastern Indiana where many of the descendants still reside. We have no record of any of the later immigration groups having made their home in Pennsylvania.

The authority for placing Daniel as the ancester of this group is Mrs. Ann Edgington, Muncie, Ind. (daughter of Jacob) who says her grandparents were Daniel and Susan Sloniker who came from Holland and settled, she thought, near Bloody Run, Pa. She gives the children of Daniel as George, John, Jacob and Joseph. Other descendants give also David as a son. There has been no mention of any daughters of Daniel. The statement that Daniel came from Holland is evidently incorrect as he was evidently born in this country and his ancestors came over early in 1700.

Some of the early history pertaining to this group was given by a grandson of Daniel, Jacob Martin Van Buren Sloniker of Wonewoc, Wis. (now deceased) in a letter written to me under date of March 29, 1921 which is here quoted:— "I will give you a little more history of my parents. My father, Joseph Sloniker, was an orphan. He married Lydia A. Ciscus in Pennsylvania, a daughter of Francis Ciscus and wife who came from some place in Germany. My father and family with my grandparents moved to Delaware Co., Ind., to a farm near Granvill, Ind., nine miles from Muncie, Ind. I was quite small when we came from Penn. At the age of 18 I enlisted in the Army in the 84th Reg. Ind. Vol. Inf., Co. B. At the latter part of the war I was transferred to the 57th Ind. Co. K, and was discharged at the end of the war. April 15, 1866 I was married to Elizabeth Snider who came from Austria with her parents in 1859. I came with my wife to Sauk Co., Wis. town of Woodland and cleared a farm of heavy timber and we raised a family of 9 boys and 3 girls. In 1899 we moved to Wonewoc, Wis. where we have lived for 21 years.

"Our children are all married and have families of their own. My oldest girl, Lydia A. Hutchens, is a school teacher and has taught school since she was 17 years old. Francis taught school for a few years then went into the Indian Service at Keshena, Wis. The youngest boy is a manual training teacher in Hesperus, Colo. I recollect the time you were in Elroy, but did not get to see you when there. My daughter, Florence E. Dake, was here to see us and I gave her about all the history of our family. (sig.) J. M. V. Sloniker."

This same party also says he had four uncles, George, Daniel, David, and Jacob. These, including his father Joseph, substantiate the names of the sons of Daniel already given.

It seems fairly well established that Daniel was the ancestor of this group, but we have no clue as to his ancestry. That he was born and lived for some time in Pennsylvania at a time prior to the immigration of the later groups of Slonakers places him and his descendants definitely in Group I whose ancestry came to America early in 1700. We have the records of a Daniel who married Susannah Loose, but the date of his birth would make him a contemporary of the sons of this Daniel.

There were two sons of George Adam and Dorothy Barbara (Wister) Schlonecker whose names and records have never been gotten. This Daniel may have been one of these sons, but we have no proof for this surmise. Some of the descendants may be able to establish a connection to the other descendants of Group I. There is no doubt that a connection could be made if all the data were available.

In the introductory remarks concerning this unconnected group of descendants of Daniel and Susan Sloniker we have quoted a letter received from him in 1921. This gives some interesting history which will be of value to his descendants.

Through the kindness of Frank Sloniker, his son, we received a translated copy of the certificate of baptism of his mother. It reads as follows:—

"The undersigned herewith testifies in accordance with the parish register of the village of Tschemin, Vo. VII, fol. 234, 24, that Theresia, catholic and a legitimate daughter of George Schneidervind journeyman mason of Tschemin and his wife Anna Kubick of Tschemin, U.C. 25, both of catholic faith, was born April 12th, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine (1849) in the village of Tschemin U.C. 25, formerly the Estate Tschemin, now District Court Tuschkan, County Town Pilsen, was baptized on the same day in the local parish church of St. John the Baptist, by the local chaplain, the Rev. Joseph Leopold, according to the christian rites of the Catholic church, whereby Wenzel Walter, a farmer of Kosolup, and his wife Theresia were sponsors. The licensed midwife was Margaret Kereffel of Tuschkan. In witness whereof the undersigned affixes his hand and the Parish seal. Parish Tuschkan, Feb. 13, 1854, John Eidkung, Pastor."

A good account of the life of this man is given by his daughter Floy May (Sloniker) Horn, in an account of the celebration of their golden wedding which follows:—

"Notable Golden Wedding"

"On March 29, 1916, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sloniker of Wonewoc, Wis. celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

"J. M. V. Sloniker was born in Huntington Co., Penn. June 21, 1845 of Dutch parentage. His parents moved to Delaware Co., Ind. where he grew to manhood. When our country was in danger, and called for volunteers, he offered his services to his country and enlisted Dec. 12, 1863, Co. B, 84th Ind. Vol. He was afterwards transferred to Co. K, 57th Ind. Army of the Cumberland, 4th Corps. He participated in nine battles during his service, became very sick of typhoid fever, was discharged Sept. 1, 1865, when he returned to his former home where he met his bride to be, Elizabeth Snider, whose parents lived on an adjoining farm. He then came to Sauk Co., Wis., where he purchased some wild land, then returned to Indiana.

"Elizabeth Snider was born in Austria April 12, 1849. When but four years old her parents came to America and settled at Cincinnati, Ohio, where they lived for some time. Later they moved to Granville, Ind. where she grew to womanhood, and was married to J. M. V. Sloniker April 15, 1866. In the fall of 1866 they traveled in a covered wagon to their Wisconsin home. They lived on the Adam Feight farm until they erected a log house on their own land where they lived happily and cleared up their farm and reared their family. Then they built a new frame house and lived in it until the summer of 1900. Then they built them a modern house in Wonewoc, Wis. where they moved that their children might have the advantages of a good school.

"They reared a family of nine sturdy sons and three daughters, who are all living and were all present except one son, Niles, who is foreman in an automobile factory in Toledo, Ohio. He was prevented from coming by the serious illness of his wife.

"There are thirty-six grandchildren, eleven of whom were present on this occasion. Those present were Mrs. L. A. Hutchens, Berkley, S. Dak., teacher on the Rosebud Indian Reservation, and son Vere of the Wonewoc high school; Joseph S. Sloniker, wife, son Ross, two daughters, Floy and Mrs. Arnold Beyer and her husband, all of Greenwood, Wis.; Francis S. Sloniker, farmer at the Indiana School, wife and daughter Glarus of Keshena, Wis.; James H. Sloniker, farmer, wife and two daughters, Bernice and Mina, of Wonewoc, Wis.; George D. Sloniker, farmer, wife and son Rollo, of Lamberton, Minn.; Mrs. J. L. Toole whose husband is night editor of the Chicago Examiner; Jacob O. Sloniker, wife and two daughters, Irma and Arline, of Wonewoc, Wis. where they own a home; William L. Sloniker, of Curlew, Iowa, where he is a farmer; Mr. and Mrs. Walden Dake and daughter, Maxine, who own a modern home in Wonewoc, Wis.; Edward C. Sloniker and wife of Milwaukee, Wis, where he is employed by the Allis Chalmers Machine Co.; Merritt C. Sloniker of Wausau, Wis. where he is employed as manual training teacher in the public schools; Jacob S. Snyder, a brother, of Mankato, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snyder who live in Wonewoc, Wis.; Fremont Sloniker, a nephew of Albany, Ind. and his wife and daughter, Ruth.

"The decorations were green and gold. An immense wedding cake adorned the center of the table, on which were the dates 1866 - 1916, surrounded by fifty golden candlesticks into which were inserted tiny golden candles. The father, mother and children were all seated at the same table and the relatives at the other table. Each of the children presented their parents with a gold piece, in honor of the occasion, in all amounting to seventy dollars. The presentation speech was made by the youngest son, Merritt, and responded to by the father in well chosen words. Several others were called upon and many kind words were spoken to cheer the happy couple on life's journey. A beautiful dinner was served to which all did ample justice.

"Other gifts received were as follows: Jacob Snyder and wife, a linen table cloth and sofa pillows; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Snyder, a gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. Fremont Sloniker, a set of cuff buttons and a shirtwaist set. The day was spent in visiting, music and merry jest, calling up many reminscences of the childhood days at the old farm house. The photographer was called and many photos were taken, together and in groups, as souvenirs of the occasion. A lunch of cake and ice-cream was served in the evening, and so ended the ever to be remembered day, by all who were present.

"On this the Golden Wedding day
We all have come to share
Our pleasure and our happiness
And banish every care.
We meet around the family board
As in happy days of yore,
And may we all as years roll on
Meet on that Golden Shore."

GROUP I O. JACOB SLONAKER.

Another small group of descendants evidently belonging to the first immigration is reported to have Jacob as their ancestor. We have been unable to get replies from any of these descndants and, as a result, have no dates, deaths, marriages, etc. It is impossible, therefore, to state to which generation Jacob belonged, or to be sure that the names given are in chronological order. But judging from the descendants his generation would be about the fifth and we shall so consider it although we have no confirmatory evidence.

Most of the information concerning this group has been given by Mrs. Willson F. Schuler (nee Hannah Taggert) of 331 Main St., East Greenville, Pa., who is a granddaughter of George and Catherine (Fryer) Slonaker. One would suppose this Jacob would be rather closely related to her. We have a Jacob in Generation V who was a brother of her grandfather, but none of his children correspond with the names of the children of this Jacob as given by Mrs. Schuler.

Since we have been unable to get replies from any of the descendants in this group, all we can do is to give what little has been gathered in the hopes it may help others to complete the records and to properly place this group.

VII 2. Wilson Slonaker, said to be living at 2381 2d Ave., Phoenixville, Pa.

THE SECOND SLONAKER IMMIGRATION

The progenitor of this group was the Rev. John Schlunegger, born 1777 and died 1814 in Switzerland near the village of La Chaux de Fonds, in the Province of Neuchatel, a few miles from the French border. He was buried at Arna, a dorf three miles from Ebu, the home dorf.

In order to give as complete and accurate a history of this group as possible, frequent use has been made of the information given in "A Family Story" written and published in 1903 by Elmer Rufus Goldsmith (1870-1904), a great grandson of the Rev. John. It was through the kindness of Howard L. Sloneker of Hamilton, Ohio, a great grandson of the Rev. John, that the writer had the privilege of reading this interesting early history and to make extracts therefrom. This "Story" deals largely with his grandfather, John, a son of the Rev. John. This writer gives the following concerning the early history of this group:—

"Pity it is that we lack the means for securing the exact dates which would add so much to this narrative. We must content ourselves with the knowledge of the fact that the Sloneker family (the early name being Schlunegger) occupied the ancestral home in Switzerland from as remote a date as 1627, since which time the home has been in the possession of either a Sloneker or a relative. It goes without saying that these old ancestors of ours were God fearing men and women who knew no favor but right and whose conscience was their guide. They lived at a period when courage was required, a time that tried men's souls. All Europe was at war, and the scenes which our ancestors were compelled to be unwilling witnesses of, scenes of war, carnage and bloodshed, would make the blood of our American hearts run cold. It was amid such scenes as this the Reverend John Schlunegger . . . was born in Switzerland in 1777, near the village of La Chaux de Fonds. In early life be became a minister. The terrible reign of Napoleon followed and Switzerland became a part of France."

The Rev. John married Fanny Lichty. From this union six children were born, four boys and two girls. Their names were Peter, John, Christian, Jacob, Mary, and Barbara. Fanny Lichty, his wife, was born in France 1779 and died at Hamilton, Ohio in 1868.

"When grandfather was only five years of age his father died, in 1814, and was buried at Arna a dorf three miles from Ebu, the home dorf. After due widowhood his mother remarried, her second husband being John Ramseyer, his death taking place in Switzerland in 1818."

(From this union one child was born, Fanny Ramseyer. Though she was a half sister to the other children she was not a Slonaker descendant and will not be included in the history). "Adversity's hand having fallen so heavily upon the widowed mother, she started with her band of seven children, four boys and three girls, for the sea coast, and took voyage for the new land on March 14, 1824. The vessel was of the old sailing kind and was buffeted about for weeks, finally reaching New York after being on the water thirty-five days. Having heard of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, the family managed to reach there, going via stage and Philadelphia. It was while working on a farm near Lancaster in 1824 that grandfather had the pleasure of seeing the Marquis de Lafayette, who was then on his memorable visit to the United States."

"In 1825 the widow and her children again journeyed westward and settled in Butler County, Ohio, which was to be their home, as well as most of their descendants'. By the strictest industry and the most rigid economy the widow and her children were soon beyond dire want, and from thence forward all prospered. Grandfather remained at home until his marriage in June 1834. He received his naturalization papers in 1836, and was an uncompromising democrat from the start, casting his first vote for Van Buren in the presidential campaign of 1836. He has never missed a national since then, and very few local elections."

A large number of the descendants of this group are still living in the southern part of Ohio, though some have moved to more distant regions. Among these descendants we find the following spellings of the surname:—Schlonaker, Sloneker (most common), Schlunegger, Slonaker, Slonneger, Schluneger, Sloniger, Slonicker and Sloniker.

A picture of the ancestral home where the Rev. John Schlunegger was born in 1777 was sent me by Mrs. Gusta Lentz, Rockham, N. Dak. who also gave a description of it. The two story house with a large attic is 90 feet wide by 150 feet long. This place is called "Si la Badi" (on the meadow). The location is "Chatel de Valan Iron pre la Chaux de Fond, Canton de Neuchatel, Switzerland." The west side of the house is used for a stable and is separated from the rest of the house by a wall three feet thick. In this stable 4 horses, 30 cows, and 50 sheep are cared for during seven months of the year and feed is stored here to provid for them. The house is rectangular in shape and the numerous windows are provided with shutters. It is a very homey looking place and the neat yard is inclosed in a neat picket fence. It gives the impression that these ancestors took great pride in having their home attractive and comfortable.

There has been no information concerning the ancestry of the Rev.

John. We can therefore give no information concerning the relationship that may exist between this second group of immigrants and the first group which arrived in America a full century before. The great similarity of the original spelling of the surname strongly suggests a common ancestor many generations before. The difference in the spelling may have been due to the local environment in which they lived. Great modifications in simplification of the original spelling of the name have been found in both groups, so it is reasonable to conclude that changing of the spelling had previously existed. It is the opinion of the writer that these two groups are related and would trace back to a common ancestor if data were available. We do not know what part of the Palatinate Group I came from. It may have been from the southern part and not far from the region in Switzerland from which this second migration came.

Mr. Hiram Lyday Slonaker of the Boston Post, Boston, Mass., who has been a valuable co-worker in the compilation of this genealogy, has made an attempt to connect the Slonakers of America with those of Europe and to determine from what locality they emigrated. Though the results of his efforts were not very helpful, they are worth recording and preserving as they may be of assistance to some future genealogist.

A free translation of a letter to him from the War Department at Berne, Switzerland says (in part) "We have searched the National Swiss Bibliograph and find the names of Schleuniger (or Schleiniger) and Schliniger (or Schluniger) which resemble your name. The family of Schleuniger is originally from the Canton of Zurich and have lived since 1590 in the village of Klingnau, the Canton of Argovie (near the junction of the Aare and Rhine). Descendants still live there. The other family, Schliniger, lived in the village of Zurich since 1489. None living there now. For further information concerning these families we refer you to the State Civil Bureau of the Commune of Klingnau (Argovie), or the Central Bureau of Genealogy, National Bibliograph, at Berne to make research."

He also contacted Johann Schonecker in Munchen, whose father was Simon Schonaker, who says there was a Michael Schonecker who lived in Kleinreichertshofen between 1730 and 1740. Married and had four children: Vitus, Josef, Mathias and Frantz. The given names of these children are not found in the descendants in America which suggests there is no relationship.

Another letter was received from the secretary of the Reichswehrministerium, Berlin, which gives the following names that were most similar to Schlonecker. This list was taken from the German army roll:—Schonacker, Hullenhausen (Waarburg, Lothringen); Simon Schonacker, Waidhofen (Oberbayern); Johann Schonacker, Munchen; Schonacker, Westerbach bei Hubreith (Niederbayern); Schonach, Althann (Kr. Tahann. Elsass); Schonach, Oberwaldenburg (Schlesien); Schonach, Wengwies (Oberbayern); Schonach, Hagenau (Elsass); Schonacker, Nepersdorf bei Wismar (Mecklb. Schwerin). Schonacker, Munchen; Schonacker, Wandsbeck bei Hamburg; Sloneck, Leipzig; Schlonsack, Jagersdorf, Kr. Neidenburg (Ostpreussen); Slonecki, Gruta, Land Kreis Graudenz geburtig.

If these persons reported from abroad were related it shows again how different branches of a lineage may modify the original spelling of the name. It is very doubtful if any of these persons are related to the Slonakers of this country. No attempt has been made to follow an exhaustive research.

Judging from the date of birth of the Rev. John Schlunegger he would correspond, chronologically, with the fourth generation of Group I and should be so designated if we were dealing with foreign ancestorship. But, since we are concerned only with the generations since arriving in this country, we have designated him as Generation I, even though he died abroad. This has been done in order to more easily correlate the generations of the later immigrations with this second one. This may possibly lead to some confusion when comparisons are made with the first group, but the later groups are more closely related to each other than they are to Group I.

It seems very probable that the Rev. John was a brother of the Rev. Michael Schlunegger who was the ancestor of the third group of Slonaker immigrants. We have authentic record that Rev. Michael's parents were John and Barbara (Graber) Schlunegger who lived and died in Switzerland. We have no proof, however that these two men were brothers. There were also two daughters of record who were born about the same time and in the same region in Switzerland who might be sisters and trace back to the same parentage. They were Anna (Schlunegger) Jacky born 1768, and Jeanne (Schlunegger) Andre born 1787. Due to the evidence at hand we feel that the Rev. John, the Rev. Michael, Anna, and Jeanne should be considered as children of John and Barabara (Graber) Schlunegger even though there is no proof of such a relationship.

II 2. John Sloneker, 2d child of the Rev. John, born May 22, 1809 in Neuchatel in what is now Switzerland, died July 15, 1905 at Collinsville, Ohio, married June 2, 1834 to Barbara Schlatter, born April 19, 1810 in Neuchatel, Switzerland, died March 19, 1896 at Collinsville, Ohio.

An interesting account is given by Elmer Rufus Goldsmith, a grandson and the author of "A Family Story" from which we have so frequently quoted.

"Grandfather was born May 22, 1809 on French soil in the Canton of Neuchatel. This being what is now the western part of Switzerland, the inhabitants are, and always have been, practically French. After the downfall of Napoleon in 1815 the territory passed under the control of the Swiss again." He came to this country in 1824 at about the age of 15. After a short stay in Pennsylvania, he with his mother and brothers and sisters moved to Butler Co., Ohio, where he lived until his marriage June 2, 1834. He was naturalized in 1836 and cast his first vote for Van Buren in the fall of 1836.

"Grandmother's maiden name was Barbara Schlatter. She was born April 19, 1810, also in Neuchatel. Her father, John Schlatter, was a native of France. His ancestors, however, were Swiss, having lived at Farwange, in Canton Bern, at which place there was a large inheritance belonging to the Schlatters. Our grandparents tell us that failure to receive it was due to there being a difference of one letter in name. Catherine Ramseyer was the maiden name of Grandmother's mother. She was also a native of Neuchatel. She died in Butler Co., Ohio, in 1856. In common with many who sought to escape persecution, John Schlatter and family sailed for America March 19, 1832. Divine Providence decreed that the father should not see the promised land, death coming to him on shipboard, and amid the mournful funeral dirge the body was consigned to the angry waves. He was about sixty years of age. There was at that time the superstitious dread among sailors that unless dead bodies were at once thrown overboard whales would attack the vessel.

"Although Grandfather and Grandmother were natives of the same section of Europe, they were unacquainted until meeting in this land, both being residents of Butler County and members of the same church. Their marriage took place June 2, 1834, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Peter Nafzinger. They immediately went to housekeeping on the sixty-one acre farm which is now a part of the Fanny Unzicker farm. The old log house and barn, surrounded by cherry trees, were in existtence up to a few years ago, and were of great interest to children and grandchildren as being the place where grandparents spent the first fourteen years of their married life. . . . The home farm was occupied for thirty-three years, during which time Grandfather, with the assistance of his frugal and industrious wife and family, accumulated many acres of Butler County's good farming land. The last purchase of land he made was a small tract in Collinsville, where the erection of a large, handsome residence was begun, it being thought that the elders had reached the time of life when they should retire from active pursuits. In 1881 Grandfather and Grandmother and the unmarried children, Joseph and Catherine, moved to the new home at Collinsville. Here, in June 1884, was celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, all the members of the family, and many relatives and friends being present.

"Life was quietly lived at the Collinsville home until 1894, when Grandmother suffered a fall which injured one of her knees to the extent that she never afterward was able to walk. After having been in this condition for several years, she fell ill with pneumonia and passed away March 19, 1896, surrounded by her loved ones, and lacking just one month of being sixty-six years of age.

"Grandfather remained in the Collinsville home, with different occupants, until about one year before this narrative was written, when he very wisely went to live with his daughter, Catherine, at the old homestead.

"August 25, 1900. The annual pioneer picnic was held in Union County, Indiana. The secretary's published report of that important gathering contains these words: 'The committee on awards reported that John Sloneker, of Collinsville, Butler County, Ohio, was the oldest man present, he having been born May 22, 1809, in Switzerland, and was therefore ninety-one years, three months and three days old. Mr. Sloneker is well known in Hamilton and Butler county. He came to America in 1824 and has resided in Butler county upwards of seventy years. A remarkable coincident of his attending the meeting Saturday was the fact that he there met Delason Barnum, of Union County, Indiana, age 89 years, whom he had not seen since 1837, when Mr. Barnum contracted for and erected a frame barn for Mr. Sloneker on his farm near Collinsville. Another pioneer present was Isaac Moore, aged eighty-eight of Butler county, who assisted Mr. Barnum in building the barn for Mr. Sloneker. On account of the absence of Rev. H. D. Serrett, who was unavoidably detained on account of the funeral of one of his parishioners, the presentation address in presenting the gold-headed cane to Mr. Sloneker was delivered by Dr. H. D. Hinckley of Cincinnati.'

"Grandfather's remarkable faculty for recalling the minutest details of events that have transpired throughout his life, even to babyhood, is marvelous. His recollection of La Fayette's visit to America in 1825 is an example. Some few years ago the Daily Republican of Hamilton contained the description of his impressions when he saw La Fayette at Lancaster, Pennsylvania. Early in November, 1902, the Hamilton Sun published Grandfather's picture, and a lengthy article on his life. Truly he was one man among a thousand."

II 4. Jacob Schlunegger, 4th child of Rev. John, born May 22, 1813

in Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland, died May 11, 1880 at Sevenmile, Ohio. He was married twice. There are conflicting reports concerning the maiden name of the first wife. Stanley F. Sloneker, Sevenmile, Ohio, a grandson of Jacob, says the first wife was Lizzie Miller. Mrs. Amanda Bell (Kochendarger) Wright, East Woodrow Ave., Oxford, Ohio, a granddaughter, says the name was Elizabeth King (Koenig). This last statement is verified by Mrs. Christian Schlonaker, 104 Kinsey St., Richmond, Ind., who further states that when Jacob was a widower he went to Switzerland on a visit and on his return brought two women back with him. One, Lyda Schindler, he married and had a son, David, who lived at Trenton, Ohio. A brother of David lived at Sevenmile, Ohio. Christopher (Christian), a brother of Jacob, was a widower at the time and married the other woman, Susetta Schindler, who had accompanied Jacob on his return. The weight of evidence indicates Elizabeth King was the first wife and will be so considered.

Married 1st 1837 to Elizabeth King (Koenig), born in Baden, Germany, died 1855. Married 2d 1862 to Lydia Schindler, born Jan. 17, 1832 Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland, died Dec. 27, 1917 at Sevenmile, Ohio. Sixteen children, eleven by first marriage and five by second, III 1, etc. following:—

The records of the two daughters of the Rev. John Schlunegger, Mary and Barbara, are very incomplete and fragmentary. This is due partly to failure in securing correct mailing addresses of their descendants, or to a lack of responses from those to whom we have written. What we have been able to accumulate has come from more or less hazy memories of distant relatives. This is due to a wide scattering of the clan which resulted in loss of close and intimate contact.

Mrs. Christian Schlonaker, 104 Kinsey St., Richmond, Ind. says "I think there are Kings and Millers living in Illinois who married Father Peter Schlonaker's sisters, but that now only grandchildren would be living. The son of Joe King was a Menonite preacher and had a large congregation at Danvers, Ill. If I am not mistaken his father was a cousin of my husband."

Information from other sources gives Schadt and Sommers as the husbands of the two daughters of the Rev. John. We cannot vouch for the authenticity of the fragmentary records of these two daughters, because we have failed to get a response from any of their descendants. Their records, compiled largely from hearsay, will now be given.

II 5. Mary (Schlunegger) Schadt, married John Schadt and had a child Mary ("Mollie") who was killed in a railway accident.

II 6. Barbara (Schlunegger) Sommers, married David Sommers and reported to have had seven children. According to Emma L. (Unzicker) Campbell, Charley Somers, living at Somerville, Ohio, is a grandchild. He sent no reply to our letter. The seven children were, III 1, etc. following:—

III 1. Peter Somers, married Anna Slaubaugh.

III 2. Fannie (Somers) Kenworthy, married Thomas Kenworthy.

III 3. Mary (Somers) Morris, married Steven Morris.

III 4. Joseph Somers. Single.

III 5. Daniel Somers. Single.

III 6. Henry Somers.

III 7. William Somers, Straughin, Ind. (given by Mrs. Christian Schlonaker) (Written Nov. 16, 1932, no reply.)

II 7. Fanny (Ramseyer) Oswald-Smith. She is not a Slonaker descendant, but came to this country with her half brothers and sisters. A granddaughter, Mrs. Elizabeth V. Roberts is said to be living (1933) at 736 South Haevey St., Oak Park, Ill.

THE THIRD SLONAKER IMMIGRATION

The Rev. Michael Schlunegger was the ancestor of this group. The spelling of the surname has been simplified in many ways by different lines of descent. This will be noted in the genealogical records. Just when this man came to America has not been given. A foot note in the genealogy file states that Michael came from Switzerland in 1822. This date was given by Joseph Schloneger, R. D. 3, Louisville, Ohio. Since the passport for Anna (Schlunegger) Jacky (Yaggi?), who might have been a sister of Michael, is dated 1834, we are inclined to think that Michael came about the same time. But this is mere surmise.

Mahlcom Oren Krabill, R. D. 3, Louisville, Ohio says the parents of Michael were John and Barbara (Graber) Schlunegger who lived and died in Switzerland. John died Feb. 23, 1805 and Barbara, April 5, 1816. Mr. Krabill has given valuable assistance in gathering data concerning the descendants in this group.

As stated in the introduction to Group II, we feel that the parents of Rev. Michael were possibly also the parents of Rev. John (Group II), Anna (Schlunneger) Jacky, and Jeanne (Schlunegger) Andre, This relationship will be so considered, even though we have no definite proof, and will be dealt with accordingly.

In just what part of Ohio Michael first settled has not been ascertained, but judging from the large number of descendants still living in Stark County one would infer he made this region his home. He is reported to have died in Louisville, Stark Co., Ohio.

We are also greatly indebted to Miss Doris B. Slonecker, 2804 Acklen Ave., Nashville, Tenn., a great, great granddaughter of the Rev. Michael, who has generously assisted in compiling data and in loaning certain original and valuable historical documents bearing on this group. The documents she sent were: 1. The bible records of John (son of Rev. Michael). 2. The bible records of Michael (grandson of Rev. Michael). 3. Passport of Johannes Muller. 4. Passport of Anna (Schlunegger) Jacky, and 5. Death notice of Jacques Andre, husband of Jeanne Schlunegger. These original records are in the possession of Miss Doris B. Sloneker, with the exception of the passport of Johannes Muller, the translation of these records will appear in their appropriate places in the genealogy.

Though the passport of Johannes Muller has no apparent connection with the Slonaker genealogy, it is of historic value and shows what was required of each emigrant. The translation will be given in full. It is hoped that some of the Millers (simplified, or modern spelling), who have married into the Slonaker Clan, may be able to trace back to this man. It will be noticed that, at that time, a photograph of the applicant was not required. The passport is as follows:—

In the Name of the King

We the prefect of the department of Bas Chin invited the Civil and Military officers, charged with maintaining public order in the interior of the realm, and beg the Civil and Military fulfilling the same functions in friendly countries and allies of France to allow to pass freely Jean Muller, farmer, accompanied by his wife and his sister and David Schlaback, 28 years old, servant, living at Strasbourg going to America (United States) by way of Havre, and to give them aid and protection in case of need.

This passport given for one year and good for that time to leave French territory.

Delivered on the deposit of a passport to our bureau 1817 bearing this destination of which he has not made use and by virtue of his Excellency, the Minister of Interior on the 12th of May? 1818.

Made at Strasburg March 19, 1819.

The Prefect of Interior
(Sig) Engelmann.

Price of passport 10 francs.

(Marginal notes) Foreign Passport, Dept. of Bas Chin, Register 2nd, No. 99, (or G 9). Description: Age 46; Height, 1 meter 68 centimeters (about 5 feet, 6 inches); Hair, black; Forehead, covered; Eyebrows, black; Eyes, brown; Nose, large; Mouth, large; Beard, brown; Chin, round; Face, oval; Color, ordinary; No special markings.

Signature, Johannes Muller.

(Notes on reverse side) 1. Seen for Philadelphia on the Montgomery April 22, 1819, by Proxy for Com. Gen. Police. Sig. ..... 2d note not translated dated April 29, 1819.

It is surprising that the weight of Johannes was not included in the description.

Since our records show that Rev. Michael was the first of this group to come to this country, he, therefore, belongs to the first American generation. The genealogical records of this group will now be given.

GROUP III. REV. MICHAEL SCHLUNEGGER, GENERATION 1.

I ?. Rev. Michael Schlunegger, born 1792 in Berne, Switzerland, died May 2, 1879 at Louisville, Ohio, married to Barbara Conrad, born in Switzerland, died March 3, 1876. A great grandson, Joseph Schloneger, Louisville, Ohio, says Michael was born in Berne, Switzerland 1792, came to this country 1822 and died 1879. He was the son of John and Barbara Schluneger who had one son (Michael) and one daughter whose name was not given. If this is true the supposition that Michael and the Rev. John of Group II were brothers would be wrong. Nine children have been reported, II 1, etc. following:—

II 1. Annie (Schlunegger) Yaggi, lived at Fort Wayne, Ind., born Sept. 16, 1813, married to John Yaggi. No record.

II 2. John Slonecker, born April 12, 1815 in Switzerland, married May 21, 1840 to Anna Yaggi. Miss Doris B. Slonecker of Nashville, Tenn. says that John had a brother, Michael. This is verified by Mrs. Mary E. (Slonecker) Holderman, of Goshen, Ind., who also says that he had a brother Jacob and that both Michael and Jacob lived near Louisville, Ohio. Very little has been gathered concerning his early life. He is reported to have been the father of at least ten children, though there is a questionable 11th child. John kept a very complete bible record of his family and in this he mentions only ten children. In all this record he spelled the surname Schlunegger and it was due to the later descendants that the spelling was simplified.

The bible records of John were written in good German script and were, for the most part, quite legible. The paper is now very fragile and some of the edges, together with parts of the written records, have been lost. This record should be carefully preserved in a flat condition and the edges reinforced with new paper. The original is now in the hands of Miss Doris Slonecker. The following is a free translation of these records by the writer.

Deaths (page 7)

1. My child, Jacob, died May 26, 1851, age 1 year, 9 months and 11 days.

The children of John are, III 1, etc. following:—

III 1. Michael J. Slonecker, born June 28, 1841 in Stark Co., Ohio, died April 19, 1913, married Sunday January 12, 1868 to Elizabeth Ress (modern spelling Race), born June 17, 1837 (6?) in Stark Co., Ohio, died April 1, 1912 at McEwen, Tenn. Michael kept a bible record of his family and in it he always spelled the name Schlunegger.

The following is a free translation by the writer of the records in Michael's bible. These records were written in beautiful german script with ink that has faded but slightly. Note the uniform spelling of the surname which is consistent with the records of his father, John. Note also that Michael spelled his wife's name Ress while John had it Res. Now Race.

We now come to two descendants whose relation to Rev. John, or to Rev. Michael, the ancestors of Groups II and III has not been determined. They evidently belong to the same generation. Since the documents were in the hands of a descendant of Rev. Michael (Miss Doris Slonecker) it would indicate a close relationship. They might have been sisters or cousins of John and Michael. This we will probably never know. The first of these two persons, Anna (Schluneger) Jacky, a widow, came to this country in 1834 as indicated by her passport. She was accompanied by her son, age 16, and five daughters, ages from six to twenty-two. We have no record of any of her descendants. A translation of her passport is given in full because of its historic value. This may be of interest to some descendants who may be closely connected to her.

In the Name of the King

We the Prefect of the Department of Doubs require the civil and military authorities of the realm and beg the civil and military authorities of friendly states and allies of France to allow free passage to Madam widow Jacky, nee Schluneger (Anne), farmer's wife, accompanied by her son, age 16, and her five daughters, aged from six to twenty-two, native of la Chaux du Fonds (Switzerland), living at St. Hypolite, Dept. of Doubs, going to New York (U. S. A.) to live, and to give them aid and protection in case of need.

The present passport is good during one year to leave the realm.

Executed at Besancon, the 13th of February 1834.

The prefect of the Dept. of Doubs
by the Prefect (Sig.) J. Coveen
The counsellor of the Prefecture, Secretary General
(Sig.) Maittre

Price of Passport ten francs

To be paid on presentation to M. the under Prefect of Montbelaird.

General Police of France

Foreign passport good for one year. Department of Doubs. Register No. 5, No. 26.

Description

Age, 46; Height, 1M. 58 centimeters (about 5 feet 2 inches); Weight 72 K. (about 193 pounds); Hair, blonde; Forehead, ordinary; Eyebrows, chestnut; Eyes, grey; Nose, large; Mouth, medium; Chin, round; Face, oval; Color, ordinary; Particular marks, a freckle on left cheek. (Sig.) Anna Schluneger.

(Notes on reverse side of passport)

Seen for New York on the ship Leturbot, Capt. Wheler, April 2, 1834. The 6th delegated deputy, (Sig.) ————. Seen for embarcation, Commissioner of classes (Sig.)————.

Since Anna was 46 years of age when her passport was issued in 1834, the date of her birth would be about 1788. This is close to the dates of birth of Rev. John (1777) and Rev. Michael (1792). But we have no record to show that she was a sister. This completes the information we have gotten concerning her.

The second of these two persons, Jeanne (Schluneger) Andre, who was closely related to Rev. John and Rev. Michael, apparently never came to this country. At least we have no record of her embarcation from her native land. What little we know of her will be given as it may be of value in establishing relationships. She could very easily have been a sister of Anna, though we have no proof of such a relationship. When the certificate of death of her husband, Jacques Andre, was issued in 1830 she was 43 years old. This would make her date of birth about 1787. The fact that this death certificate, together with the passports of Anna and Johannes Muller, have all been preserved by Miss Doris B. Slonecker, a descendant of Rev. Michael, indicates a close relationship. Some of the descendants may be able to definitely establish the correct connections. The only historical and authentic data we have concerning Jeanne will now be given.

CHRISTOPHER SLONIGER,
UNCONNECTED GROUP P. GENERATION II.

The information received concerning this man is very meager. It is reported that he was born in Germany and died at Mendon, Ill. When he came to America has not been given. The name of his father and the names of his brothers and sisters have not been ascertained. It is therefore impossible to state to what immigration group he belongs. The spelling of the surname strongly suggests his connection with Group II, or with Group III. He would have been about the same age as the children of Rev. John (Group II), or of Rev. Michael (Group III). It is also possible that he constituted a wholly independent group of immigrants. If so he arrived in this country somewhat later than Groups II and III. According to Mrs. Doris Vivian (Sloniger) Loftus of Julesburg, Colo., a great granddaughter of Christopher, the ancestry were in York Co., Pa.? for over 50 years, but she does not state during what years. As nearly as we can determine the generation to which Christopher belonged corresponds to Generation II of Groups II and III and will be so considered in dealing with his descendants.

The records we have been able to gather of the descendants of Christopher are far from complete, but will be given as fully as we were able to gather and compile them.

GROUP IV. CHRISTIAN SCHLUNEGGER, GENERATION III.

The father of this man is reported as John Schlunegger who was born, lived and died 1878 at Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland. His mother, name not given, was born at Schildwald, Switzerland and died 1847 at Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland. Lauterbrunnen is near the center of Switzerland, about 60 miles slightly north of east from Lake Geneva and about 10 miles north of the Bernese Alps. It is also about 80 or 90 miles southeast of La Chaux de Fonds, St. Hypolite, Doubs River, etc. from which region the Schlunegger ancestors of Groups II and III emigated. The same spelling of the surname suggests a close relationship between these three groups. Also the given name, Christian, is quite frequent in Groups II and III. If there was a relationship between these groups the linkage for it would apparently have to be discovered in Switzerland.

The records of Christian are very incomplete. He is reported to have been born at Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland in 1846 and to have died at Petaluma, Calif. in 1922. Just when he came to America has not been ascertained. Since his wife was born in Switzerland it is very likely that he was married before emigrating. The date of his birth would indicate that he belonged to the same generation as generation III of Groups II and III. The little we know concerning this group follows.

III ?. Christian Schlunegger, son of John Schlunegger, born March 9, 1846 at Lauterbrunnen, Switzerland, died 1922 at Petaluma, Calif., married 1875 to Marie Dahler, born Feb. 25, 1847 at Seftigen, Canton Berne, Switzerland, died 1913 at Petaluma, Calif. One child reported, IV 1, following:—

IV 1. Lena Schlunegger, 1430 California St., San Francisco, Calif.

GROUP V. CHRISTIAN SCHLUNEGGER, GENERATION II.

This is the fifth and last group of Slonaker immigrants we have contacted. Christian, the ancestor of this group, was born in 1811 near Chaux de Fonds, Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland and died at Pulaski, Iowa in 1897. In 1848 he married Marian Roulet in Switzerland where they lived until 1873 when he, his wife and his four children emigrated to the United States and settled near Pulaski, Iowa. A large number of the descendants still live in this vicinity. The original spelling of the surname has been changed by his children and their descendants as will be noted in the following genealogy of this group.

The given name of the father of Christian is not known by any of the descendants. He died in Switzerland and no record of him has been found. Christian was but three years old when his father died. A son of Christian, Louis Slonaker, of Pulaski, Iowa, who has been very helpful in gathering the data concerning this group, says his father had two brothers; John who was born and died in Switzerland, and Peter who was born in Switzerland and he thinks died in France. Louis also says he has heard his father speak of cousins living in Butler Co., Ohio and mentioned Christ Schluneger as one of them. He states further that John, Peter, Daniel, Verena and Mary Schluneger were nephews and nieces of his father and came to America about 1860. These persons we have not been able to place in the genealogical history.

The Rev. P. R. Aeschliman of Colfax, Wash., who has given great help in collecting information, says the maiden name of Christian's wife was Roulet and that she was a sister of his mother. He also states that in 1871, when a boy of 9 years of age, he spent several weeks at the Schluneger home near Chaux de Fonds, Canton de Neuchatel, Switzerland and that their nearest neighbor was Jules Schlunegger who, he thinks, may have been a cousin.

All of this family lived near Pulaski, Iowa except one son, Christian, who moved westward and settled on a farm near Colfax, Wash. where he spent the rest of his life and reared a large family.

There is almost conclusive evidence that this group is very closely related to Groups II and III. The original spelling of the surname was the same, they all migrated from about the same region in Switzerland, and the statement by Christian that he had cousins in Ohio where Groups II and III settled all indicate that these three groups had a common ancestor not many generations back. For this reason we have concluded to place Christian in generation II, even though he is the first generation in this country, so that a more direct comparison of the different generations in these three closely related groups may be made. Should any of the descendants desire to establish a definite relationship they would have to make search of the ancestry in Switzerland.

II ?. Christian Schluneger, born 1811 near Chaux de Fonds, Canton of Neuchatel, Switzerland, died 1897 at Pulaski, Iowa, married 1848 to Marian Roulet, born Nov. 28, 1814 in Switzerland, died 1883 at Pulaski, Iowa. III 2. Christian Schluneger, born Feb. 10, 1850 in Switzerland, died Feb. 2, 1915 at Colfax, Wash., married 1st to Verena Ummel, born 1863, died 1885 in Iowa; married 2d 1886 to Sophie Julia Aeschliman, born Sept. 26, 1867, died March 2, 1934 at Colfax, Wash. Two children by first marriage and twelve by second. We are greatly indebted to his daughter, Miss Lydia Schluneger, Penawawa, Wash., for her willing assistance in completing the records of her brothers and sisters. A letter from her dated Dec. 10, 1936 gives some interesting history and accounts of her parents and descendants and parts of it will be quoted.

"Our parents, Christ and Sophie Julia (Aeschliman) Schluneger, came from Iowa to the State of Washington in the fall (Oct.) of 1887. Lived in Almota, Wash., the first winter, then moved to Palouse, Wash. and lived there until 1896. From there they moved to a farm which Father bought (and which we still own) near Wilcox, Washington. They have taken out the Post-office at Wilcox now so the farm address is now R. D. 3, Colfax, Wash. Father passed away on the farm and Mother and seven of us children, under 21 years of age, continued to live there. One by one they got married and 1928 Mother and three of us girls moved into the city of Colfax, Wash. where we lived until March 2, 1934 when dear Mother passed away. We sold our home in Colfax in 1935, but we still own the farm near Wilcox, Wash. My brother, Ernest, is farming it at the present time. Emma and I (Lydia) are making our home with our sisters. Louis stays at brother Albert's home most of the time. We three work out whenever jobs are available. Everything is very quiet just now. My folks had (12) twelve children, 6 boys and 6 girls. (She does not mention the two children by the first marriage). Two brothers and one sister have passed away, as also our dear parents.

"I'm sorry that I can't help you more about the Schluneger history, but on Feb. 2d it was 21 years since dear Father passed away and of course at that time we were young and going to school, so thought very little of past Family history then. But we were certainly glad to hear from you and get at least that much. Father left his name spelled Schluneger in his will, so to save a lot of red tape (in Court) to prove that Slonaker and Schluneger were one and the same people. We always spelled our name Schluneger (with only one -g-). Brother Fred of Palouse spells his name Slonaker, the only one in our family." She says further that the relatives in Iowa spell the name Slonaker. "I think it very interesting now and certainly would love to have a complete record of the Schluneger or Slonaker history. I haven't seen a living relative on Father's side of the family as they all live in Pulaski, Iowa and we are way out here in Washington. So they almost seem as strangers to us. I certainly hope I will some day be financially able to go East. Uncle Louis Slonaker is getting up in years and I would surely love to see him. Have seen all my uncles and aunts on my mother's side of the family and all of our first cousins but 6 on the Aeschliman side. But haven't even seen a cousin, leave alone an Uncle or Aunt on Father's side. So you can plainly see why it is hard for us to know much about the Slonakers."

The following list of descendants, taken largely from telephone and city directories, have not been placed in their lines of descent because they failed to send in their genealogical history in response to the letters sent them. Some of the addresses given are no doubt now incorrect. These persons belong to different immigration groups. This list is given in order to include in the history every descendant we have learned of in the hopes that it may be of value to others who may be able to place them where they belong.
